12 DAYS OF CHRISTMAS

From the Executive Director

Take Time to Stop, Think About the Safety of Your Pets

Shadow Papilion

(Editor's note: This month, the Link offers a creative perspective on pet issues facing Sun City Summerlin.)

Merry Christmas and Happy Hanukkah. My name is Shadow and I belong to your Executive Director, Sue Papilion. She is the most important thing in my life and I am only happy when I am with her. Lately, she has not been around as much as before, but I know I can count on her to love me, feed me and take me for walks.

Sometimes, we meet other dogs on our walks, but they are usually afraid of me because I am so big. I am nice, but they don't know it and I have been bitten five times by smaller dogs that run loose. It is good that I have not been hurt, but only Sue cares because no owner has ever said they were sorry when I got bit. The other day when one of the landscapers got bit by a loose dog, the owner picked up her dog and ran to her car without even seeing if the man was hurt. Her license plate was given to the police, but why did that lady run? Why was her dog loose? Did she not care about the man or about the safety of her dog?

We dogs love our owners, but we can do stupid things and it is up to our owners to keep us from doing stupid things. Sue does not let me run loose because she knows I love to chase rabbits and quail even if they are in the road. I am not afraid of cars, but Sue is and she makes me stay with her to cross the street. My owner likes to socialize when she meets other people, but I get bored, even if they have a dog. One smell of that dog and I am done and ready to keep walking.

I love my owner and she is all the socialization I need. So I just wanted to tell all those dog owners who let their dogs run loose to please stop! Two dogs have already been hit by cars, some have been taken by the dog catcher and many dogs are giving us good dogs a bad reputation. This holiday season, please be considerate of others and make a News Year's resolution to keep your dog safe and on a leash, and don't forget to pick up after us, too!

President's Message

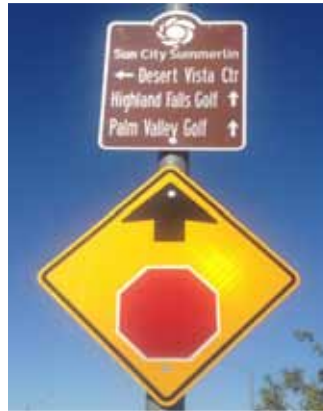

Never a Dull Moment in Sun City Summerlin

David Steinman,
President, SCSCA/
Board of Directors

Recently, we completed a wonderful month full of celebration for the 25th anniversary of Sun City Summerlin. It took many dedicated volunteers, under the leadership of Link Managing Editor Jeanette Carrillo. Some of the events may be repeated in future years, as they were very popular with our residents. Good luck and best wishes on trying to be a part of the 50th year celebration.

We are in the process of converting grass to desert landscape on our golf courses and common areas. The Southern Nevada Water Authority gave Sun City Summerlin $1 per square foot to make the change. Our savings on the water bill will be significant when the project is complete. When you live in the desert, you learn to appreciate the value of conserving water in a drought climate situation. As the look of our landscape changes near your residence, we trust you will understand why the Board of Directors made the decision to modify. We have been successful in using the funds from the Water District without additional money from our Association accounts to achieve the results.

During the summer months, I announced that we were working with the city of Las Vegas to place new directional signs in our community. These signs are in place now to assist our new residents and visitors. The signs generally refer to our golf courses and community centers. We thank the city for giving us the grant money to provide this new amenity.

The holidays are upon us. I wish all of the residents of Sun City Summerlin a safe and happy holiday. This is a time to enjoy friends and family and celebrate all of the blessings given to us, especially our children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

It's a Wrap: SCSCAI's 25th Anniversary Events Come to a Close

By Ken Caroccia and Jeannette Carrillo

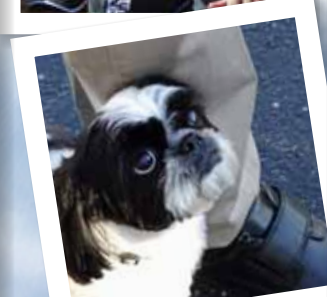

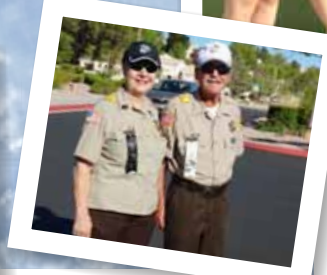

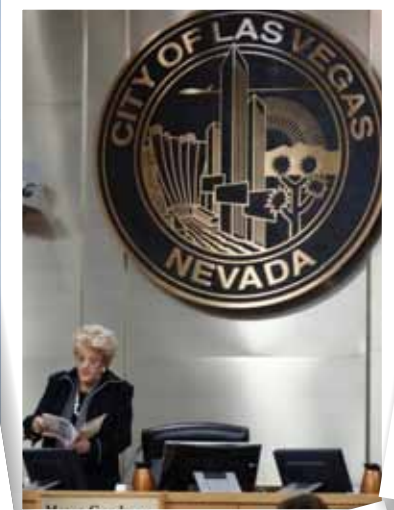

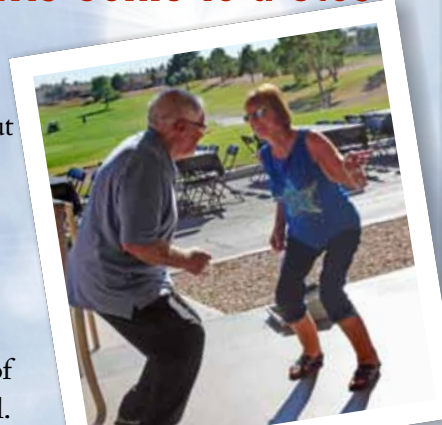

Whew! Talk about a wild October. Sun City Summerlin residents celebrated a quarter-century of growth throughout the month with events organized by the Link. Feedback from residents affirm that the events were a success, with some activities requested to return as annual events. In all, 12 events were coordinated by six committees. Here's a recap:

Sun City Summerlin Day Proclamation – October 1

A group of 75 residents and members of SCSCAI's board of directors boarded a shuttle at 7:15 a.m. headed for City Hall. Attending residents received a commemorative 25th anniversary T-shirt. The day began with breakfast at City Hall and 16 residents getting stuck in an elevator. Talk about an ice-breaker. Once inside council chambers, Las Vegas Mayor Carolyn Goodman proclaimed October 1, 2014, Sun City Summerlin Day and BOD Vice President and Treasurer Jim Akers and Ken Caroccia, standing in for BOD President David Steinman, accepted.

25th Anniversary Kickoff Party – October 1, 3 p.m.

A host of dignitaries attended Sun City's official kickoff party, including Clark County Commissioner Larry Brown, LVMPD NW Area Command Captain Chris Tomaino, Andrew Turcaz, field representative for United States Congressman Joe Heck, R.-Nev., and Ms. Senior Nevada, Audrey Smith. Showgirls posed with residents for free souvenir photos, Dance Company members in gorgeous costumes served as red carpet greeters, ushers and food servers. The food and drinks were superb, and the party was an excellent opportunity for the community to join together in celebration.

Bingo At The Rampart – October 7-8

The Rampart casino hosted more than 200 residents over two days for free Bingo inside its new Bingo parlor. Great games, spectacular hotel prizes and refreshments were enjoyed by all.

Board Of Directors Reception – October 7, 5:30 p.m.

Before the evening meeting of the Board of Directors got under way, Executive Director Sue Papilion invited 25-year residents to a special reception. More than 40 residents attended and reminisced about their experiences and how Sun City has grown. Smith's bakers created a beautiful gift cake.

5K Fun Walk – October 11

More than 200 registered for the event that offered something for everyone – a 5K walk with fitness challenges; club demonstrations by Tai Chi, Shuffleboard, Horseshoes and the Dance Connection; as well as breakfast and old-time candy buffets. Music by DJ Ron entertained participants and the Las Vegas Firefighters' para Fit Squad got walkers warmed up. Mayor Goodman kicked off the 5K and participated in the first lap, along with Kristie McWhorter, SCSCAI Fitness Director, and Anthony Ruggiero, special assistant to Las Vegas City Councilman and Mayor Pro-tem Stavros Anthony.

Classic Car Show And Softball Games And BBQ – October 12

An estimated 300 guests enjoyed the morning that featured three events a classic car show, softball games hosted by the Men's Softball Club and a BBQ sponsored by Cadillac of Las Vegas. JEANENE Jeanene O'Shea took home first place for her 1931 Willys in the event that featured resident-owned autos.

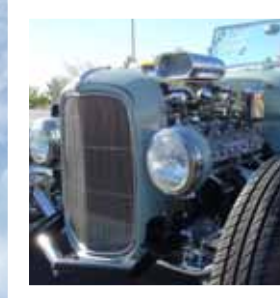

Security Patrol Safety Day And Pancake Breakfast – October 13

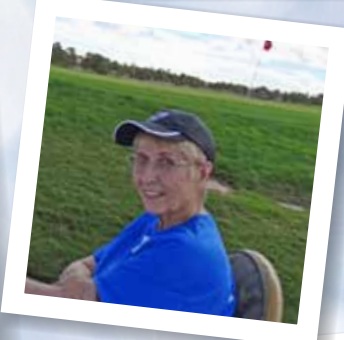

Security Patrol treated residents to a delicious breakfast of banana and blueberry pancakes, sausage, orange juice and coffee. Safety demonstrations from LVMPD, Fire Station 107, Sun City's communications program under the Community Preparedness Committee rounded out the day. For residents interested in Security Patrol, volunteers answered questions, handed out emergency contact forms and provided ride-alongs in the Patrol's vehicles.

Sun City Summerlin Senior Classic – October 18

Sun City golfers welcomed FOX5 meteorologist Ted Pretty and 2013 REMAX Senior Long Drive Champion Mike Jaime to Highland Falls for an afternoon of golf. The day included a long-drive demonstration, and putting and long drive contests that had residents competing for great prizes.

Blessing Of The Pets – October 21

St. Andrew Lutheran Church hosted this very special event. Pastor Michael Engfer, who is also a chaplain with Nevada's Air National Guard, presided over several blessings conducted in the church's parking lot. An estimated 100 dogs and a few brave cats participated in the ceremonies. Pet owners got to take home commemorative photos of their little darlings.

Oktoberfest, Five Star Tavern – October 29

More than 500 residents turned out to celebrate the closing ceremonies of Sun City Summerlin's 25th anniversary at Five Star Tavern. Food and drink specials, along with prize raffles got the party going inside while DJ Ron livened up the action on the patio.

Special thanks to:

Bright Colors Equal Safety During Daily Walks

Color yourself in safety with bright colors as you enjoy walking in the community. For those who walk in the street, which is dangerous but not unlawful, the chances of being seriously injured is exacerbated when covered in dark or muted colors. To help increase your visibility on the road, wear bright or neon colors. And, if you prefer to walk in the street, try to keep to one side and consider stepping onto the sidewalk when maneuvering a corner.

De-Stressing the Holidays

The holiday season is supposed to be a time of peace, joy and celebration. It also can be a time of stress. Anxiety related to party planning, shopping, gift giving, baking, cleaning and organizing is likely to be overwhelming to many.

The negative effects of stress on the body are well known. They can include increased blood pressure, headaches, difficulty sleeping, gastrointestinal problems and even an increased risk of strokes and heart attacks. There are several strategies you can adopt to help keep holiday stress at bay.

Be realistic. Try to set and maintain a budget before you go shopping, deciding how much you can truly afford to spend. Consider donating to a charity in someone's name or giving homemade gifts. Discuss the idea of a gift exchange with large families or groups of friends; this can lighten the load on everyone.

Stay healthy. The holidays are a time to maintain the healthy lifestyle habits you have worked so hard to maintain all year. Try to stick to your normal exercise habits and healthy diets. Decide ahead of time how much you will indulge and stick to it, thus avoiding regrets later on.

Develop a support network. Take advantage of clubs, organizations and religious or social services nearby to surround yourself with friends or other people with similar interests.

Be organized. Try to plan ahead and develop a schedule for baking, visiting and other events. Decide what events are most important or what can be done another year.

Accept change. Understand as families grow and expand it can become very difficult for all members to be together on the holidays. Hold on to traditions as much as possible, but accept that change can bring new exciting traditions.

Get help. Anxiety and stress are normal, but despite your best efforts you may find yourself overwhelmingly sad or anxious. If you are unable to cope with the activities of daily life or your feelings of sadness last several weeks, speak with your doctor or mental health professional because you may have depression.

Relax and enjoy. Most importantly, take a few moments each day to relax and appreciate the holidays, your friends and family, and remember why we celebrate each year.

The Fitness Department staff wishes all the residents a safe and happy holiday season!

Landscape

Holiday Temperatures Translate Into Frost, Ice

The Landscape Department wishes everyone a happy holiday season and hopes all is well with everyone. The winter is getting colder and with that the possibility of freezing temperatures. If you haven't protected your frost-tender plants you should. Be sure to check with the office of Community Standards to see what is allowed. Also with the cold there is a chance of ice. If you see any ice on the common area properties please report it ASAP. The temperature does not necessary need to be 32 degrees Fahrenheit for ice to gather on a sidewalk. The Landscape Department will change to a daytime watering schedule when the overnight temperatures drop into the low 40s. This means that the water in your favorite park will come on during the day.

The Landscape Department is watering turf on Tuesdays; drip on Wednesdays, most likely during the day.

~ Louis Darling, Director of Landscape

Community Preparedness Committee

Holiday Safety Tips

We are approaching a wonderful time of year, when we can take time with our families and especially our grandchildren to celebrate the holiday season. But it is also a time when we must become even more diligent when planning and preparing at this time of the year.

When decorating our homes we must be sure that all of our exterior decorations are rated for outside use and that all interior decorations are UL approved, are not frayed or damaged, are installed properly and are not overloading any electrical outlets. Be sure that a pet or young child will not be able to reach or knock over a lighted candle or ornament. You must make sure that when purchasing a live tree that it is kept as fresh as possible and that you keep it watered during the holidays. When leaving your home, make sure that all lighted candles, tree lights and novelty ornaments have been extinguished.

Try to do your shopping during the daylight hours; you will not only avoid the crowds, but it is also a safer time to shop. If, after shopping at night you feel uncomfortable walking to your car alone, feel free to ask store personnel or a shopping center security officer to accompany you. If making several store visits, place all purchased items in the trunk of your car so not to entice a would-be thief.

Be on the alert when packages are delivered to your home; do not open your door until you are satisfied that you can identify the delivery person. You also may ask that any package be left outside your door until the person has left and you feel comfortable opening the door.

The Community Preparedness Committee wishes you and your family a safe and happy holiday season.

~ Dick Bennett, CPC

The next CPC meeting is Wednesday, December 3, 9 a.m., Desert Vista.

2014: Internal Improvements For External Effectiveness

Externally, nothing has changed for Security Patrol this year. We still patrol our community 24 hours a day, every day of the year. We still let you know when your garage door is left open after dark. We still let you know when you have a landscaping water leak pouring money down the drain, and we still check your house while you are out of town. We still provide a listening ear, are a reconciler of pets and owners, and provide a deterrent to the thieves. We remain very proud of our motto: Neighbors helping neighbors.

Internally, almost everything has changed this year. We have a new guiding philosophy. We have a new management approach. We completed a membership database of about 350 people with 30,000 data fields and 40 queries and reports. We have implemented a new computer network system with automated backup of files in the cloud, created an electronic work scheduling system viewable by members on any device, and we published a Facebook page. The 5-year-old policies and procedures manual has been completely rewritten, including 40 procedures, 40 job descriptions and eight training forms and checklists for a total of about 220 pages of material.

Internal Security Patrol communications have improved with a weekly broadcast email, meeting agendas projected on a screen and minutes published within a few days. Dozens of alert notices have been generated to disseminate important decisions. An informal, monthly gathering of staff and board members has provided an opportunity for feedback. A directory of the nearly 300 street names has been updated and verified as accurate by looking at every street sign. The Association is being helped to ensure consistency of information so that proper names and addresses can be found quickly. The verified list of street names is also being used as an input to a new set of maps for the community and the Patrol. Emergency contact information for every household is being pro-actively pursued.

The Patrol's emergency generator has been rewired to provide the power needed for essential services, including the telephones. Gone are the days when you called us during an outage and just got a message. However, the most significant hardware change made this year has probably gone unnoticed by most residents. We replaced three Patrol vehicles with ones that look pretty much the same.

So, 2014 has been somewhat of an inside-out renewal of your Security Patrol. The objective of the changes has been to make it easier and more enjoyable for our 230 volunteers to do their jobs, i.e. internal improvement for external effectiveness. My year as chief, leading this group of friends and colleagues, has been a privilege and honor, as well as a lot of work!

~ Brian Dodd, Chief of Security

SWIM CLUB SPOTLIGHT: Members Take Home 19 Medals in Senior Olympics

Congratulations to the Sun City Swim Club members who have qualified for the 2015 National Senior Games in Minnesota. A total of 10 first-place gold medals were awarded to Ingrid Fenchen (3); Freddy Leipziger (2); Jeanne Swanson (2); Paul Gwin (1); Monina Exconde (1); and Ann Kmit (1). Six second-place silver awards were earned by Ann Kmit (2); Daisy Parrish (1); Maya Haro (2); and Monina Exconde (1). Third-place bronze medals were presented to Daisy Parrish (2); and Ann Kmit (1). Their Coach was Darlene Rogers, a Las Vegas Masters swimmer, lifeguard and water safety instructor. Supporting Club members, dressed in their Swim Club t-shirts rooted their team to an outstanding victory.

Our 85+ Swimmer, Fred, and Paul (90+) are worth their weight in gold. Jeanne Swanson swam her personal best time (13:58) in the 500 Freestyle. Maya had a fear of the water for 60 years. She conquered her anxiety with swim lessons, competed in her first race and snorkeled from a boat in Hawaii. Monina took a children's swim class in the Philippines, but learned to tread water and breathe properly in our swim class. Ingrid, who said, "I can't do it," earned the most points for the team with three gold medals. Daisy, a triathlon open-water competitor, learned flipturns and overcame the walls of the pool. The most inspirational swimming star was Ann Kmit. Ann is paralyzed on one side and swam four events for a total of 400 yards. The student Sandpipers Swim Team chanted, "Go Ann, Go Ann" and gathered at both ends of the pool to root her on to the finish. Cheers and tears abounded as Ann completed the last 50-yard swim. There were few dry eyes among the spectators as they watch Ann in admiration. Her courage and effort will remain as a memorable experience in our hearts forever.
