5 Candidates Vying for 2013 Board of Directors' Seats

The Election Committee is preparing to conduct the annual election of the Sun City Summerlin board of directors. This year, Tuesday, February 26, 2013, is designated as Election Day. Counting of the ballots will take place on Wednesday, February 27, 2013. FOUR (4) positions will be filled. Each home has FOUR (4) votes that may be cast for one candidate or divided among all in any manner desired. It is critical that not more than FOUR (4) votes are marked.

Ballots (part of the mailing label) and a return envelope will be included in your February Link. The ballot instructions are on the back of the address portion of the mailer. The ballot portion is perforated so the name and address can be removed by tearing it off at the perforations. After you mark your votes on this ballot, remove the address portion and insert the ballot into the envelope so that the bar code shows through the window in the envelope. It may then be mailed to the Administration office, Mountain Shadows Community Center, 9107 Del Webb Blvd., Las Vegas, NV 89134; or save Sun City the cost of postage by personally depositing your ballot in the ballot box at Mountain Shadows. If you mail your ballot, it must arrive no later than 3 p.m. on February 26, 2013. A polling place will be set up in the Exchange Room at Mountain Shadows on Tuesday, February 26, 2013, from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Be sure to bring your Sun City Association card to show at the poll. The polls for voting will close at 3 p.m. on February 26.

Should you lose or accidentally destroy your ballot, another can be obtained at the Administration office. Before requesting a replacement ballot, be certain that another member of your household has not already voted. If two ballots are received from the same household,

BOTH will be voided. Also, if more than FOUR (4) votes are marked on a ballot, all votes will be voided. The candidates are:

1. James Akers
2. Kenneth Carocchia
3. Joseph O'Connell
4. Susan Papilion
5. Kenneth Resnik

One (1) MEET THE CANDIDATES event will be held. It will be on Wednesday, January 9, 2013, at 7 p.m. The location will be at the Desert Vista Community Center. Each candidate will make a presentation. This will be followed by a question-and-answer period. After this formal meeting, candidates will be available to answer your additional questions.

Each candidate may provide a photo and a statement, which will be published in the February Link.

Volunteers Needed for 2013 BOD Election Committee

Elections and ballot votes in Sun City Summerlin are conducted by a neutral, nonpartisan group of community members. The only qualification is to be a homeowner. In February, there will be the annual election for directors to the Sun City Summerlin Community Association, Inc., board that will require a ballot.

The election committee members work on tasks of their choice in coordination with the overall election. They meet occasionally to discuss voting matters and ballot-counting issues. Members help prepare the actual print copy, write articles for the Link, arrange to have the outdoor signs and indoor posters placed; and one member arranges for refreshments for the members and volunteers during voting and counting days. It is also necessary to set up operations of the voting and counting days. Only on actual counting days and meetings are all members asked to be present. Actual "work" days rarely exceed four or five, and those are usually partial days. All election committee communications are by email.

If you are interested in helping a vital Sun City committee, please call Lorin Martin, assistant to the executive director, 966-1408. There are a number of positions available. Your name will be put in a file and contact will be made when the election committee is forming.

RESIDENTS' FORUM PRESENTS CANDIDATE NIGHT

Sun City Summerlin Board of Directors · Desert Vista Community Center · Wednesday, January 9, 7 p.m.

Every year we have the opportunity to refresh our board of directors with the election of either four or five candidates who are willing to exchange hundreds of otherwise leisure hours for work and responsibility. You have the opportunity to meet the candidates, who will present their qualifications and submit to your questions at the January Residents' Forum. Why not mark your calendar right now. The nine-member board of directors make decisions throughout the year that affect your quality of life, as well as your bank account. This is a great opportunity for you to ask questions and learn about issues that will concern your board in 2013. Ballots will be included in the February Link. We'll have microphones, coffee and cookies, and we promise an interesting meeting.

A Golf Course's Best Friend

Well-trained Dogs Successful In Managing Geese, Coot Problems

Golf Course Maintenance Superintendent Josh Virostko, right, and Leroy, his Australian cattle dog, keep migratory birds in check at Eagle Crest, while GCM Superintendent Eric Alms and his dog Riot ensure similar success at Palm Valley.

Every year on our golf courses we have a lot of unwanted visitors that come to stay with us for the winter. In some settings, these visitors may be welcomed, but on golf courses they cause lots of problems. The visitors are the Canadian goose and the American coot. Most of us are familiar with what a Canadian goose looks like. It is a large bird that loves to come to the golf courses to eat grass and raise its young. The downside of what the geese leave behind after eating the green grass is a major nuisance and mess. The American coot migrates here every year in great numbers, as well. It is the little black duck that can be seen in all of our community lakes. Coots love to eat grass, and because their numbers are so great their mess is just as bad as the geese and, at times, even worse.

Over the years we have tried many tactics to keep the birds away – we have put up small netting around the lakes and have used fake wild animals like the coyote and falcon decoys. In addition, there are animal-deterrent chemicals that we spray on the grass to keep the birds out of particular locations, usually around the greens. The birds dislike the taste of the grass treated with the chemical. The problem with this method is that treatment needs to be very frequent in order to be effective, which becomes costly. Throughout the years, the United States Department of Agriculture and the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service have offered assistance in suggestions for control measures. Both of these birds are migratory, protected species, so we have to be careful not to harm them.

As for natural predators, there are a few that help manage the populations, but keeping them here consistently is rare.

Occasionally, we have falcons, hawks and other birds of prey, and we see coyotes every once in a while. But one natural predator that is a little easier to have on our golf courses on a consistent basis is a dog. When our Golf Course Maintenance Superintendent Josh Virostko (who works at Eagle Crest Golf Course) arrived, he brought with him a working dog that was very much trained to work the birds on the golf course. Those of you who play Eagle Crest probably remember his dog Bruce, who was an Australian cattle dog. Bruce did a great job on the golf course and was very effective in chasing away birds, helping to keep the populations to a minimum. Bruce died about a year ago after 14 years of a good life working on golf courses nearly every day. He would not walk on a putting green, through a bunker and obeyed Josh's voice commands. Today, following in Bruce's paw steps is Leroy, who is "in training" to become just as effective on the course as his predecessor.

While Bruce was active at Eagle Crest, we wanted to set up similarly successful situations at the two other courses. Enter Eric Alms, our superintendent at Palm Valley Golf Course and his 8-month-old Labrador/cattle dog mix, Riot. We also have two dogs that work Highland Falls. The dogs are owned by mechanic Mat Wiedemer and are currently in obedience training so that they, too, can attend to the problem of our migratory birds. So far, the dogs have been very effective with the geese. Unfortunately, the American coot is a little more stubborn. It doesn't like to fly away. Rather, when chased, it heads for the lake. But the dogs are doing a great job keeping the birds uncomfortable, and we hope that in the years to come they are less likely to come here and stay for the winter.

Whether you want to lose weight, quit smoking, get your finances in order or spend more time with your family, here's some advice to help make your resolutions stick. Remember, winners do what losers don't want to do. Have passion, take action and you will get what you are after.

- ◆ Set a very specific goal. Resolving to exercise more is not specific enough. "I will work out 30 minutes a day, four days a week" is more specific. If you want to spend more time with your family, make an appointment. Define exactly what you want in clear terms.
- ◆ Set a goal that has a measurable outcome. Getting in shape is not quantifiable. Without a goal that is measurable, how will you know when you have made progress?
- ◆ Assign a timeline. Someday is not a day of the week. The difference between a dream and a goal is a time frame for making it happen. A deadline also can help motivate you and prevent you from procrastinating.
- ◆ Identify small steps. Major life changes don't just happen; they happen one step at a time. Steady progress through well-chosen, realistic, interval steps produces results.
- ◆ Create accountability. Without accountability, people are prone to con themselves. If you know precisely what you want — and there are real consequences for not doing the assigned work — you are more likely to continue in pursuit of your goal. Find someone in your circle of family or friends to whom you can be accountable. Make periodic reports on your progress.
- ◆ Change your lifestyle. If you are trying to get in shape or lose weight, make sure you have a plan and start making a lifestyle change. Willpower will not make things change. Remember that you don't break habits: You replace one behavior with a new one.

Tip: Please be sure you check in to the fitness centers by presenting your membership/resident card at the monitor's desk anytime you visit a fitness center (to exercise, for club dance classes, to use the library, etc.). It is important for the Association to track how many residents are actually using the facilities so that budgets and programs match attendance.

Community Standards

A Few Suggestions from Community Standards

Holiday reminder: Lights and decorations must be removed by January 15

Now that the cooler weather is here, it is a good time to consider some projects that we tend to put on the back burner. In addition to landscaping, look to general maintenance, trash and pet needs.

Maintenance:

- ♦ How do your awnings look? Could they use some cleaning or repair?
- ♦ Don't forget about your windows and screens.
- ♦ If your driveway is coated, does it need resurfacing?
- ♦ How about your mailbox post? It should be either black or white (depending on where you reside). If it is any other color, it needs attention.
- ♦ Take a look at your wrought iron fencing. Does it look faded or rusted?

Trash:

- ♦ Cover trash receptacles or place trash in tied plastic bags.

Landscape

It's winter and you can't hide. Even if your landscape is dormant there are still things that can be done in the yard. Of course, any of the hard work that needs to be done, but was put off until the cooler weather has passed, like adding fresh rock or heavy digging, can be revisited in the spring. When working in the yard this month, be sure to dress warm and do not overdo it. It is important to know your limits. January is a good time to prune and plant roses. You will begin seeing roses for sale at the nurseries and home stores. If you buy bare root roses, make sure the store will guarantee them if they do not grow in the spring. Another good practice at this time of year is restoration pruning. The landscape department is watering once a week during the day – turf on Tuesdays and drip on Wednesdays.

~ Louis Darling, Director of Landscaping

- ♦ When stacking recycle bins, place the lightest material (usually the plastic and cans) on the bottom.
- ♦ Secure your recycled newspapers by placing 2 or 3 inches of them in a paper grocery bag positioned on top of the bin.
- ♦ Write your address on your receptacle lid with a permanent marker. If the wind takes it away, it should find its way home.

Pets:

- ♦ Do not let your pet run loose anywhere except for your enclosed back yard.
- ♦ Do not allow your dog to trespass on other people's lots when you are walking them.
- ♦ Be sure to pick up all solid waste immediately.
- ♦ Try to prevent your dog from barking and bothering other residents.

Security Patrol

Happy New Year From The Security Patrol

254-2303
Call any time

Making a conscious choice to give of oneself for the benefit of others is an immensely satisfying New Year's resolution. Volunteering is one of the most effective ways to feel useful and connected to others. At Sun City Security Patrol, we resolve to continue to make a difference.

- ♦ We resolve to be the eyes and ears that notice anything suspicious, or out of the ordinary. If we catch a glimpse of something moving alongside your home after dark, we'll shine a spotlight on it to make sure it's a prowling cat, not a cat burglar.
- ♦ If you forget to close your garage door, we will do our best to alert you.
- ♦ While flashing emergency lights are often left on in error, we resolve to take every one of them seriously.
- ♦ When you are away on vacation, we are on the job, checking your property's windows and doors (if requested).
- ♦ Every day, we are here for you. For assistance, call 254-2303.

SCSCAI CLUBS:

JANUARY MARKS MONTH FOR GETTING IN PAPERWORK

W hether you are a resident veteran or a newbie to Sun City Summerlin, you will be amazed at the variety of activities the community offers. For starters, did you know that there are more than 80 chartered clubs and community organizations that focus on everything from fishing to sewing, horseshoeing to travel and fitness to photography. If you are a thespian, there's community theater, where you can act or work behind the scenes helping to create scenery or costumes. If you're a glass artist or jeweler, play tennis, cards, mahjong, bocce, pickle ball, softball or racquetball, the clubs have you covered, too.

While there are many opportunities for club members to enjoy, club presidents have a few responsibilities to meet. With the New Year comes a bevy of new officers who need to mark their calendars with a few January dates to guarantee that their clubs' business runs smoothly.

The forms listed below must be filed with the Department of Community Services this month:

Form	Deadline
Club Officer Form	14 days after club's election of officers
Club Roster	January 31
Annual Financial Statement	January 31
Request to Issue 1099	January 15 (Please submit directly to Duwayne Steele, controller, at Mountain Shadows community center.
Link Article	24th of each month. The SCSCAI Chartered Club and Community Organization Directory contact name/phone number may be changed only AFTER the Club Officer Form has been submitted.

In addition, there are specialty forms that must be filed by specific deadlines throughout the year to reserve rooms, report raffle funds and taxable sales, etc. Please consult the CCOC Procedures Manual. If you have any questions regarding these forms, or if you need additional copies of any paperwork, call the Department of Community Services, 363-3581.

Common Area Properties (CAP)

Ken Caroccia

Chairman, Common Area Properties Committee

Committee Works to Keep Community Sparkling

At the beginning of each new year, the Common Area Properties Committee likes to review the projects completed in the previous year by the community's department heads. Our various inspection teams always work closely with the Building Maintenance Department, headed by Dennis McGrew; the Landscape Maintenance Department, headed by Louis Darling; the Golf Course Maintenance Department, headed by Brian Bagwell; and Fitness Director, Kristie McWhorter. The staff and CAP committee members are very proud of how our community looks, and we would like to share some of our major accomplishments for 2012:

Golf Courses

- ♦ Multiple bunkers at Highland Falls and Eagle Crest have been redone.
- ♦ New landscaping was completed around our new fire station.
- ♦ New water filtration systems were installed in all cart barns to provide purified water for the golf cart batteries.
- ♦ New golf carts were purchased to replace all carts on the three golf courses.
- ♦ Palm Valley tees were leveled and resurfaced.

Landscape

- ♦ The corners at Del Webb and Rampart boulevards were completely replanted to provide color year round.
- ♦ Plum trees at the corner of Del Webb Boulevard and Sungold Drive (at Sun Shadows) were replaced with oleander trees that will bloom much of the year.
- ♦ Replaced Bradford trees in the median of Thomas Ryan Boulevard with varieties that will do better in our climate.
- ♦ New irrigation valves and sprinklers were installed at Sundial West Park greenbelt.

Restaurants

- ♦ The Vista Grille was completely remodeled and a new menu was introduced. It is now a full-service restaurant.
- ♦ The Vista Grill patio has been resurfaced to better withstand the golf cleats.

Social Centers

Desert Vista

- ♦ New umbrellas were purchased and installed at the outdoor pool.
- ♦ The indoor pool decking, pool surface and adjacent showers were all refurbished, and the spa was re-plastered.

Mountain Shadows

- ♦ The flat roofs were recovered.
- ♦ The Administration offices have been refurbished.
- ♦ The outdoor fountain was turned on, with a fee paid and an exemption from the city to allow operation.

The Pinnacle

- ♦ New umbrellas were purchased and installed at the outdoor pool.
- ♦ A new surface was laid at the entrance to the fitness center.
- ♦ Landscaping around the pool was redone.

Sun Shadows

- ♦ Completely refurbished the inside and outside of the building, including new roofing.
- ♦ After the remodel, landscaping was reworked.

We also watch for light bulbs that might be out, that cleaning is done properly, that fire extinguishers are in working order, among other things that keep our community beautiful. All residents are welcome to attend our committee meetings as announced in the Link to help get a better idea of all that we do.

Sharon Gainsburg Coaxes Expression Out of Stone, Students

~ by Jeannette Carillo

Sharon Gainsburg has become an active voice in the Las Vegas arts scene, offering instruction in her downtown Las Vegas studio, as well as classes for UNLV through the OLLI program.

Whether faith can move a mountain may be up for debate, but a mountain, or most certainly its core component – stone – can stir inspiration within an artist.

Case in point, Sun City resident Sharon Gainsburg, an East Coast transplant who has comfortably settled into the downtown Las Vegas arts scene. Inside her studio, which faces Main Street north of Charleston Boulevard, Sharon offers budding and professional artists a 12-week program in stone carving. Classes meet once a week on Saturdays for three hours. This semester, two residents followed Sharon from Sun City, making the trek downtown for a block of time Sharon says they describe as “addictive” and among “one of the toughest things they’ve ever done.”

“I have a student who is 80-something,” Sharon said. “She tells me she goes home after class and can sleep very well. I guess it’s because she’s been pounding on stone for three hours.”

“Carving is the language that I have been given, with which I communicate from my heart the mystery and the magic of life’s journey,” Sharon said. “Stone is a composite of all the essential elements – fire, earth, air and water, a totality of all matter. When I carve I feel connected to the earth and, thus, to a universal consciousness.”

Every First Friday during Las Vegas’ monthly art event, Sharon welcomes visitors and would-be students into her studio, answering questions about her work that adorns the front part of her gallery, The Gainsburg Studio. The back of the space opens into a work area, where rough strewn alabaster awaits selection. Classes begin when a student selects a piece of alabaster marble, which is priced by the pound. After the stone is purchased, creativity gives way to smooth, sensual lines of abstract shapes.

Among her most favorite students, Sharon said, are the ones who say they are not artistic.

“It’s fear that often stops people from pursuing their interests,” Sharon explained. “In class, I say, ‘Just jump in and see what happens.’”

Sharon began teaching in 1984 upon the advice of a well-known New York artist whom she sought out to critique her work. Following the session, which was filled with casual compliments, Sharon told the artist that she needed a broader view. She wasn’t happy with placations. The conversation quickly turned to questions about how serious she was about pursuing stone work and the prospect of her teaching.

“I felt like someone had unzipped the old Sharon and let the new Sharon out. I resonated with it,” she said.

Nearly 30 years later, Sharon explained that stone has been her healer.

“I have developed patience through teaching. It teaches you about life. Whatever you are going through – divorce, another job, someone dies – it’s a detour. The same thing happens when you are carving stone. When a piece falls off, it’s telling you you have to come up with a solution to this problem.”

In addition to her studio work, Sharon offers instruction for UNLV through the OLLI program, which meets in Sun City. Both of Sharon’s classes meet at the Paradise campus in Las Vegas and are designed to help students unblock their creativity.

Chunks of alabaster await selection inside The Gainsburg Studio.

Mountain Shadows Display Case: Security Patrol and the Community Preparedness Committee

Security Patrol and the Community Preparedness Committee are community organizations whose volunteers are concerned with the safety and well-being of Sun City residents. Their efforts aid people who may be compelled to deal with a personal crisis, or a catastrophic disaster that puts everyone in need of help, information and guidance.

- ◆ You can help the Security Patrol by adding your neighborhood awareness to theirs. Know your neighbors; look out for one another; exchange telephone numbers. Complete your Emergency Contact information and file it with Administration or the Security Patrol. Call the Security Patrol, day or night, if anything worries you. They will check it out, and if you need help, they will make sure that you get it.
- ◆ The Community Preparedness Committee defines a disaster as a dangerous event that demands a response beyond the capabilities of local emergency responders. A disaster is distinguished from an emergency by the greater level of required assistance. We don't fret about hurricanes, but shouldn't we be concerned about nearby earthquakes? Are you prepared to cope without heat or air conditioning, lights, television, radio, telephone, refrigerator, microwave, or your computer? What if your water supply is contaminated or disrupted?
- ◆ If residents are advised to shelter in their homes until danger passes, can you do that for three days? Have you stored emergency water in your home – a gallon a day per person and pet? Do you stock non-perishable food? Is your water heater strapped to prevent it from toppling over? Do you have a battery-operated radio and flash lights? Can you turn off utilities if you detect an odor of gas? If the electric garage door opener isn't working, can you manually open the door to escape?

Residents can learn about the Security Patrol and Community Preparedness Committee all month long in the display cases at Mountain Shadows.

Congratulations to the new Silver, Lapidary, Glass Fusion 2013 officers elected at the November 17 meeting: Bob Miller, president; Gloria Noble, vice-president; Penny Stibor, vice-president; Stina Schloss, treasurer; and Sharyn Smith, secretary. January is the time to renew your membership. Please stop in the club rooms anytime they are open and someone will be there to take your dues and locker fees. Silvertones

Start off the New Year on a happy note! If you like to sing, can carry a tune and will commit to weekly rehearsals on Thursdays from 1-3 p.m., we would like to have you. We are looking for alto and tenor voices but will accept others. Our winter concerts on Saturday and Sunday, December 1-2 were a great success. Try to visualize yourself among our group of 50-plus singers. If interested, contact Roger Storkamp, 228-1477. Correction: Our first 2013 rehearsal in preparation for our spring show will be on Thursday, January 10, 1 p.m. in the Music Room at the Pinnacle. Election notice: Officers for the 2013 calendar year were nominated in November.

Softball-Men's

While you're reading this, our teams are enjoying a break in the action. It is our custom to split our season into two schedules for two reasons. The first reason is that we want to enjoy our holidays with our families and the second is to re-evaluate our players and teams for better competition for the remainder of the season. The past year we have hosted many non-Sun City Summerlin teams, both from the Las Vegas area (Anthem, Lorenzi) and our most proudest events with the Las Vegas Fire Department and the Wounded Warriors Amputee Softball traveling team. The turnouts were great and we appreciate all those who came up to see the events. You can catch us Monday, Wednesday, Friday at 9 and 10:30 a.m. to see our games and pickup games on Saturday. For more information, visit our website, www.scssoftball.com. That site contains everything you want to know about the Club. If you don't have a computer, you can call our president, Tom Popek, 788-6077.

Softball-Women's

One more of my memorable softball times – I was the bat girl for the Las Vegas firemen and the Wounded Warriors amputees in both of the softball tournaments played in Sun City. Trying to get a coed softball tournament with the Wounded Warrior amputees next spring. Their manager already OK'd it. The Christmas party was held in Nadine Robetor's home, and the players take the field on Saturdays when the sun is out and all is right with the world. For information, call Nadine, 326-1429, or Betty, 242-4240.

Spanish

The Club encourages you to join us to learn the Spanish language. Classes take place Fridays, advanced level, 9-10 a.m.; beginner and intermediate level, 10-11 a.m.; casual Spanish conversation for Spanish speakers or students, as well (no instructor). For more information, contact Club President Mery Finkle, 228-8417.

Stained Glass

We will have our quarterly meeting on Saturday, January 12, 9 a.m., Mountain Shadows. We will have demonstrations, door prizes, coffee and friendly talks. Members and non-members are welcome. We will be collecting a check of $25 for dues made out to the Stained Glass Club, plus $5 if you have an extra locker. You also can mail your check to Theres Emerson, 2413 Keiser Court, Las Vegas, NV 89134. Our four-session class will start again on Mondays and Tuesdays, January 21, 22, 28 and 29, 6-9 p.m. Hope we see all of you and anyone interested in our Club. Meetings are fun, lively and informative. For more information, call President Dale Kavula 240-6257.

Sunshine Service

Start the New Year by attending this interesting and informative meeting on Monday, January 7, 10:30 a.m., Desert Vista. We lend medical and children's equipment for resident use. Hours: Monday to Saturday, 9-11 a.m. 10362 Sun City Blvd. Help fill Salvation Army barrels with non-perishable food at our warehouse, or in the High Sierra Room kitchen at Mountain Shadows. For information, call 341-9741.

Swim

Table Tennis

We hope all of our friends had a great time during the holidays. Now is the time to shed a few pounds and have fun doing it. Ping pong is a great way to do it. Come join us every Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Sunday, 9 a.m. to noon at the Pinnacle fitness center. We have all level of players. Club members enjoy breakfast at Red Rock once a year and an annual picnic that is always a great time. So dust off that old paddle or use one that the Club provides. For more information, call Jeff at 596-6405

Tai Chi

Annual dues of $5, payable only by check to The Tai Chi Club, are due for 2013. Traditional short form-advanced:

Chartered Clubs

For information, call Judith Filangeri, 473-1153; Mary Catherine Straka, 256-1119; or Mery Finkle, 228-8417.

Team Tennis

The Team Tennis Club's newly elected officers wish you all a marvelous New Year. 2013 should be a happy and healthy 12 months. To get started, you should join our Club and work off some of those year-end calories. By joining, you also get the opportunity to party at our annual picnic, pizza party and holiday gala. Where else can you have so much fun for annual dues of only $10? For more information, call Ann Lippincott, 869-6606, or Pam Clifford, 838-6607.

Tennis Club

The Sun City Tennis Club caters to all levels of play, from beginners on up. Dues are only $10, which includes league play and parties. The January meeting will be on Tuesday, January 22, 7 p.m., Desert Vista. Visit us at www.suncitytennisclub.com, or call David Wells, 233-6032.

Theater (Community)

We are deep in rehearsal for our fun-filled show "Where Are They Now," set to take the stage at the Starbright Theatre, February 8-10. This is an original musical comedy written by our own Martha Olson. Show times are Friday and Saturday, February 8-9, 7 p.m.; Sunday, 2 p.m. This is too much fun to miss, so don't! Tickets are $8 and can be purchased from any cast member, or by calling Jeanne, 838-2908, or Elaine, 838-3849. For more information about this dynamic, fun club, call Joan Messineo, 363-3330.

Travel

Happy New Year. The next meeting is Wednesday, January 9, 3:30 p.m., Desert Vista. Bring your checkbooks to renew your membership for 2013. There are many new shows to help chase away those winter blues. We will also nominate our officers. For information, call Marise, 242-2704.

WateRobics

We want you. Your joints want our great instructors and water. We have year-long fun. The WateRobics Club offers eight 45-minute workouts weekly at 9 a.m., Monday through Friday, plus Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons at 1 p.m. All sessions are designed and led by certified instructors in the Sun Shadows pool. For more information, call Adrienne, 228-5673.

Women's Club

Start the New Year with a resolution to join the Women's Club and have a lineup of exciting programs and events to look forward to. The $15 annual dues can be paid at the January 17 meeting at Desert Vista. The program will feature Philip Fortenberry, a concert pianist, master teacher, and associate conductor for major production shows. Doors open at 11:30 a.m., and the program starts at 12:15 p.m. For additional Club information, contact Judy Auerbach, 242-0727.

Writers Workshop

We welcome the 2013 board: Jerry Silvers, president; Marcy Edwards, vice president; Dorothy Macchio, secretary; and Sandy Merritt, treasurer. Our general meetings are held the second and fourth Mondays of each month at Sun Shadows Community Center at 9 a.m. Our friendly members are both published and novice writers. We have classes on writing memoirs, poetry, children stories, etc. You're always invited to come to one of our sessions. Our annual dues are $15. Contact president Jerry Silvers, 489-3305, for a full schedule of our activities and guest speakers.

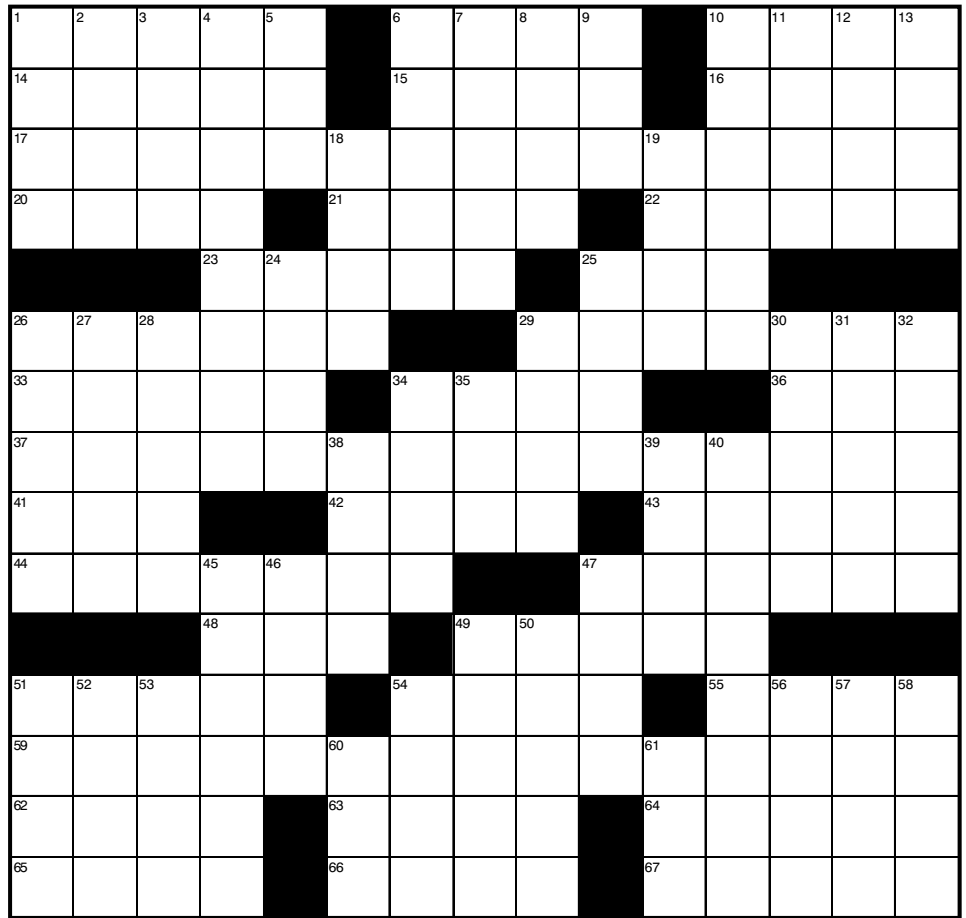

Yoga

All classes are held at Desert Vista on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, 8:15-10 a.m. Beginners are welcome in all classes. The only requirement is that you can get up and down from the floor without assistance. Monthly fees: one class weekly, $20; two classes weekly, $30; three classes weekly, $45.
