DIRECTOR From the Executive Director

Executive Director Resigns Effective June 23

Paul Henderson,
SCSCAI
Executive Director

In the summer of 2015 I became aware of Sun City Summerlin's recruitment for an executive director. I was living in Northern Idaho at the time, but was actively looking to move back to Southern Nevada. The job announcement caught my interest and I applied. I started the job as executive director here on the last day of November 2015.

It has been my pleasure to work closely with your last two presidents – Joe O'Connell and David Steinman – and also with the Board of Directors, the employees and the residents of Sun City Summerlin. This is a fabulous community, and a great place to live and retire. My experiences here have been great and I sincerely hope that I have been a positive influence on the community. I also hope that I have been successful in helping maintain the assets of the Association and thereby sustaining or increasing your property values.

I will be living in the area and will be available to the Board and staff during the transition period and will help where I can.

I wish the best for Sun City Summerlin and each one of you individually.

I sincerely thank you for the opportunity to work here in Sun City Summerlin. It has been a rewarding and fulfilling experience.

PRESIDENT President's Message

Search On for New Executive Director

Hopefully, this month we should have some good candidates for the job.

Joe O'Connell,
President,
SCSCAI Board of Directors

This past month was a tough one for me. Our executive director left for a better offer from one of his past employments. He will be missed. The day after he gave me his resignation, I contacted Colin Baenziger, who found us Paul 18 months ago. Hopefully, this month we should have some good candidates for the job. The ED's job is a tough one. The most difficult part is dealing with nine people on the board of directors. We all think we are his immediate boss. The truth is only the president can instruct him to do something. It can be very difficult for an ED if two directors want differing actions. Paul has told me many times of the difficulties he had with directors. The second most difficult part of his job was dealing with irate residents who feel that he should do exactly what they want. It is even worse when they are not polite or crude. Clubs can be very demanding and see the ED as their personal answer to all their demands. One club was especially difficult for Paul. Some employees can cause real headaches, and a couple were actually fired by him in the past year.

I personally recruited former executive director Barbara Cogar when she was here, and she told me the same type of things, and they greatly influenced her early departure.

The reason I am giving this information is to hope to encourage all our residents, clubs and directors to treat the new ED as we ourselves would like to be treated. It is something we were all taught in grammar school, but many of us have forgotten. Please be civil to the person and say "something nice" when you can. Maybe they will stay long enough to get a real handle on things and stay longer.

We have over 13,000 residents here and most of us are very happy here. It is a great place to retire and enjoy ourselves.

When it gets over 110 degrees here this month, maybe we should consider visiting California for a few days. Carmel is my wife's favorite spot in the summer. I just wish I could afford the golf at Pebble Beach.

Keepers of the Wild

By Beth Nappe/Link

Is Home to Lions and Tigers and Bears, Oh My!

It was a safari in the desert. Each year, the Community Services Department plans and executes more than 20 field trips for residents. In May, 50 people had the pleasure of making the trip out to Valentine, Ariz., to the Keepers of the Wild Nature Park.

It was a beautiful day. Along the way the guide pointed out places of interest and provided historical facts about the areas we motored through. The bus ride included a stop at the Cracker Barrel restaurant in Kingman, Ariz., for an early lunch. Then it was back on the bus for the remaining 30 minutes to the park.

At the park, the Sun City group boarded a tram for an informational tour. The tour guide, Linda, who is the education program director at the park, provided our group with stories about the animals and how they came to be at the park. The attraction is currently home to 165 animals; 52 different species and sub species. They go through 400 pounds of food per day.

These animals have come to the park in a variety of ways. Some are from zoos that have shut down; some were injured and have been rescued since they can't be returned to the wild; some are confiscated from people illegally keeping or selling them as pets; and others are refugees from various entertainment enterprises.

Keepers is a non-profit organization that, through donations and tours, provides a life long home to these animals. Our group saw tigers, llamas, lions, various types of monkeys, deer, a camel, goats, bobcats, wolves, coyotes, leopards, ravens, emus, ostrich, vultures, owls, a lemur and one adorable grizzly bear named Bam Bam. Bam Bam had been purchased by an animal trainer who was unable to keep her. She was days away from being euthanized before Keepers rescued her.

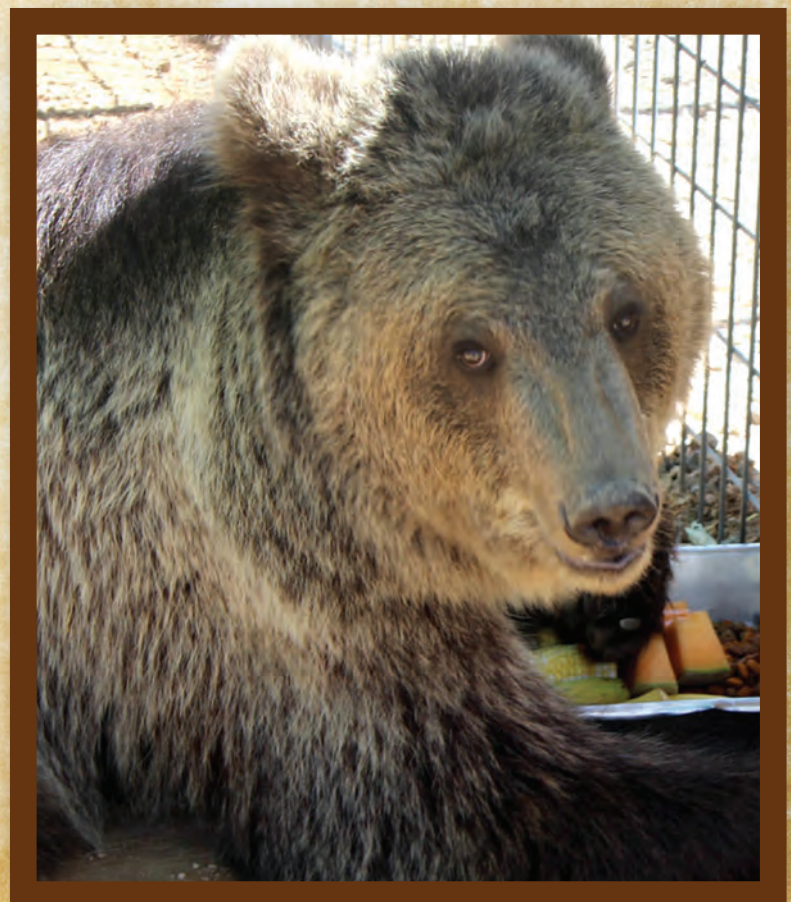

All the animals are kept in large natural habitat areas and are cared for by 22 employees, as well as volunteers.

Sun City residents Monica and Bud Glasman have enjoyed several Community Services trips. "Absolutely wonderful!" was Monica's evaluation of this trip. Participants all shouted their approval when asked if they had a good time.

Community Services offers a variety of one-day trips. Residents have a chance to enjoy excursions to museums, shopping areas, Colorado River floating, plays, casinos and other places of interest. It's a great way for residents to get out and about.

Skylar, a Bengal tiger, started life as a photo opportunity cat in traveling shows. He arrived at Keepers of the Wild when he no longer was a profitable resource. That happened when he turned 8 months old. Bam Bam, a grizzly bear, also started out in entertainment. When her owner no longer had a need for her she was scheduled to be euthanized. She was rescued in 2014.

NEIGHBORS Meet Don Irish

By Jeannette Carrillo

The Missouri Connection: 100-Year-Old Quilt Goes Home

Native Missourian – Check. Presidential Connection – Check. National World War I Museum at Liberty Memorial – Check. It may seem like all the pieces of the puzzle fell into place easily, but Sun City resident Don Irish can tell you that his journey to memorialize an artifact of his family tree has been an adventure rooted in determination, discovery and a whole lot of patience.

In 2015, when the Link first learned of Don's crusade, the magazine covered his story. Don had his sights set high – he targeted the National World War I Museum at Liberty Memorial in Kansas City, Missouri. Why? Well, Don was from Missouri and his family had a connection to another famous Missourian, Harry S. Truman, the 34th president of the United States. Don's dad, Frederick Forest Irish, served under Truman in the U.S. Army's 129th Field Artillery, Battery F, of the 35th Division. The way Don figured it, having the quilt accepted into the museum's permanent collection would be the perfect homecoming.

But before any requests could be made, Don had an assignment: He had to get the quilt authenticated. He knew his mom had stitched the 25 panels that represented many of the U.S. military organizations on the red, white and blue blanket, but he needed proof. So, with the help of Sun City's Quilting Club, Don headed to Kingman, Ariz., to meet an expert. At a local shop a state away, the quilt was measured, examined and appraised. It was indeed a century old and documented in excellent condition.

Over the last few months, Don's efforts have increased and the quilt has had an audience with U.S. Representative Dina Titus, D-Nev., has been the subject of another feature story and, drum roll please, been accepted into the permanent collection of the National World War I Museum at Liberty Memorial.

"Basically, I wanted to say thanks to our father for his service and thank you to our mother for her patriotism," Don said when asked about his reason for wanting to preserve the quilt's legacy. "I don't know many people who have items that are 100 years old in such great shape."

So, if you're ever in Kansas City, be sure to head to the National World War I Museum at Liberty Memorial. The Irish family quilt will be on rotating display as part of the exhibits commemorating the anniversary of the start of the Great War.

Top, Sun City resident Don Irish explains the origins of his family's World War I quilt to U.S. Representative Dina Titus, D-Nev., and representatives of the VFW Department of Nevada Jr. Vice Commander Jerry Peterson and Vita Lopez.

"The thing that has been paramount with my brother and I is the desire to pay proper respect to our parents," said Don about the quilt his mother, Zillah, crafted for her doughboy who went off to battle enemies of the United States during World War I. And the best way to do that, Don said, was a wild idea that came to him one day about getting his mom's quilt into the collection of a museum. Only there, he said, could it be properly appreciated.

But where, when and how would become questions that would shape the strategy of his plan of attack.

MILT GOLDSTEIN

20-Year Tour Culminates With Honor Flight to D.C.

"From the halls of Montezuma to the shores of Tripoli" proclaims the heritage of the United States Marines. From the shores of Tsingtoa, China, to the shores of Da Nang, Vietnam, with a stopover in the plains of Pohang, South Korea – travels that mark the 20-year career of Gunnery Sergeant Milt Goldstein USMC (retired), a Sun City resident and longtime member of the Military and Friends Club.

As a Boy Scout in Cleveland Ohio, young Milt always considered the Marines to be a class act. "One day, I watched a parade where the Marines marched in their dress blues and I was hooked. I wanted to enlist immediately, but I was only 17 and my mother would not sign for me. So I joined the reserves. After graduating high school and I turned 18, I enlisted. I was a Marine," he said.

Life as a Marine started at Parris Island, an 8,000-plus-acre installation located near Beaufort, South Carolina. It is the Marine Corps recruit depot, the place where the transformation from teenager to Marine begins, as it has for untold thousands of recruits since 1915.

After completing basic training, Milt's first assignment was Headquarters and Service Battalion, 1st Marine Division. Their task: evacuate the remaining Marines in China still rooting out the last Japanese soldiers who refused to surrender. It was 1949 and Mao Zedong's red army was quickly overrunning China.

Modern armies require vast amounts of supplies. Once delivered by the Merchant Marine, an integral part of the fighting unit takes control. In 1950, Milt was assigned to the 2nd Marine Division and sent to basic supply school. Thus began the rest of his 20-year journey as a Marine. Originally scheduled for deployment to Korea with the Division in 1950, fate in the form of a bureaucratic mixup intervened and he was assigned stateside. In December 1953, he finally made it to Korea assigned to the 1st Marine Airwing stationed in Pohang, South Korea, as Aviation Supply Chief.

After a year in Korea, Milt returned to assignments at El Toro in California and Parris Island, where he was when Hurricane Gracie devastated the area in 1956. Other assignments and promotions followed until, in January 1967, when Milt was assigned to the 3rd Marine Airwing based in Da Nang, Vietnam. Still in a supply role, Milt was stationed behind the front lines, but one day he had an opportunity to fly as a passenger in a C130 to the hot zone. They landed on a dirt strip and had to use JATO to take off in the limited space. While there, however, Milt witnessed a squad returning from a skirmish.

"It was a scene I'll never forget," he recalled, his face darkening with the recalled image. "Even though it was 50 years ago."

Other than that, Nam duty wasn't too bad. "We were near China Beach, had locals to do the housework and weren't near the hot zones." His tour was up and so was his 20-year hitch. Milt returned home and soon was a civilian again.

In recent years, the Corps veteran received two special recognitions. In 2014, he was awarded a customized Quilt of Valor and in 2015 he was selected for an Honor Flight trip to D.C., where he participated in the laying of a wreath at the Korean War Memorial.

Summerlin Patriotic Parade

Tuesday, July 4, 9 a.m.

Las Vegas' largest Independence Day parade happens right next door to Sun City. You won't want to miss this annual celebration of American spirit. Pack a blanket or lawn chairs and gather up a group and follow the flags that align the parade route. Be sure to arrive early as seating areas fill up fast. The parade begins at Hills Center Drive and continues along streets from Hillpointe Road and Hills Center to Hills Center and Trailwood drives, ending at the entrance of the Trails Village Shopping Center.

Nothing says 4th of July like those beautiful bursting orbs that explode into the sky in every color of the rainbow. And Sun City has a front-row seat to some of Las Vegas' best shows. Residents and guests traditionally head to The Summit patio to enjoy a bird's-eye view of the fireworks extravaganzas presented by Red Rock Casino and many of the hotels on the Strip. Fireworks usually begin around 9:15 p.m. and last about 15 minutes.

RED NOSE DAY

Men's Golfing Group Rocks the Red Nose

Sun City resident Burt Karaalp may not have known what he was getting his golfing buddies into when he bought a bagful of red noses at Walgreens in May. But the opportunity to plop a bright red bulb onto the noses of his Tuesday/Thursday golfing buddies was just too good an opportunity to pass up.

"I thought it was a good idea to help feed the kids," said Burt as he squeezed the Rudolph-red nose at Highland Falls. Since 2015, more than $60 million has been raised to benefit Red Nose Day, a U.S. fundraiser celebrated on May 25 to help end childhood poverty.

On May 16, Burt and his group of 25 guys put their money where their noses were. The cost of each $1 nose was their donation to the cause, as well as their effort to help raise awareness about the event.

"We have more fun with this group than most," said member Tim Morris. "Most would agree. It's just great to get out with the guys, have fun and play."

"Thank you for (taking our picture)," said another member, Bill Meadors. "These guys are great and so much fun to be with."

For Burt, who founded the group 16 years ago with his friend Art Poore, it's all about friendship.

"We meet twice a week, on Tuesdays at the bigger courses and on Thursday at Eagle Crest. We have golfers in their 80s and 90s. We come out, play and have a good time. I'd also like to wish Art, who's not feeling that good, to feel better soon."

Now and Then

Craft Store Memories

Did you know that when Desert Vista opened in 1994 there was a store located where the Fitness Department office is now where club members belonging to groups like Krafty Kritters and Stained Glass could sell their wares? The store was manned by members of the clubs who would donate four hours of their time a week. One of those volunteers was Susan Neiry, a current member of the Art Club, who said, "I think the store was put there because the sales office for the newly opened section of Sun City was just across the street and there was ample foot traffic to see the new homes and the newly opened Desert Vista Community Center."

Walter Medla, who has been a resident for more than 25 years and is the current president of the Stained Glass Club, worked at the store and pointed out that when you looked across the patio you could see the sales office, which is the taller of the buildings in the photograph.

Around 1998 to 2000, when most of the homes had been built and the construction moved up the hill to another phase, the foot traffic died down and the store was closed. A few years later and following some construction tweaks, the Fitness Department moved into the space around 2006.

(If you have been in Sun City since its inception, and if you have old photographs, and would like to share a memory/ies from the past, please feel free to contact me at stugershon@gmail.com. I'd like to set up a time to meet with you and continue our "Now and Then" project.)

Heaven Can Wait Fosters Needed

Heaven Can Wait Animal Society has spayed and neutered more than 124,000 dogs and cats in Las Vegas since 2009. One way this is done is through the help of volunteers who trap feral cats, which are spayed/neutered and released to where they were found. The kittens, however, are kept and vaccinated, and fostered until they weigh 2 pounds, at which time they are spayed and neutered. HCW currently has 10 valley veterinarians who take in these kittens for adoption, working through the Abandoned Pets program.

If you've ever been interested in fostering a kitten, now may be your chance. HCW is seeking fosters who can take in a kitten (or two) for a month until they are old enough to be placed at the veterinarian for adoption. For more information, call Sun City resident Marleen Harrison, 461-5474.

2017 Sun City Summerlin Classic Car Show

Save the Date: Saturday, October 28, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., Mountain Shadows · Plaques and raffle entry for the first 100 cars

"Preparations for the show are going well, with about one-third of the expected 100 cars registered," said organizer Dave Holman. "However, we need more residents to get their cars entered. Even though October 28 seems a long way away it will be here before we know it."

Volunteers need the cars entered as early as possible so that parking spaces can be pre-assigned. Specific information regarding the show will then be made available to participants before the event, Dave said.

In addition to the vehicles, the show needs a few more volunteers to help with parking and the raffle. Anyone wishing to volunteer or enter a car, can reach Dave at 439-0405.

This year the car show will benefit two area charities – Sun City Charities and the Sunshine Service Club. Both organizations are located next to Security Patrol at Desert Vista. The Sunshine Service Club has been providing assistance items to people in need since 1996. They also assist the Salvation Army in collecting food. Sun City Charities provides rides and minor handy man services to residents that are temporarily unable to get around on their own or make minor repairs. Both charities are non-profits and totally dependent on donations for their existence. It is the car show's goal to help them continue their good work.

How Sun City Works Interfacing with the Board of Directors

SCSCAI's Board of Directors (BOD) is elected by the membership and as such is its representative. Thus, the questions arise: How can I contact them and, if desired, place an item on the BOD agenda? The answers are rather straight forward. While there are numerous ways to contact a BOD member, as outlined below, there is only one way to place an item on the monthly agenda – enlist a BOD member to sponsor it.

You can contact a Board member in the following ways:

- ◆ Directly by phone or email. That information is published in every issue of the Link Magazine on Page 6.
- ◆ By attending the monthly Coffee With the Boards held on the third Friday of the month, 10:30 a.m., Desert Vista. This meeting offers an opportunity to informally discuss ideas with Board members.
- ◆ If your concern is in a specific area (i.e. Information Technology or Golf) you'll want to attend the appropriate committee meeting and be heard there. Schedules are published in every Link magazine.
- ◆ By attending the monthly BOD meeting, first Tuesday of the month, 9 a.m., Desert Vista. There are two times during the meeting where a member may address the BOD – at the beginning of the meeting during resident comments (where a member may speak only on items listed on that meeting's agenda) and at the end of the meeting (where they may speak on any community-based matter subject to a 3-minute time limit).

Once you've succeeded in enlisting a BOD member to sponsor your item on the monthly agenda you'll want to be sure to attend the meeting and speak in support of it. If you know of others who support your item, be sure to invite them to the meeting to help express that support.

HEALTHY Health & Fitness

Stay Safe & Healthy This Summer

Enjoy all the benefits of the summer while minimizing health risks.

I don't know about you, but for me summer means backyard barbecues, lounging by the pool and enjoying the outdoors. Long days, and warm mornings and evenings beckon us outside with friends and family. Staying smart and with a little bit of pre-planning, we can ensure that we enjoy all the benefits of the summer while minimizing health risks posed by a few summertime worries.

Top 5 Ways to Stay Summer Safe:

experience any of these symptoms, get indoors immediately and drink water to help you cool down. Call 911 if symptoms persist or worsen.

Cover up. Too much sun exposure can cause sunburn, premature aging and skin cancer. You can reduce your exposure during mid-day by applying a lotion or spray with a sun protection factor of at least 15, while wearing a hat and light-colored clothing. These are a few practical ways to prevent health issues related to sun exposure.

Fight the bite! Bees, wasps, ants, mosquitoes and ticks are more active in the summer months. Drain any standing water to reduce mosquito breeding grounds, wear long sleeves and pants in wooded or grassy areas when hiking or camping, use insect repellent, and never poke nests or hives (always call a professional to remove a hive that presents a problem in your vicinity.) Know the signs of an allergic reaction – hives, swelling, throat tightness, difficulty breathing, vomiting and/or feeling faint/lightheaded – and contact your doctor or call 911 immediately.

Stay Cool and hydrated. The average temperature in Southern Nevada hits 100 degrees more than 60 days in the summer and humidity is around 30 percent. Heat stroke and exhaustion are serious risks that increase when you're working or exercising in the heat. Spending time in a spa, using some types of medications and/or drinking caffeinated or alcoholic beverages can be dehydrating. Signs of overheating include: feeling faint, nauseous, changes in your pulse rate, weakness and muscle cramps, and clammy skin. If you

Watch that food. Follow five simple steps to food safety: Clean hands, surfaces and serving/cooking utensils often; separate raw meat from other food and clean any surface that held raw meat before using again; cook foods to the right temperature; chill food promptly after meals; and when in doubt, throw it out!

Stay Water Safe. Avoid solo swimming, don't mix alcohol and swimming, and designate a Water Watcher to keep eyes on children at all times around bodies of water.

Your Way to

Have you ever thought that because you have arthritis, cardiovascular disease, bad hips/knees/ankles/back, can't walk very far, are overweight, had a stroke, or are diabetic are reasons why you can't exercise? Think again! We have the perfect exercise machine for you and it's called the NuStep.

The NuStep is a recumbent cross trainer or stepper that simulates the motion of walking in a seated position. It has the capability for you to use both arms and legs at the same time or use only arms or only legs.

The NuStep is a great workout for your whole body. It increases your cardio effect, making your heart and lungs stronger while increasing blood flow to all areas of your body, which helps in losing weight, lowering your blood pressure, improving your blood sugar levels and feeling better overall.

The NuStep also helps in brain function. According to the book "Regular Exercise Changes the Brain to Improve Memory and Thinking Twelve-year resident Mark Rosenfeld enjoys working out on the NuStep. The cross-trainer stimulates the motion of walking in a seated position.

Skills" by Heidi Godman, executive director for Harvard Health Letter, "Studies show that the parts of the brain that control thinking and memory (the prefrontal cortex and medial temporal cortex) have greater volume in people who exercise versus people who don't."

So, if you'd like to learn how to add the NuStep to your workout, sign up for an equipment orientation class today or ask a fitness specialist to show you how the machine may be right for you.

CCOC Chartered Clubs & Community Organizations

Non-Resident Guest Policy

This month, CCOC will meet on Thursday, July 6, 1 p.m., at Desert Vista.

Barbara Holden
CPC/Neighborhood Watch Committee Chairwoman

The Clubs & Community Organizations Committee (CCOC) is a standing committee of SCSCAI's Board of Directors that operates under its guidance. The committee serves as a liaison between all clubs and community organizations and the Board of Directors for the purpose of recommending changes in policy, endorsing special programs and arbitrating matters of conflict.

On May 2, SCSCAI's Board of Directors, in a 5 to 3 vote, approved CCOC's recommendation that clubs be allowed to change their constitutions to enable the club's membership to allow non-resident guests to attend as many club meetings and functions as the club chooses. Prior to this change, a non-resident was allowed to visit the club only twice per year.

Club members now have the opportunity to vote on whether they would like to adopt this new policy or not. Non-resident guests cannot join SCSCAI-chartered clubs and resident members of the club have priority over non-residents when an activity is limited to the number of people who can participate.

Currently, each resident household is allowed 24 guest passes per year. If those guest passes are exhausted, additional adult and child day passes are available for purchase at the Administration office, as well as at Mountain Shadows and Desert Vista social monitor stations. Club officers are responsible for assuring that non-residents have obtained a guest pass. Each club is responsible to keep track of non-resident guests.

Any change to a club's constitution requires a majority vote of the club membership at a duly noticed business meeting with a quorum present.

Several clubs are currently making arrangements to query their members. The Community Services Department will make revisions to the clubs' constitutions if any changes are needed. If no change is preferred, the current constitution of each club will remain unchanged.

Time Keepers – the Hidden Heroes

Sun City Security Patrol, like any good functioning organization, has hidden heroes. Members of various departments who work out of the public's sight keeping the puter input operators) that include a former Security Patrol chief, Bill Henriod.

"It is a time-consuming but important task," Janet said. "The training for time keepers is between five and seven sessions."

Why is the maintenance of working hour statistics important? The Association provides life-time appreciation awards for members who achieve 300, 500, 700 and 900 hours of volunteering in a year. The awards are redeemable at Association properties, including Tavern at the Falls and the Summit snack bar, golf pro shops, and awards can be applied to golfing fees. New members who work 200 hours in a year are eligible for the Two Hundred Club. The Two Hundred Club rewards all members who have volunteered 200 hours in a year with a dinner in November. It is a great way to meet other Security Patrol volunteers who work different shifts and just might be your neighbor.

Janet further explained the time keepers' role. "Each week we gather the dispatcher logs and record the names and shift hours received by each assigned security officer. Then any supplemental work sheets are reviewed. From the logs, we track the hours for new members and their trainers. A print out of hours volunteered is prepared and placed in a binder for review by Patrol members. If there is a discrepancy in a volunteer's hours, we attempt to resolve the problem by referencing the log and contacting the member."

Your Security Patrol is an important and complex element in Sun City Summerlin. Its members work hard; some during the most difficult hours of the night, and there are many departments who have hidden heroes keeping the Patrol functioning smoothly.

If you are interested in joining Security Patrol, you will be welcomed. Please call 255-2303. Don't forget to fill out the blue Emergency Contact form and return it to Security Patrol base or any IC.

Time keepers record all hours of all Security Patrol members who volunteer their time. That includes the assigned hours as driver, dispatcher or IC (Information Center) volunteers, plus the extra shift time and hours members work at special events, the uniform store, recruiting, car washing, purchasing and storing supplies; as well as well-wishers; meeting attendance; and telephone callers who remind members of the monthly meetings. The working hours for more than 200 Security Patrol members are recorded weekly in the Patrol's computer database.

When you think of Earth, Wind and Fire, Chicago, Blood, Sweat and Tears you think of bands notable for their fusion of rock, blues, pop, horns and jazz into a hybrid of music that will move you. We will take you back to those concerts of the '70s and '80s with a killer Vegas all-star band with singer Marc Love and special guest Denise Clemente. Together they will treat us to some of our all-time favorites like "Spinning Wheels," "Does Anybody Know What Time It Is," "You've Made Me So Very Happy," "Somewhere Out There" and more. Marc, known around town as "the Voice" is a big man with a big bluesy style that matches the powerful band.

MILITARY & FRIENDS

Annual Picnic Is a Great Time to Celebrate Veterans

Military & Friends Club President Larry Jones welcomes members to the club's annual May picnic at Desert Vista.

The Military and Friends Club was formed to always remember the service that many of our residents displayed for this country. The club has at least two members who served in WWII; many others who served in the Korean War; and on May 13, the Club honored 15 members who fought valiantly in the Vietnam War.

The guest speaker at the picnic was Chuck Dean, a Vietnam veteran and the author of nearly 20 books on the subject of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD). Chuck also writes a monthly column for The Vegas Voice.

According to Chuck, the biggest problem many of our veterans face is PTSD. The diagnosis of the disorder came about following Operation Desert Storm, when many servicemen and women returned from duty with feelings of traumatic stress, sleep disorders, depression and more.

For veterans of previous wars, many of PTSD's symptoms were present without the diagnosis.

The purpose of the Military and Friends Club is to celebrate the patriotism of servicemen and women. Members do not have to be veterans; they only need to support the efforts of the U.S. military. It's reported that some members joined the club specifically to pay tribute to a family member or spouse.

The Club meets annually for a picnic at Desert Vista. The event gives members a chance to reminisce, make new friends, enjoy great food, speakers and entertainment. This year, members welcomed a delicious treat by an authentic Good Humor ice cream vendor in a vintage ice cream truck, and Club President Larry Jones presented commemorative T-shirts to Vietnam veterans in attendance.

The Military and Friends Club meets six times a year. Annual dues are $10. For more information, call Larry, 405-8684.

But behind this façade is an entirely different Sigrid . . . she soon finds herself caught between what is right and what is wrong, and what falls somewhere in the shadows between the two.

Classical Music

The July 31 concert will include tangos, concertos, love songs and more. A range of styles and composers will be presented: A. Marcelo, C. Debussy,

G. Gershwin, J. Williams, E. Lecuona and others. Turns out, July 31st is Tom Wright's birthday and most likely his family member/s will join us for one or several pieces as his entire family are musicians! Tom has played for artists such as Elton John, Placido Domingo, Paul Anka, Andrea Bocelli and others. He is a founding member of the Las Vegas Philharmonic. Albina Asryan's repertoire includes works for violin, viola, cello, bass, flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, trumpet, trombone, horn, saxophone, euphonium, voice and choir. She resides in Las Vegas and is a piano teacher at Ed W. Clark High School. At our September 25 meeting, 7 p.m., in the Starbright Theatre, there will be an election to change the club constitution. We will vote on several changes: 1. The current amount of money that the board may spend without a vote is $100. We need to increase this to $1,500 to cover situations like renting a piano; 2. Raise the yearly guest pass limit from two per year to 24 per year, to match the Sun City Association rules; 3. Change from four Club officers to six Club officers to help cover our time out of town; 4. Raise our yearly dues to $5. Changes in the club constitution require a membership vote. Our club constitution is available online. We appreciate your participation and input in our activities. Doors will open at 6:30 p.m. with the show at 7 p.m. Contact Will Rydell at lledyrw@aol.com.

TAI CHI CLUB

The martial arts include Karate (Japan); Kung Fu (China); Jui Jitsu (Japan); Judo (Japan); Tae Kwan Do (Korea); and Tai-Chi (China). Tai-Chi has evolved from a quick, fast-fighting form into a slowed-down exercise and balance form.

According to Tai Chi Club President Doyle Kioehn, the current form of Tai-Chi practiced in our community is a version of the original martial art. Even though the skill was originally developed for combat, it has evolved to where practitioners move slowly, plan defensively, deliberately and evasively, while maintaining their concentration.

According to Doyle, "Since I have participated, I have found that my balance has improved dramatically, and I am more aware of my breathing as I do various moves. I make a more conscious effort to apply that to my daily moving about. I also found out that I stand and walk more upright."

Barry Feinblatt, a Sun City resident of 15 years, said Tai-Chi is considered an internal martial art, which controls the flow of energy. Having taught the martial arts in Buffalo, N.Y., before coming to our community, Barry just continued his interest in the discipline. When asked why he practices Tai Chi, he said, "I just enjoy it."

Mary Dodson, a new resident to Sun City, said, "I like learning new things," when asked about why she takes the classes. "The more I know, the better I feel about myself," she said.

Twenty-year club member Mery Finkle, who teaches many of the forms available, explained how Tai Chi is great for one's blood pressure. She also said it's a good way to learn how to focus on breathing; and it helps with coordination and improves balance.

Instructor Alex Shane has been in the club for 15 years.

"After I joined the club and did the different forms, I found that it provided a sense of physical and mental well-being."

Pei, a new resident of Sun City, and a brand new member of the club, tells us that she is taking up Tai Chi because, "I used to take Yoga classes and now I just wanted to change to another form of exercise."

The Tai-Chi Club has an extensive schedule of classes for all levels that can be found in the club directory in the Link. Annual dues are $5 per year. The club hosts three social meetings a year. For information, please feel free to call Doyle, 371-3475.

Hello everyone, this is Colbert coming to you with my first entry. In the past, Wesley has been providing the Link with updates and words of wisdom through this write up. It is time for Wes to move on and I, along with others, would like to thank him for his dedication to this portion of our magazine and the 18 Holvers. This edition will be our official change of command. That said, July will be a hot one. One of the big events to celebrate Independence Day will be the Red, White and Blue Tournament, July 3, 7 a.m. shotgun start, at Highland Falls. The rest of the month will be Thursday events. As the month comes to a close, be thinking about getting your member-member team together August 1 and 3. Over the last few months, as golf participation has started to increase, there has been a lot of questions about rocks – especially about balls in the rocks. Our rules chairman has posted the latest local rules on how to deal with these situations on our website, www.18holers.com. For questions, check the website, or call Colbert, 859-979-4376.

son: president, Jim Herhusky; vice president, Gary Kuehl; secretary, Bob Light; treasurer, Rob Robinson. The election results were announced at the club's annual business meeting at The Summit on May 10. More than 65 members attended the meeting and buffet, catered wonderfully by Top Dog Catering. League champions were recognized, volunteers acknowledged, the financial report was presented and general tomfoolery was abundant at each table. The club enjoyed a very successful season with many close games and league races, with the American League race going down to the final game and the National League requiring a playoff between the first half and second-half winners. For the summer months, the club meets at the Pinnacle field, 8:30 a.m., Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday for batting practice and/or pick-up games. This is a great opportunity for prospective new players to come out and meet our members and begin getting the rust off their game. Our season begins in late September/early October so there is plenty of time to get in shape for our friendly, recreational competitions. We have two leagues and they accommodate players of all skill levels so you don't have to be a former all-star to enjoy our activities. We also get together on Tuesdays for friendly scramble golf competitions on our local courses and have two picnics and two golf tournaments each year. Wives and partners often join the golfers for dinner at that week's course dining room after the round, and they are guests at our picnics. We are one of the most active Clubs in Sun City. Dues are $30/year. Thanks to our many sponsors and volunteers.

The Many Benefits of a Reverse Mortgage:

- You still own your home.*
- No monthly mortgage payment.*
- Get tax-free money you can use for anything.
- Eliminate your existing mortgage.

How do Reverse Mortgages Work?

The application process is very similar to any other home loan. If you have sufficient equity in your home, your current loan (if you have one) will be paid off with your new reverse mortgage. This will eliminate any current monthly mortgage payment you have! Any additional money after your mortgage is paid will be available to you tax-free.
