PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Leo Crawford
SCSCAI Board of Directors

It's Spring, a Lovely Time of Year

Good day to all Sun City Summerlin. This month's President's Message is coming to you from a substitute at the request of our departing Board President, Joe O'Connell. As of the Board election in February, Joe finished his term as President and as a member of the SCSCAI Board. Joe intends to use his newfound time improving his golf game. Thanks, Joe, for the many, many years you served on the Board including several years as Board President. SCSCAI is a better place to live in because of your service. And a great big welcome to the new Board members.

We have a great community and what really makes it great is the people who live here – the volunteers who staff our committees, the volunteers who belong to the Security Patrol, the people who can be counted on the help a neighbor, putting out or away their neighbors' trash cans or giving a ride to the doctor. That's what makes a great community, people helping people. Those are just a few of the ways to keep our community a great place to live. There are many, many more such as joining a club and volunteer to be an officer. Get involved and be an active part of SCSCAI. We have the Link magazine and its online edition to keep you up to date on SCSCAI. Another great way to keep informed is to sign up for the email blasts sent by the ED. Sign up by sending Mitzi an email (MitziM@suncitylv.com).

SCSCAI does not have a "prize patrol" that drives around looking for things that need attention. We rely on our 13,000 residents to tell SCSCAI if something is wrong and needs fixing, or something that could be made better. Attend the appropriate committee meeting and bring up the issue; send a Board member an email; send the appropriate SCSCAI manager or the Executive Director, Mitzi Mills, an email. We have about 13,000 residents that are traveling around and see things that might need attention. If you see something, say something!

It's spring, it's spring, a lovely time of year. Time for all of us to do some spring cleaning, including our yards. Those pesky weeds will be starting to grow, rocks might need refreshing and to be swept off the sidewalks, and plants and trees trimmed or replaced. Let's all do our part to keep our community looking great.

And finally, please do not park on the sidewalk. Because of the rolled curbs, it's easy to creep onto the sidewalk as you park, especially for our out-of-town visitors. If you block the sidewalk, walkers might have to walk in the street to get by the blocking car. A little courtesy for others, please.

STEVE SOLOMON'S GUIDE TO PUTTING ON A ONE-MAN SHOW

Steve Solomon has a trusted secret to keeping his voice during repeat performances of a one-man show.

"Lots of throat lozenges, and lots of water," he says.

The actor/comedian has built his career around writing and performing one-man shows, beginning with the three-time award winning "My Mother's Italian, My Father's Jewish, and I'm in Therapy," which he's followed with two sequels.

There's much more to a comedic one-man show than simply telling jokes on stage, he says. "Some critics say it's just stand-up. No, it's a theatrical piece," he says. "There's a process, there's a set, there are characters."

STRETCHING AN IDEA INTO A SHOW

Creating a one-man show must start with an interesting topic – something Solomon has no shortage of.

With each of his shows based on his unpredictable family, he plays up to 30 characters on stage, including his doting Italian mother and elderly Jewish father.

His family provides endless material, he explains. "Growing up in an Italian/Jewish environment was hysterical," he says. "I'm also blessed with my memory. I can repeat dialogue from years ago."

Taking stories and transforming them into a full show takes work, however.

Solomon starts developing a show by penning several pages of memories and jokes, then works with his long-time director Andy Rogow to find a common thread and craft a script.

"I come up with the content, and (Andy) creates storylines," Solomon says. "He's quit 100 times and I've fired him 10,000 times, and we love each other."

NEVER FINISHED

A one-man show must be constantly refined to remain fresh, Solomon says. He changes something for every performance, and constantly drafts new material.

"Every single night I'm up there, I'm tweaking. I'm adjusting what I say, adjusting the emphasis of what I'm trying to put out there. Every word is critical."

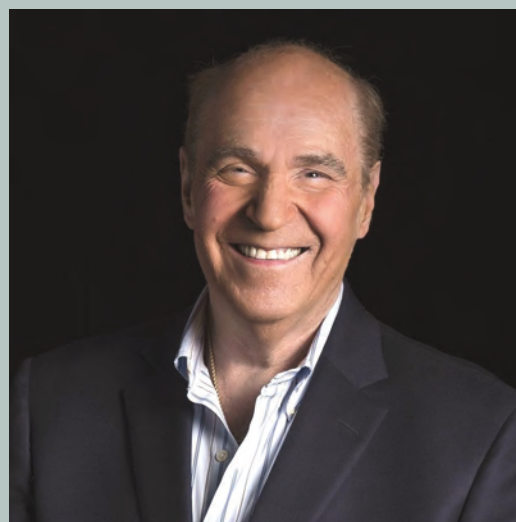

"Steve Solomon's From Brooklyn to Broadway in Only 50 Years!" runs from April 5th - 7th at The Smith Center. For tickets and more information, visit TheSmithCenter.com.

It's Been a Great Ride

By the time you read this my term on the Board of Directors will be completed after 14 years. While I'll still be active in the community, it's time for me to start enjoying what life has to offer now that I'll have more time.

There are so many people over the years who have helped me by volunteering with me for Sun City projects – the 25th anniversary of Sun City comes to mind – and those who have volunteered on the committees I have chaired. At the risk of surely forgetting to mention someone who should be mentioned, I'd like to thank all the department heads over the years I've had the pleasure to work with: In Building Maintenance, now retired, Dennis McGrew, Brandon Balek and staff, and especially Kerri Morris, who has been such a tremendous assistant to me on the Common Area Properties Committee, organizing documents, agendas and projects; Community Standards Department Kate Carroll and Barbara Davidson; Landscaping Department Louis Darling and staff; Golf Pro Shops, Donny Long and staff; IT Department Doug Wong and staff; Golf Course Maintenance's Brian Bagwell and staff; the Food & Beverage Department, our new manager Anthony Marrone, who is doing an amazing job, and his staff; the Fitness Department, Pam Shields and her staff; the Community Services Department, Melissa Spina and her staff; the Link, Jeannette Carrillo and Sharon Bishop; my fellow Security Patrol members, who help make this community safe 24/7; the Social and Fitness Monitors in our centers, who help our residents in so many ways. It's been a pleasure to work with all past and present Board members, who have given so freely of their time and put so much effort into making our community the best it can be. Last and certainly not least, our current Executive Director Mitzi Mills, who is taking our community in the right direction moving forward.

“How lucky I am to have something that makes saying goodbye so hard.”

So many administrative, behind-the-scenes personnel that I cannot list, but thank you to them for being the backbone of our administrative operations. It's been a great ride – I've made so many friends over my 14 years on the Board, and it's been a pleasure for me to work with, and to serve, all the great residents I've met along the way.

I heard a great quote I'd like to share with everyone: “How lucky I am to have something that makes saying goodbye so hard.” – Winnie the Pooh.

Thank you all!

WHAT'S YOUR

Did you know that Sun City Summerlin turns 30 this year? Original residents began moving into the community in October 1989. Newly retired residents or those soon-to-be brought with them interests far and wide – hobbies they dreamed of starting or old ones they hoped to rekindle.

Dance, Golf, Mah Jongg, Poker, Cribbage, Writing, Fitness, singing and all kinds of craft endeavors offered residents a way to engage.

Later, residents seeking to build a neighborhood spirit organized clubs inspired by where they came from – New York, Chicago, the Midwest. And all those clubs flourished, plus others pushing Sun City's chartered club list to more than 80 individual charters. Over the years, such clubs kept residents busy with social events, charitable projects, educational opportunities and more.

As the decades changed, so, too, did the face of clubs in Sun City. Some clubs like Horseshoes, Fishing and the Philippine Club disbanded due to lack of membership, while other topics drew community-wide interest and political clubs like the Conservatives and Liberal groups were formed.

Then, within the last few years, as the bell curve of residency began to really change in the village, clubs like the Men's Club, which just celebrated its five-year anniversary with surging membership, attracted a whole new kind of audience. Then came the Boomer Club, which advertised social outings. Sub-groups of the Boomers met for weekly happy hours, baseball outings, wine tastings, traveling pot lucks and more. When Friends of The Summit came along, a booster-style club where members supported activities at The Summit, concerts, dances and open-table events became sold-out activities. Add to that the Pickleball Club and Men's Softball Club, along with membership gains in most of Sun City's fitness and dance clubs and it was obvious that social and active were the buzz words behind the club scene.

For Norman Hirata, President of the Spanish Club for the last three years, he says he's noticed that while his membership has remained constant, the lesson plans have sure changed.

"I get calls from people inquiring about our club before they even move to Sun City," Norm said. "They find us online and call me," he said as he placed a classified ad in search of more instructors. "Our beginning classes used to be people who took Spanish in high school and wanted to pick it back up. Now, one of our teachers puts on a Spanish movie and has a whole discussion in Spanish after the film. It's crazy."

Fast forward to 2018 and the vibe continued as the newest group to charter sent out an open call to musicians in Sun City looking for a chance to jam.

The Band Jam Club "is a controlled free-for-all," said President Mike Klein, who does double-duty on bass – electric and stand-up. If you attended last year's National Night Out event at Desert Vista you most likely saw Mike on stage with the Blues Squad that kept residents on the dance floor for most of the night.

"So far, many members of the BJC participated at The Summit in the very well-received Open Electric Jam event that was held in November and sponsored by SCSCAI," Mike said. "Afterward, most of the attendees responded that it would be nice if the jam could become a regular event to help fill the void created by the former Open Mic."

With roughly 34 members, Mike said, "You don't have to be a musician to join the club. All you have to do is like music and support the musicians. And, who knows? One day you might pick up an instrument and learn to play. We have one guy who had a guitar lying under his bed for years before this group started. He didn't have anyone to play with. Now he does."

The idea to form the club came to Mike and his wife, Marsha, because they belonged to a similar group when they lived in California.

"I was lucky because I belonged to a group like this before," Mike said. "If you play, or want to play that's what this group is about. Its mission is to promote music. It doesn't matter if you've played for 20 years or 1 year, the group will welcome you with open arms. And from there it's up to you. You can come listen to us play, meet people, form your own groups or get some really good advice from guys who've been playing for a long time."

Thirty years later, the one thing that remains the same in Sun City is that there is always something to do. No matter what your interest, clubs will keep you busy. For contact information on Sun City's clubs, see Page 66.

Dance Company, Waterobics' Requests Approved

Constitution Revisions

The Chartered Clubs and Community Organizations Committee reviewed and approved the revised constitution of the Neighborhood Preparedness Team Community Organization. This organization's mission is to educate all community residents to safely respond to consequences of a natural, industrial or crime-related adversity by means of a community-wide network. The Dance Company requested that its constitution change to reflect the club's broader purpose to promote all types of dance by removing the word "tap" from the document. The CCOC voted in favor of this revision. The Waterobics Club changed its constitution to reflect a decrease in annual dues from $125 to $110. The CCOC voted to approve this change.

Minor Club Constitutional Changes

Bruce Alitt, CCOC Chairman, made a motion that minor club constitutional changes such as, but not limited to, dues or quorum changes that are passed by the CCOC in consult with the Executive Director do not need further SCSCAI Board approval. The CCOC passed this motion for further approval by the Board.

Conceptual Ideas Presentations

The Musicmakers has a pending CI for the purchase of new stage risers for its Club, as well as other Sun City performing clubs. Darlene Vaughan, Club president, explained that the new risers would provide beneficial safety features, storage benefits and flexibility.

The Band Jam Club has a pending CI for equipment such as keyboards and amplifiers. Mike Klein, the Club's president, requested consideration for some storage space for the Club's equipment.

Club Dissolutions

The Hawaiian Club, Horseshoe Club and West Coasters Club were officially dissolved.

Residents are always welcome to attend CCOC meetings. They are held on the third Thursday of the month at 9 a.m. in the Committee Room at Desert Vista.

Co-existing With Coyotes

As we approach the end of coyote breeding season, it is a good idea to keep certain facts in mind to help avoid nighttime visits or a potential pet attack. According to representatives from the Nevada Department of Wildlife, coyotes maintain a year-round presence in our community. While we may not see them, it is helpful to always remember that they live among us. Remember that breeding season extends through March, with birthing and pup training extending through the summer.

As such, adhering to some simple safety suggestions will help keep your pets safe:

- Never feed a coyote
- Secure garbage containers
- Stay with your pet whenever it is outside
- If you feed your pet outside, bring leftover food inside as soon as the pet has finished eating
- Abide by leash laws; don't let dogs or cats roam freely.
- Noisemakers and motion-activated lights provide deterrence
- If you see a coyote in our neighborhood, share the information with neighbors and Mitzi at mitzim@suncitylv.com.

Saluting Centenarians!

A centenarian is defined as a person who lives to (or beyond) the age of 100 years. If you're planning to celebrate an important birthday, the Fitness Department and the Link would like to help commemorate your milestone.

Our initial celebrator is Frank Peters, who was born on January 16, 1919. When I interviewed Frank, the first question I asked him was, "You were born at the end of World War I, so did you serve in the armed forces?" Frank was born in the Dutch East Indies (Indonesia) and worked for the government. During WWII, the Japanese conquered his island and, at the age of 23, he was put in an internment camp in the jungle on the island of Sumatra.

"The food was sparse, as were the accommodations, but we weren't tortured. However, many people died of starvation, and very often someone was taken away in the morning and never seen again.

"After the war, the British took charge of the islands and I was taken to the Netherlands where I worked for the national airline KLM for 10 years as an electronic technician. In 1957, I went to Calgary, Alberta, (Canada) and worked for the Canadian Pacific Airlines, also as an electronic technician."

In 1962, Frank finally came to the United States and settled in San Jose, Calif., working for International Telephone and Telegraph Company. Eight years later, he moved to Agoura, Calif., and continued to work for ITT. Frank retired in 1984 and moved to Kauai. His daughter Rita lived there and he bought his own house. He stayed in Hawaii for 15 years.

In 1999, Frank moved to Las Vegas (where his son lives) and settled in Sun City Summerlin. His wife passed away in 2003.

You can meet Frank in Lane 1 of our Sun Shadows pool, where he swims every day from 9:30 to 11 a.m.

Happy 100-year birthday, Frank!

Eat Well

Eating is an integral part of our lives and as a result, nutrition deserves your close and careful attention. In the earliest days of humans, we ate primarily for survival. That has evolved into eating mostly for enjoyment and nourishment. Now, nutrition is increasingly being studied as a method for protecting against and preventing disease. This is hardly new outside of North America. For centuries, many cultures have been protecting and healing their bodies with nutrition.

Why is nutrition so important? What you eat can give you energy, heal your wounds and keep you from getting sick. Unfortunately, it can also make you sick. No matter what your age, eating right and being fit are important, but did you know that your nutrition needs change as you grow older? Even if you are totally healthy, what you ingest can slow and/or improve the aging process.

Health & Fitness

Here are some of the things that warrant your attention:

- Calcium and vitamin D – for bone health
- Vitamin B12 – because our bodies do not absorb it from food as readily as younger people.
- Fiber – helps lower your risk for heart disease and Type 2 diabetes, and promotes healthy digestion.
- Potassium – along with reducing sodium, potassium can help lower your risk of high blood pressure and help keep your bones strong.
- Fats – Know your fats, as they are not all created equal. The “good” fats, primarily found in nuts, seeds, avocados, olive oil and fish, help reduce your risk of heart disease and are great for your brain.
- Water – Our sense of thirst may decline with age and we may reduce water intake because of multiple trips to the bathroom. While not an essential vitamin or mineral, it is critical to good health.

If we used all of the pages in this magazine, we would still not have enough room to adequately cover the topic of nutrition. As you are probably well aware, there is much conflicting, controversial and downright false information out there. How do you make sense of it and apply it to your own life?

Start with your mind-set about nutrition. Eating a healthy diet does not have to be complicated or controversial. Just EAT WELL and know that food can be your friend.

Educate yourself.

All food groups. Mostly vegetables, fruits and other whole foods. Everything else in moderation.

Talk with a registered dietician/nutritionist regarding your specific nutritional needs.

Watch portion size.

Enjoy the process of cooking and eating healthy. Minimize processed foods.

Labels. Learn about and pay attention to nutrition labels.

Lots of water

When developing your own healthy eating plan, as you gather information, always consider the source of the information and any potential motives beyond healthy eating. Are they trying to sell you something? Do they consider differing opinions, perspective or alternatives? Is it current? Most importantly, understand your own health situation so that you better understand your specific needs or deficiencies.

This month we are featuring seminars on eating well to avoid diabetes, healthy eating for older adults, making sense of the latest diet trends, how what you eat affects your oral health, and the interaction between nutrition and your genes. Sign up for our healthy cooking workshop and learn how quick, easy and fun it can be to prepare healthy meals.

We've also added a suggested reading/listening section for more in-depth information on health and fitness-related topics. EAT WELL!

Pam Shields, SCSCAI Director of Fitness

As MyPlate makes clear, better nutrition doesn't have to involve a major diet overhaul. Even small changes, such as switching from salads made with iceberg lettuce to ones with nutrient-rich spinach, could make a difference in overall health. "Tea and toast can turn into a bowl of oatmeal with a banana," Chao said. "It's just as easy to make."

To spread the word, HNRCA researchers recently helped the Harvard Pilgrim Health Care Foundation create a booklet, "Healthy, Delicious Food at Every Age," which highlights how seniors can shop for, cook and even grow nutritious food; the publication describes some of the most common food and drug interactions as well. Researchers in the HNRCA's Nutrition, Exercise Physiology and Sarcopenia Laboratory also worked with three Boston senior centers to create the Fit-4-Life program, which combines nutrition education with instruction on aerobic and mobility exercises.

At the same time, Chao said that many nutrition programs, senior centers and councils on aging across Massachusetts have started offering classes on cooking for one or shopping with nutrition in mind.

Businesses also have a role to play. Chao said that many seniors have trouble finding the quantities and prices they want at the supermarket: They might not have use of, say, a large bag of potatoes, but they still want to get the bulk discount. "Maybe it is time to have a senior lifestyle aisle," she said, in the same way that stores have aisles dedicated to organics and babies.

Such a section, with small packages of pre-cut vegetables or the like, may be on the horizon. "The private sector is becoming more and more interested in identifying solutions for older adults and healthy eating, in part because it is a huge market opportunity," said Lewin-Zwerdling. That could mean foods that are formulated with seniors' nutritional needs in mind, and easy-to-open packaging with easy-to-read labels.

3-Ingredient Healthy, Low Sodium Mexican Shredded Chicken With Homemade Taco Seasoning

Full of flavor, easy to make in the Instant Pot or crock pot and perfect for tacos, burritos, quesadillas and salads

Prep Time: 3 minutes

Cook Time: 45 minutes

Ingredients:

- 2.5 to 3 pounds boneless skinless chicken breasts (or thighs)
- 2 cups (16 ounces) salsa, homemade or store-bought

Healthy low low-sodium homemade taco seasoning:

- 1 Tbsp. chili powder
- 1 1/2 tsp. cumin
- 1 tsp. oregano
- 1 tsp. onion powder
- 1 tsp. garlic powder
- 1 tsp. paprika

Mix all ingredients together in a bowl.

Shredded Chicken

Directions:

Instant Pot Method: Add chicken, salsa and taco seasoning to the Instant Pot and toss to combine. Close lid securely and set vent to “Sealing.” Press “Manual” then set time to 30 minutes. Cook. Then very carefully turn the vent to “Venting” for quick release and wait until all of the steam has released and the valve has dropped. Remove the lid.

Shred the chicken with two forks. Mix the shredded chicken with the remaining juices in the pot.

Crock-Pot Method: Add chicken, salsa and taco seasoning to your slow cooker and toss to combine. Cover and cook on high for 3 to 4 hours or on low for 6 to 8 hours until the chicken shreds easily with a fork. Mix the shredded chicken with the remaining juices in the pot.

Serve immediately in tacos, burritos or quesadillas.

Keep leftover chicken mixture in an airtight container in the refrigerator for up to three days. Chicken mixture will keep in the freezer for up to three months.

Tales From the Night Drivers

In the days of black and white television there was a series called “The Naked City” that ran for four seasons (1958-1962). The narrator ended each New York City police/detective story with “There are 8 million stories in the Naked City...”

Sun City Summerlin isn’t a big city, however, your Security Patrol drivers on the night shift (midnight to 4 a.m.) know that this city doesn’t sleep, either. Many are awake and active.

While on patrol, Massood Modarres relates encountering a man walking up and down a street peeking into windows. Massood talked with him and moved him on. He added, “I once chased an undercover agent thinking he was a suspicious individual.”

Rick Cornstuble told this story. “While driving the 0000-hour watch, I found a car parked on the side of a street with the motor running and a young woman leaning over the steering wheel. I called it in to the dispatcher, then approached the car and rapped on the window. A very drowsy woman told me she was an EMT who worked a double shift and while heading home realized she was too sleepy to continue driving. She had pulled off to take a nap before finishing her trip home. The story rang true and when I drove by later, she was gone.”

Electronic games under the stars are enjoyed by some residents. A driver, who prefers to remain anonymous, related his memorable story.

“I responded to a call reporting that someone might need assistance. When I arrived at the location, I found a wonderful resident who was simply parked and playing Pokeman. She assured me she was fine and played often at night. It is great to see our residents enjoying their retirement years.”

Massood recalled responding to a call about a woman in a wheelchair who might need help.

“The lady was in her nightgown, sitting in her wheelchair playing a game on her smart cell phone,” he said. “She didn’t need any help.”

There are neighbors who walk for exercise at midnight. Jean Mohler and Joan Keltner told a story of responding to a call from a person driving down Lake Mead Boulevard who saw a man standing at Lake Meade and Thomas Ryan who appeared lost. “We drove to the location and found him. The gentleman knew his name but not his address.” The sisters continued, “We had a Sun City Summerlin telephone directory. He found his name in the directory, which also had his address. We took him home and his wife was very happy.”

Finally, there are the lovers. After all, it is past midnight and nights here in Las Vegas are warm. Rich Henson recalled a shift he had patrolling the Eagle Crest maintenance area, on the golf course. “A car was parked and I radioed it into the dispatcher. Then I approached to find a young man and woman in the car. I told them that this was a retirement community and they had to move on. After adjusting themselves, they drove off.”

“What amazes me are the number of people who come home late from where-ever they have been. I never thought a retirement community would have as many late, late commuters,” Massood said.

These stories are a few of the many experiences Security Patrol drivers have on the midnight shift in a retirement city that apparently never sleeps.

Interesting experiences can be yours while in retirement by joining Security Patrol. Please call the base at 254-2303. It is open 24/7.

Seventeen-year-old Abbott Mosher in 1944

Abbott Mosher

'I Was Afraid the War Was Going to Pass Me By'

By Bob Cohen/Link

Some 16 million Americans served in World War II, approximately 11 percent of the U.S. population. Of these, approximately 550,000 were Jewish-Americans. A few of these men went on to be famous: Secretary of State Henry Kissinger, baseball legend Hank Greenberg, actor/comedian/filmmaker Mel Brooks and author J. D. Salinger among them. Most, however, returned home and readjusted, with varying levels of success, to the normality of peace time America. Included in this group was future Sun City resident Abbott Mosher.

"I was a teenager during the war years and was afraid that the war was going to pass me by," Abbot said. "It was 1944. I still had a year to go in high school, but I couldn't wait. There was no way I was going to get my mother to agree, so I worked on my father and, eventually, he agreed and signed the consent form. With that in hand, I rushed to the local Navy recruiting office in Detroit and tried to enlist. The recruiter looked at the form and asked 'Abbott, who is Herman because he just volunteered for the service?' My father had signed in the wrong place! Certain that my career was over before it started, I grabbed a new form and rushed home to get him to sign again. Fortunately, he didn't have second thoughts and on February 12, 1944, at age 17, I was sworn into the US Navy."

Some 38 percent of servicemen and women were volunteers. About 73 percent served overseas. Abbott was included in both statistics.

"When I enlisted, I requested service in the Naval Medical Corps. I did that to please my mother. She had wanted me to be a doctor or lawyer, and this was as close as I could get."

While at the Naval Training Center in Great Lakes, Ill., Abbott, who was a gifted singer, was a member of the Navy Bluejackets choir, which became famous for its Sunday radio broadcasts from the Ross Theater. Abbott's training was cut short 'for the needs of the service'. There was an ongoing shortage of medical corpsmen due to the heavy casualties being suffered in the Pacific Theater. He was sent to the Naval Hospital in San Diego for training as a Corpsman.

"While there, the Navy put out a call for volunteers to join the Fleet Marines. Here was my chance to get into the action. I volunteered," Abbott said with pride. At that point, Abbott was ordered to Oak Knoll Naval Hospital in Oakland, Calif., for further medical training and subsequently to Shoemaker, Calif., for training with the Fleet Marines. But the war in the Pacific raged on and the time for training had come to an end. Abbott was sent to Treasure Island, where he boarded a ship bound for Hawaii. On April 26, he boarded the MV Day Star, part of a large contingent of ships sailing to Guam and subsequently to Okinawa.

(The MV Day Star had a unique history of its own. Originally christened as the Laura Maersk, she was a cargo ship in the fleet owned by the Danish Maersk Line. In June 1941, with Denmark under German occupation, it along with many other foreign-flagged ships were confiscated by the U.S. Government. Renamed MV Day Star, the ship was transferred to the American President Line and outfitted as a troop transport.)

The war in Europe was in its final days in April 1945. Formal surrender would be accepted on May 8, 1945 (VE day). But in the Pacific the war raged on, the Japanese growing more desperate each day. On April 1, 1945, the largest Allied amphibious operation of the Pacific war signaled the beginning of the last battle of World War II, the invasion of Okinawa, a battle that was to last nearly three months and result in some 350,000 casualties, including 100,000 Japanese soldiers, 94,000 civilians – one-quarter of the native population and 50,000 Americans. On June 3, Abbott Mosher landed ...

October 5, 2018, Up Trail Canyon/Down Fletcher Canyon = 7 miles round trip

The Lone Mountain Hiking Club (LMHC) was founded in 1993 and became a Chartered Club of Sun City Summerlin Community Association, Inc. (SCSAI) in 1994 with fewer than 40 members. The club ended 2018 with 184 members and is in the process of building its membership for 2019.

Club membership meetings are held the first Thursday of each month at Desert Vista, Room 5, at 8:30 a.m., except during the summer months of June through August. Organized hikes are scheduled on Mondays for moderate hikes 3 to 4 miles in distance and Wednesdays for longer, more difficult hikes.

Club hikes take place in the local Las Vegas areas of Red Rock, Mount Charleston, Valley of Fire and Lake Mead National Recreation Area.

The club is fortunate to have several experienced hikers that volunteer their time to lead hikes and encourage members to improve their abilities to achieve individual goals, the ultimate being Mount Charleston Peak (17.5 miles with a 5,500-foot elevation gain). The hike leaders accomplish this by scheduling a series of hikes gradually increasing in distance and difficulty until a member or group of members feels ready to tackle their objective. Members begin to set their goals as they become more conditioned and experienced to achieve some of the more difficult hikes such as Trail Canyon, Fletcher Peak, Griffith Peak and Mummy Mountain.

Occasionally, a small group of members will coordinate out-of-town hiking trips to surrounding locations such as Utah, Arizona, California and beyond.

Photographed are groups that accomplished two of the more difficult hikes in 2018.

2018 "I Hiked Charleston Peak" via South Loop Trail = 17 miles round trip

Jon Lubinski, Jeannie Petrie, Mary Klopfer, Pat Ross, Terry Hirni; Not pictured, but completed Charleston Peak in the past year for the first time or assisted other first-timers: Rozi Heredy, Marina Cherry, Nikki Keegan, Suzanne Esber, and Diane Knighton.

the summer and later during the winter. The Tuesday and Thursday rides start at the Desert Vista parking lot; Saturday rides start at Sun Shadows. Guests of all levels and abilities, including electric bicycle riders, are welcome. No rider left behind! For more information, call 661-238-9719, or email scherry69afa@gmail.com.

Billiards - Billiards or pool has been around for more than a 100 years. The social side of pool has played an important role in the lives of thousands of people. Decelerate the aging process and perk up several cognitive functions. Polish the psyche and come visit us at Desert Vista on Monday, Wednesday or Friday at noon. Call Gavin Lightner, 838-2767.

Bocci Ball - We play bocci at Sun Shadows on Mondays and at Desert Vista on Thursdays. Play starts at 2 p.m. For information, call Henrietta Rapp, 987-3456.

Book - The Sun City Book Club is excited to share the selection of "The Woman in the Window," by debut novelist A. J. Finn for the March 14 meeting, 2 p.m., Sun Shadows. Finn's novel introduces readers to Anna Fox, a traumatized child psychologist who never steps out of her home. Her husband and daughter moved out months ago, we don't know why; she spends her days watching classic Hollywood thrillers, learning French and drinking endless glasses of Merlot. She also spies on the new neighbors who live across from her Brooklyn brownstone, the Russells. When she witnesses what she thinks is a murder her days are wildly interrupted. But can an over-medicated, agoraphobic alcoholic be trusted? Come join us for an interesting discussion. Residents and their guests are welcome. If you decide to join our group you can do so for $2 per year. Contact Cherie at 360-244-2648 or.klipsan2@gmail.com.

Boomer Connection - Have you heard about the Boomer Connection? We're a social club made up of over 400 residents who get together throughout the month at all sorts of events. Happy hours, check; in-home parties, check; lunch, brunch, ethnic dining, sushi, check; bowling, hand and foot, Mexican train, check. This is just a sample of some of our events, and we're always thinking of new ones. Please contact Sophia Castille, scastille64@gmail.com for information.

Friends of The Summit - Attention music lovers! Want to join a group of like-minded people dedicated to keeping the Sun City Summerlin music scene alive? Friends of The Summit is a booster club that promotes and supports music events held at the "view-tastic" Summit showroom located at the Pinnacle. Our mission is to serve as ambassadors to encourage increased use of The Summit and foster a sense of community during fun-filled events that celebrate many genres of great, danceable music: Monday Blues Night (usually the first Monday of each month); Tuesday Jazz Night (usually the second Tuesday); and Friday Band Night (weekly Rock, Pop, etc.). These events are open to everyone; check the Link's Summit page and monthly general calendar for band information and schedules. Tickets ($10) are available online and at all Sun City community centers. Benefits of joining Friends of the Summit include private club events for members, email reminders prior to each Summit music event and the opportunity to meet fellow music lovers. Many members also enjoy tapping into volunteer opportunities, such as serving as greeters, ticket takers and emceeing at our events. Annual membership dues ($1) are currently being collected at our music events. Contact us to suggest bands, join, volunteer or ask questions at friendsofthesummitscs@gmail.com. Follow us on Facebook at Friends of the Summit.

and maddening – and it is without a doubt the greatest game mankind has ever invented.” - Arnold Palmer. We completed our first set of special events in February with our 2-man/2-day golf challenge. I had to write this before the results were in, but I hope everyone who got to participate enjoyed the venue. It was a new special event for us and we hope to continue these types of events for the membership. March brings with it our annual home and home with Revere. It also will be a two-day event where we will pit our two-man teams against their two-man teams, alternating with two events between our courses. Joe Griffin and Dave Wignall will be heading up the event, so when they ask for participants be ready to help us keep the trophy. Spring is just around the corner and I, for one, am looking forward to warmer and calmer weather. The golf management personnel will be preparing our courses for summer play and we should see the same type of improvement as we saw for our winter golf. One thing that we discussed at the oversight meeting in January was over-seeding. The plan for this fall is to not over-seed Palm Valley. The Palm Valley fairways will have been sodded with Bermuda once the irrigation project is complete in mid-September. The plan is to try to create a solid Bermuda base before we try any over-seed. I want to thank those of you who adhere to the 90-degree rule, raking sand traps, filling divots, repairing ball marks and staying 30 yards from the greens. These are simple golf etiquette rules that help to keep our courses in great shape. The Golf Oversight committee will have had a meeting in February to discuss CIs for our golf courses. I will provide you with a synopsis in my April article and put a synopsis on our website, 18holers.org. The next Golf Oversight meeting is Wednesday, March 20, 1 p.m., Desert Vista. If you have questions, call Colbert, 859-979-4376.

Golf (Men's) Niners - Due to the colder weather in March, the annual nude tournament will be moved to mid-summer! Just kidding. Four Thursday tournaments will take place in March, starting time at 8 a.m. Our first out-of-town tournament is scheduled for April 29-30, in Laughlin. A two-day event you won't want to miss. Jerry Kistler has made all the arrangements for two good, solid days of fun. Watch for sign-ups in March. Sign-ups must be in by April 1. Another special event will take place on April 13, our annual golf and picnic will happen at Eagle Crest and the picnic area at Desert Vista. More details to follow. See what you're missing by not being a member! You can change all that by becoming a member. Applications can be found at our local golf shops, or you may go on line at www.scsniners.com. Any questions, call Pete Bentiveca, 941-223-6550.

Golf (Women's) - Now that the holidays are over and the kids' and grands' visits are a sweet memory it's time to think spring and hope it shows up sooner rather than later. Come join our golfing gals and stare down Mother Nature with us! The price is right and the time is now. We play a shotgun every Tuesday morning at 8 a.m. and have a general membership meeting with lunch monthly. Check our website, www.scswwomensgolf.com, for membership forms and more information. You also can contact our Vice President Billie Dauk at b.dauk1951@gmail.com and she will pair you up with a buddy who will walk you through the joining process and show you the ropes. So while it's still snowing from Denver to Dover, we'll be basking in 55 degrees and sunny. All skill levels are welcome and encouraged. Hope to see you soon!

Gun - All regular meetings are held on the second Friday of the month, 1 p.m., Desert Vista. If you are new to firearms ownership, have been considering purchasing a firearm for home defense or concealed carry, or are an old hand at firearms and looking for others to practice with, the Sun City Gun Club is the place for you. We offer free in-house training courses that will teach you all about firearms, help you select a firearm, show you how to clean/maintain your firearm and teach you about the legal aspects of defensive shooting. The Club also hosts speakers, a spring BBQ and a holiday lunch. Contact Scott Decker, scgunclub2019@hotmail.com. Be sure to check out our new Club website at scsgunclub.com.

Hiking - The monthly meeting will be March 7, 8:30 a.m., Desert Vista. Hikes take place on Mondays (easy/moderate) and Wednesdays (moderate/challenging). Club members will receive email notifications of Monday and Wednesday hike details, including departure times. Departure times will be dependent on temperature and weather conditions. Non-members should call coordinator Ann Cronin 737-5758 for time and details. Hiking carpools will leave from the northeast corner of the Pinnacle parking lot. (Note: New departure location) Visitors are welcome. Contact Ann Cronin, 737-5758, for more information, including fitness-level recommendations.

Organ, Piano and Keyboard – Spring is almost here and so is Saint Patrick’s Day. With that in mind we’re learning “When Irish Eyes Are Smiling,” “You Are My Sunshine” and “It Might As Well Be Spring.” Why not learn a new skill in 2019? We love having new people come to our lessons. Members of the Club are at all skill levels so there’s no need to feel uncomfortable.

We meet on Tuesdays at 9 a.m. We play selections from the Hal Leonard E-Z Play #200 “Best Songs Ever” book, as well as other songs that may be of interest to the group. The instructor, Sandy, teaches every other Tuesday.

Members practice and play on two organs and a piano and may use the Music Room for practice by reserving with the Social Monitor. Club meetings are scheduled on the second Tuesday of each month. Visitors are always welcome. The Club has a jam session every Tuesday from 10-11 a.m. We’d like to invite community members who play instruments to join us during that time. Please call Marti, 683-4112, if you have any questions.

Pan – Pan is played on Tuesdays at Mountain Shadows, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Dues are $10 a year. Learn how to play with Carol Riley. Please call to make an appointment, 240-4771. The president of our Club is Linda Harrington. She can be reached by phone at 778-1436.

R.V. - Wagons Ho ... That's the goal of the RV Club as we hold campouts at a variety of locations throughout the Southwest. We've gone to the Shakespeare Festival in Cedar City, Utah, enjoyed Bluegrass music on the beach at Lake Havasu, strolled through historic San Diego, meandered around Sedona, ridden a train that provided breathtaking views and enjoyed a BBQ turkey dinner while looking out on the rugged Colorado River's Black Canyon from Willow Beach. Plans are now taking shape for upcoming trips that will include a mix of both old and new destinations. For example, join us as we travel to Morro Bay, Calif., to enjoy the best of beachcombing and Central Valley wine tasting. If you have an RV or travel trailer of any type, or want to rent one, please join us! Make new friendships, marvel at what the geographic area has to offer and help us determine where we want to go! For more information, you are invited to call club President Tim Troxel, 249-3239. We meet at Desert Vista the second Monday of each month at 7 p.m.

Over 35 people have learned how to swim through individual attention from our coaches while our competitive swimmers took more medals at the 2017 Nevada Senior Games than any other group. There's also plenty of time for helping each other and for socializing. We have monthly luncheons, a spring picnic and a holiday party every December. The Sun City Summerlin Swim Club has exclusive use of the Desert Vista pool Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 9-10 a.m. Membership is $10 per year. Contact us at scs.swimclub@gmail.com, or call Paul Brandt, 725-600-3771.
