PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The Holidays will soon be upon us. Hopefully COVID-19 will soon be behind us. As I get just a little older, each year this time of year becomes more special. Time to share with family and friends becomes more cherished. We look forward to sharing what has happened in the last year or sometimes the last 70 years. We get to share those memories with those who mean the most to us. I do not intend to waste that time talking about negative things.

There are so many positive things in my life just as there are in yours. I encourage you to laugh, smile, and hug family and friends in this festive time of the year. There are so many opportunities here in Sun City to enjoy the holidays if you are not traveling. All of the community's amenities will be open throughout the month of December. There will be specials in our restaurants as well as specials at our golf courses. The Starbright Theatre is another amenity available in our community. There will be some (not as many as usual) shows at the Starbright Theatre. Not only will there be outside performers at the theatre, but our own Music Makers are putting on two shows this year. The calendar in this Link contains information about comedy shows, live performances, jazz night, Friday night dances to name just a few. Some of these events take place at the Summit, our restaurant area at the Pinnacle.

Speaking of the Pinnacle, the response to the Golden Knights and football games at the Summit has been tremendous. Residents have gathered to watch these sporting events on the eight large screen TVs that have been installed. The Board and Administration has taken care not to have these sporting event "watches" interfere with the normal and regular activities that have and will continue to take place at the Summit. There are food and drink specials at these times as well. Try it, I think that you will enjoy the chance to share some of the exciting games that will be shown during the holidays.

Every Thursday from 8 a.m. until Noon, The Southern Nevada Health District will continue its partnership with Sun City and provide COVID-19 shots at Mountain Shadows Community Center. They are giving both Pfizer and Moderna booster shots as well as the first and second shots of Pfizer, Moderna and Johnson & Johnson. Once again, we thank Security Patrol for their assistance in helping our friends from SNHD make this an enjoyable experience for our residents. Except for the Thursdays that are holidays, the shots will continue through the end of the year.

Enjoy this holiday season with friends and family. Remember, if you are not travelling, you can share the holidays with your Sun City family.

Be Safe. Be Happy. Be Well.

“As I See It . . . ” “CELEBRATE?”

By Alan G. Spector /Link

Here we are . . . December . . . the month of celebrations. Family gatherings, club parties, neighborhood celebrations, religious observances . . . they all are wonderful celebrations . . . and they all are about others. Often, after all the celebrations are over, we are exhausted and even feeling down. So what did we forget? We forgot to celebrate ourselves!

Taking care of ourselves is the most important thing we can ever do. If we do not take care of ourselves, celebrate ourselves, nothing else matters or is even possible. Actually, YOU are the most special person you know!

Life should be filled with joyful moments. On top of that, as living, breathing human beings we all deserve to be acknowledged, appreciated and celebrated. Life gets busy for most of us as we juggle responsibilities and spend much of our time nurturing others. It is important that we each find the time to celebrate who we are, to honor ourselves for our efforts and triumphs, and to praise our resilience even during the hardest of times.

So, how can we celebrate ourselves . . . here are some ideas from Stacy Kaiser, Live Happy magazine. Maybe you can even add some celebrations of your own. Take time out for a little fun and self-congratulation. You deserve it!

Here are 12 ways to celebrate you!

1. Take a break. Take a stay-cation or a vacation that includes lots of the activities that you love to do. If you love reading in an Adirondack chair in a beautiful location, find a way to do it. If you love eating delicious foods, indulge in going out to dinner at one of your favorite restaurants. Take some time out to avoid feeling burned out.

2. Write a gratitude letter—to yourself. Many of us have taken the time out to express our gratitude to others, but very few of us have really invested the energy in focusing on what we are grateful for in ourselves. Write a list or a letter highlighting all of the things about you that you're grateful for. For example: the ability to juggle work and family, or that you have found a way to live within your means. Or maybe you are grateful that you've been eating and living in a healthier way since January. Whatever it is, write it down! Later, if you are having a day where you are feeling particularly down on yourself, refer to that list to put some positivity back into your mind and mood.

3. Unleash your inner child. Reward yourself with a rare moment of instant gratification. Has there always been an activity you have been dying to try? Indoor skydiving? Paintball? A ballet class? Try it!

4. Have a "celebrate us" gathering. Get a group of friends together to celebrate each other and your friendship. Bring your own favorite dish to share at a potluck or go to a restaurant that has meals you all love. Toast to the importance of close, wonderful relationships.

5. Give yourself the gift of extra time.

Wake up a bit earlier or go to bed a bit later so you can have some extra time in the day just for you. Drink a cup of coffee by yourself, read a magazine or cuddle up on the couch and watch your favorite TV show.

6. Give yourself a social media shout out.

Hop on Facebook or Twitter and write a post that simply says something like, "I'm feeling great today, I hope you are, too," or "I'm having a great day today, I hope you are, too!" Your social media circle will love that you are feeling happy, and they will appreciate that you're wishing good feelings on them as well.

7. Start a joyful ritual. Once a week (or month), set aside time to take a hot bubble bath, read your favorite books, or end your day with a scoop of your favorite ice cream.

8. Put some happy in your workspace.

Find a gorgeous photo of a place you dream of going to and make it your wallpaper on your computer or smartphone. Start working on a plan to go there.

9. Listen up. Make yourself a "mixtape." Design a playlist for your iPod, phone or computer that is filled with songs that you love and that make you happy. Listen often.

10. Buy something beautiful. Buy yourself some flowers and put them in a prominent place in your home or office where you can enjoy them. Maybe this can even become a weekly or monthly ritual.

11. Document yourself. Get a new picture of you taken by a friend with a great camera or even a professional photographer. It could be colorful, or arty and black and white. Smile—you'll be glad later that you documented this moment in your life.

12. Be kind to yourself. Do to yourself as you might do for others. Make a concerted effort to be as attentive and giving to yourself as you would be to a boss, a customer, a child, a friend or a mate. Make your wants and needs a priority and focus.

So the next time you could use some encouragement or you are feeling a little down or the world has been a little rough on you . . . Celebrate yourself!! You deserve it!!

Interview With Pam Shields

"I made it! +300 miles!"

The LINK sat down in October to interview Pam Shields, Director of Health & Fitness. Pam embarked on a pilgrimage during her recent vacation to Portugal and Spain. Her destination: Santiago de Compostela by way of the Camino Portuguese. This route, dating back hundreds of years as well as many others, take pilgrims through France, Spain and Portugal.

You are just back from your vacation, and you did not do a traditional relax and unwind vacation, correct?

Correct. I went to Portugal and Spain to walk the Camino de Santiago. Historically, the Camino was a religious pilgrimage with several routes from all parts of Europe, all ending at the Cathedral of Santiago de Compostela which is where the remains of Saint James the Great are interred. While many still walk the Camino for spiritual reasons, over the past couple of decades, it has become popular as a tourist or "bucket list" destination. My reasons for doing it were partially spiritual and because I love the outdoors and a good physical challenge.

Why did you choose the Camino Portuguese (route)?

Pam Shields, SCSAI
Health & Fitness Director

I lived in England for a while when I was younger and have traveled to Europe several times but have never been to Portugal and Spain. I weighed all my options . . . I get my walk and pilgrimage and at the same time I'm seeing two countries that I had not yet visited.

Did you see the Atlantic Ocean during your walk?

Yes. There is a coastal route and a central route. I walked a day and a half on the coast. It was fabulous! The rest of the walk was through the countryside. Also, very beautiful.

Did you go with a group or by yourself?

I went by myself. The nice thing about it is there are other people walking and as you get closer to Santiago de Compostela you see more and more people with backpacks...that are doing the pilgrimage. Early on, I didn't see many others. I would walk for hours and not see another person. I was alone, but I never felt that I was out there all by myself. I speak enough Spanish to get by but Portuguese is very different. Luckily, many Portuguese speak some Spanish . . . so I was able to make my way.

Where did you stay at night?

Hostels, hotels, and in one case a home. It was a woman's home and she let pilgrims stay there for a donation. Probably 75% of the time, I stayed in hostels and then the rest of the time in small hotels. That took some planning and was a bit stressful. Each day, once I reached my destination, I would figure out how far I was going to walk the next day. I average 12-13 miles a day. But let's say I was planning to do 15 miles, I would have to see which towns were on my way, within that range. Some of those towns are so remote, they don't have places to stay over. In that case, you either have to make it a shorter or a longer day and then pick a place. In addition, you are praying that you have a good internet connection to find that place online.

Did you meet many Americans?

Lots of people, some Americans, but many more from other places in the world, of all ages. Most of the people I met had walked the Camino before and they loved the experience so much that they wanted to do it again. The ones that were doing it for the 1st time, it was more of a "bucket list" thing, not so much a spiritual thing.

So, how many days did it take you to get to Santiago de Compostela?

I walked for 23 days.

What impressed you the most during your pilgrimage? Was it the people you met, the sights, what you learned about yourself, did it change your outlook on life?

The most impactful aspect of the trip was spiritual. My Mom passed away last year in August. I took some of her ashes with me and I felt as if she were my guardian angel along the way. There is a town about a 2-hour drive from Santiago, called Finisterre. Centuries ago, it was thought that this place was the end of the earth because it's located at the tip of Spain overlooking the Atlantic Ocean (in the province of Galicia). After completing my 300+ mile walk to Santiago, I went to Finisterre and scattered her ashes in the ocean. That stands out for me as the BEST experience of my pilgrimage.

Walking into Porto,
Portugal

Outside of the spiritual piece . . . it's the people I met. You meet so many different people and everyone gets up and heads out in the morning and maybe in the next town, you see them again and maybe they are staying in the same hostel, and you get to know them. I had my birthday while I was there. I arrived in Porto, a major city in Portugal, on my birthday. Some of the people I had previously met agreed to meet up with me for a birthday dinner. We were sitting outside a French restaurant on the bank of the Duoro River in Porto, and they sang Happy Birthday to me together, each in their own language: German, Spanish, Dutch and South African. That was a highlight . . . such wonderful people.

Another thing, when you meet others on the Camino you don't say to yourself: That person has brown skin, or that person is from Japan, or that person is a corporate executive or that person is a janitor. What you say is: Here is another person on a similar journey and the discussion goes to stories of blisters, accommodations, starting points and the like. I only spoke about work and occupations with about 10% of the people I met. It just did not come up. It is an automatic camaraderie and it's wonderful.

What would you recommend to residents who are thinking of doing the same journey?

Don't be afraid. It's so safe and probably the second thing would be to decide how far you want to walk each day and from there pick the city you want to start in. It doesn't have to be 300 miles. You can walk 20 miles and get to Santiago de Compostela. But to obtain a Compostela Certificate you have to walk at least 100 kilometers. Pam got her certificate!

HEALTH & FITNESS

Year In Review

28th Annual Health Fair & Flu Shot Clinic

After having to cancel the 2020 Health Fair due to the pandemic, we were excited to hold our 28th Annual Health Fair and Flu Shot Clinic in September; offering flu shots and access to approximately 40 local health practitioners and vendors. We also added an organic wine and chocolate tasting. We teamed up with Healthy Fairs, Inc., a national event planning company specializing in Health & Wellness events and hope to work with them again in upcoming years.

DV Indoor Pool/Refurbished Mountain Shadows Walking Path

The Desert Vista indoor pool was closed for resurfacing this summer, re-opening on September 3rd. The pool went through quite a transformation. In addition to the resurfacing, the pool deck was repaired and painted, repairs were made throughout the pool area, new lane ropes and new railings were installed. The Desert Vista indoor pool is once again a showpiece for our community!

The Mountain Shadows Walking Path was refurbished in April. Residents can take advantage of a smoother and safer path to get their daily steps!

Thank Our Staff (Monitors)

While things appear to be getting back to normal around the fitness centers, 2021 has been a challenging year. After the brief shutdown in 2020, the re-opening process and subsequent normalization of operations has been a roller coaster. I want to publicly thank our Fitness Monitors for stepping up and helping us through the transition process, putting themselves at risk, dealing with many people that did not want to follow the COVID-19 protocols, and adding hourly cleaning/sanitizing of our centers to their responsibilities. Most of them worked many extra hours during this time, pitching in wherever they could. I am incredibly grateful to them for continuing to provide the highest level of customer service under these very difficult conditions.

Vaccinations/Boosters/ Drive Thru Flu Shot Clinic

From February-April, Sun City Summerlin partnered with the City of Las Vegas Fire Department to transform the Desert Vista Community Center ballroom into a vaccination clinic that accommodated over 4500 residents in receiving their first and second vaccinations for COVID-19. It was certainly the kind of teamwork that made for an efficient, pleasant, and rewarding experience felt by residents and all who volunteered.

On Saturday October 9th, Albertsons hosted their 2nd annual Drive Thru Flu Shot Clinic in the Mountain Shadows Administration Parking lot where over 350 flu shots were given to residents in the comfort of their own car. Security Patrol did an amazing job directing traffic.

Starting later in October, the Southern Nevada Health District began hosting COVID-19 Booster Shots for the community on Thursdays from 8 a.m.-1 p.m. at the Mountain Shadows Community Center. The community has been so grateful for this partnership.

Seminars

We had several virtual seminars earlier this year before transitioning back to in-person lunch and learns. Community partners: Summerlin Hospital, P3 Medical Group, Mountain View Hospital, UNLV Sports Medicine, and Spinal Care of Nevada are just some of the resources brought to the residents of Sun City Summerlin. We appreciate the education provided for the community on topics such as: fall prevention, cardiovascular and strength exercises, physical therapy, proper posture and nutrition.

Fitness Classes

We continued to expand our options for residents to be able to continue to exercise in some of their favorite classes from the comfort of their home. Zoom classes as well as in-person classes have been offered through out the year. We added two new classes this year: Ready, Set, Balance and Active Stretch.

Wishing everyone a wonderful 2022! We look forward in the Health & Fitness Department to continue to provide excellent customer service and to bring relevant education to the community that supports the residents wants and needs. Let's stay hopeful and kind in the upcoming year!

Ellen Waters is Turning 100!

Ellen Waters has lived in Sun City Summerlin for 8 years and is a regular at the Desert Vista and Sun Shadows indoor pools. She stays active by walking on the treadmill in her home everyday and by walking in the pool. I got a chance to sit down with Ellen and hear a little bit about her life's experiences. She was born in Cedar Rapids, Iowa then moved to Pasadena. Ellen always loved to dance. She had careers with department stores, the auto club, buying and selling horses and houses, Hollywood, and even spent time at the White House! Ellen's smile and twinkle in her eyes makes anyone have a better day. Happy Birthday Ellen! We are so glad to know you.

SECURITY PATROL

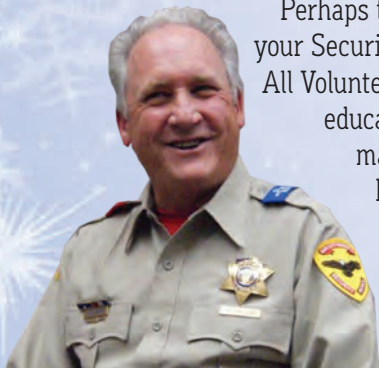

We Have a Very Fine Security Patrol

Our Residents may be proud and thankful to the one hundred eighty or so Patrol Members. Actually, there are about twenty-nine recruits going through training at present. Our optimal strength is 250 members. We are all Residents of Sun City who have volunteered to Patrol, Dispatch, or staff our Information Centers for a minimum of four hours a week. Additionally, there are currently about 40 administrative positions requiring staffing. There is always something to maintain everyone's interests.

Most Residents do not have a clear understanding of what their Security Patrol may, or may not do, for Sun City. We have no enforcement capability. Rather, our purpose is to be of assistance to Residents. The very presence of our cars, with flashing light bars, indicate to the "bad guys" our ever-watchful Patrols. Officially, we are the eyes and ears of Metro.

Crime in Sun City has the lowest incidents in the Valley, due in part to our Patrol Members. There has been an increase in some types of crime of late, but this has been rectified. Should we see, or be alerted to suspicious behavior, our immediate response is to quickly investigate the incident and report, if necessary, to the Police. In most cases, when the Police arrive, the Security Patrol Officers are on site and have secured the area of concern. This is a great assistance for Metro.

We provide dozens of peripheral services, such as house checks when Residents are vacationing. It is important that before leaving on vacation, Residents come to our Office and request we check their home. This gives us authority to go onto your property and investigate issues such as water leaks as well as a myriad of other inspections. We will respond directly to you with any problems we find, if we have your contact information.

Alan Lebarts
Chief of Security

Perhaps the most important element of your Security Patrol, is that of Training. All Volunteers go through a program of education in each of the three primary skills: Patrol Driver, Dispatcher, or Information Center Staff. After Training, a member will choose a skill. Training is ongoing. We have annual specialized education as well as Refresher Courses in each skill set. All members must attend these sessions in order to keep current with the changes we implement.

As well as providing Security for Sun City, members enjoy a social element. In that we are like minded individuals, several events annually keep us socially involved. Though we may be "like minded", we come from every walk of professionalism. This is reflected in the expertise demonstrated by each and every Sun City Security Patrol Officer.

Nominations Open for 2022 Board of Directors

Considering a run for the Sun City Summerlin Community Association, Inc. Board of Directors? Now is the time to declare your intent to run for the Board. The Board is the governing body for our Association and has responsibility for ensuring that we have the best possible quality of life, combining good business practices with providing great amenities. Here is your opportunity to give back to the community that provides so much to us, the residents.

There are three seats up for election in 2022. Each elected Director is committing to a three-year term on the Board. On page 82 the October LINK, there is an excellent description of what it takes to be a Director and an estimate of the time commitment required. Note that there are two qualifications to be a Board member: ownership of a home in Sun City Summerlin and being a member of the community in good standing. A substantial time commitment is asked of Board Members and it is very helpful to have been active in the community.

Letters of intent from homeowners in good standing and seeking to serve on the Board of Directors must be received by 5 p.m. on Tuesday, November 30, at the Administrative Office located at the Mountain Shadows Community Center, 9107 Del Webb Boulevard. Each letter of application is to be accompanied by a signed candidate disclosure statement. A packet with this information, candidate guidelines and the election timeline is available from the Administrative Office.

Names of eligible candidates will be provided to the Election Committee, a slate prepared and voting taking place via mail ballot. Ballots are due by 5 p.m. on Tuesday, February 22, and ballot counting takes place at the Association's Annual meeting which is scheduled at 8 a.m. on Wednesday, February 23.

The Good Side & Dark Side of Gift Giving

It appears as I write this article that holiday gifts may not only be in short supply this year but also cost much more due to high demand and short supply.

Why do we give gifts anyway? Wouldn't giving a loved one our time and attention be better than a materialistic gift? Did you know that there's a good side and a dark side to this tradition?

In search of answers, I first turned to Dr. Darlene Silvernail, a psychologist at South University – West Palm Beach. Turns out that giving gifts has psychological benefits; a way to show appreciation and gratitude for an individual as well as strengthening the bond between two people. When we give with no concern for getting something in return, when we give unselfishly, our psychological health improves. Seeing the expression of joy on someone's face can provide enormous satisfaction. What we give for gifts often reflects our relationship with the receiver. For example, a gift to a friend may be thoughtful, while a gift to a romantic connection may be more sentimental.

Gift giving may also be a way to assuage guilt; if the gift giver cannot be with loved ones during the holidays but finds the perfect gift, this may not only reduce guilt but can also bring emotional happiness for both the giver and the recipient.

In many cultures feelings of reciprocity often accompany gift giving. Advertisers play into the emotions of the consumer suggesting that the perfect gift is bound to bring great joy. They also know that the consumer likes a good deal – a gift that looks expensive but has been bought on sale. Have you noticed that the holiday advertising seems to start earlier and earlier every year?

This brings us to the darker side of gift giving. If a person receives a gift and feels the gift giver has not put enough thought into it or hasn't spent enough money, they may then feel undervalued and resentful. Further, looking for just the right gift takes a lot of time and effort not to mention the cost of a gift and what it takes to package it, which can create very real stress and financial burden.

Might there be a better way to share the love of the season without as much stress and financial burden? The answer is yes!

Research shows that holiday cards with family pictures and perhaps a holiday letter sharing news makes those who receive these feel that they are in the network and connected to the sender important enough to update and keep in touch with.

The year before COVID-19 started, sharing memories by enjoying a vacation together or some unique experience had become very popular. I believe as a semblance of normalcy slowly returns to our lives that this method of gift giving will make a big comeback.

Even a holiday movie for kids while they visit, at home arts and crafts or baking cookies; there are many experiences to share with family that don't involve the stress and cost of gifts.

Furthermore, we are blessed to have so many options right here in our own backyard where you can spend time with guests and give them attention but not even have to leave the community.

At this writing, COVID-19 is still here, so may I suggest that any resident interested in sharing an activity in our community with guests or grandkids call ahead to see what guidelines are currently in place. Make sure you have guest passes for all events. Here are some examples of things to do right here in the community:

- Any of the fine shows presented at The Starbright Theatre
- The Summit Happy Hour with music – free admission
- The Starbright movie presentations – free admission
- Bocci Ball, Miniature Golf, Pickleball
- Heated, indoor pools
- The Summit Restaurant and Highland Falls Restaurant
- Gaming at Miller's Tavern
- Award-winning golf courses
- Tennis

After all, when we get right down to it, isn't this really what the holidays should be all about - sharing love, joy and making happy memories? Happy Holidays!

Meet Paul LeBaron

I came to Sun City just a little over 7 years ago with my wife Mary with the intent to enjoy retired life and be around our three sons and grandchildren who had already moved here. But like many Sun City residents, we had come from extremely active and competitive careers. It became evident that we couldn't just stop cold turkey, so we sought other opportunities and Sun City Summerlin Community Assn., Inc. provided those opportunities. I vowed once retired I would never go back (even part time) to the career that I had enjoyed for the prior 40+ years but found that many of the attributes I had obtained over the years allowed an easy transition into the work requirements at Sun City.

I grew up in upstate New York, and had great interest in history, archaeology, politics, and sports. Even though my early inclination was towards politics, I knew the sacrifices and compromises needed, as well as the long odds of being successful were not to my liking. After graduating from college with a degree in Civil Engineering, I joined the NYS Department of Transportation. It didn't take me 6 months to figure out that working there was not where I wanted to spend my career. However, the best thing that came out of those six months was I met my wife Mary – proposed to her in just over a month, and within six months we were married, and still going strong 50 years later.

We lived in various locations on the East Coast before moving to Sun City in 2014. My professional career encompassed operating my own business, running an engineering division of another company, with my last position being part owner and manager of the surveying division for a company in Boston. From these various companies, I took what I perceived to be the best attributes of what a leader and communicator should be and tried to incorporate those in my management style. Caring about your work, the people you work with, and the people you service is paramount.

I am fortunate to be working with a great group of people in Membership – currently Carol B., Sharon B., & Carol D. They help provide a welcoming and resident centric approach to every person who calls or shows up at the office. We want to thank all the Sun City residents for their understanding, and concerns through the past year and a half, while we all have had to deal with COVID-19 and its widespread impacts on our lives. Membership is constantly busy with opening and closing resident accounts, welcoming new residents, providing Activity cards, providing documentation to title companies/realtors for home sales, answering resident calls for information, and maintaining all resident files --- BUT we are never too busy for you to stop by and say "Hello", and answer any question you may have.

Roberta "Bobbie" Koenig, avid Pan Club member, celebrated her 100th Birthday in mid-October! She is an avid card player and keeps busy with Pan, Canasta and Rummy. Recently, she began learning Cribbage.

GRATITUDE CORNER

Some examples of why SCS is the most incredible place to live!

Send your nominations to scsspirit@gmail.com

From the "Ya Don't Hear This Very Often" Department!!

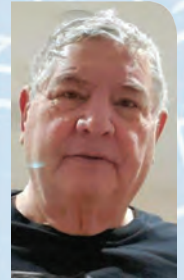

If you have ever been in a leadership position, whether elected or volunteer, you know that usually the only time you hear from people is when they are unhappy, PO'd, furious, or red-hot angry. You know that nothing energizes people like doing something they do not like or understand. Well, here at SCS, we do have people who will stop to recognize someone who is working hard to do good for others. Here is one example of a special person who took the time and effort to say "thanks for a job well done"!

"I am grateful for the President of our sub-association, Nancy Young. Although she didn't actively seek this job, Nancy is an excellent President, and we are lucky to have her!!"

*Submitted by Sarah Cogan
Secretary, Dark Peak Drive Sub-Association*

So, what do you think about that! Hats off to Sarah Cogan for caring enough about others to express her appreciation . . . and of course, super hats off to Nancy Young who is really making a difference for her neighbors and friends. Congratulations, Nancy!!

STU'S Hacks

Smelly Garbage Disposals – One cup of Listerine Mouthwash in your garbage disposal overnight will remove the bad odor.

Non Stick Trick – Spray a minimal amount of extra virgin olive oil on the inside of non-stick bakeware or pans before using. Open your dishwasher door and rest the bakeware on the door. The excess spray will go in the dishwasher and the pan will be ready for use.

Golf, Men's 18 Hole

Gentlemen our courses are in great shape let's keep them this way. The way we can help is to follow the 90-degree rule and fill in your divot and a few others in the fairways. We also need to repair our ball marks on the greens plus 3 more. Two other things we need to do is no matter what stay at least 10 yards from the greens and rake the bunkers. Thank you for your cooperation. Information about our club can be found on our website 18holers.org. Election of officers will be December 2, 1 p.m., at Desert Vista.

Golf, Men's Niners

Golfers of all levels are welcome to come and enjoy our weekly tournaments, held on each of our three courses. Depending on the time of year, we tee off between 7:00 and 8:30 a.m., every Thursday morning. Tournaments include straight individual play as well as scrambles and best ball events. Twice a year we hold out-of-town tournaments and picnics in the Desert Vista picnic grounds. We look forward to our annual Holiday Party at the Sun Coast, taking place this year on Thursday, December 9. Applications are available at any of our golf shops. For more information, contact Lou Medrano at (661) 478-0182.

Golf, Women's

It is a fact that the Sun City golfing gals would much rather play in 35 degrees than 105 degrees. That they play in either is befuddling to me. This is one sturdy group of ladies, and we have fun regardless of the weather. Come join us and be a part of these remarkable women and share our great times both on and off the course. To join us, contact, Diane Riggs at nanadriggs@gmail.com. She will assign you a buddy to usher you through the joining process and, before you know it, you'll have 100 new best friends! See you soon!!
