Lots of Ways to Have Fun in Sun City

Summer is here and the heat will intensify. Some of our neighbors have gone to visit family and friends in cooler places, leaving us to enjoy the sun, the pools and the great Sun City activities and amenities. Have you been out and about lately?

The outdoor pools are open every day from 6 a.m. to 9 p.m. I know a woman who walked one hour in the Mountain Shadows' pool every day all summer long and strengthened her muscles so much she looked like she lost 40 pounds. The pools are good for you and the salt water is gentle on your skin. Please check Page 21 for indoor pool closures this month due to deck repairs.

The Tavern at the Falls, which is the restaurant at Highland Falls Golf Course, serves an early dinner between 4:30 and 6:30 p.m. There are specials every night, including a grilled salmon, chicken or steak dinner complete with salad and dessert. When it's too hot to cook, go to the Tavern and have a nice dinner while enjoying the view of the golf course.

Have you gone to Coffee With the Board lately? Besides coffee, the Board serves goodies for your enjoyment. This month, Coffee will take place on Friday, June 19, 10:30 a.m., at Desert Vista. Also this month, everyone who comes to the June 23 Board of Directors' meeting will get to participate by voting on the annual budget. Your Board of Directors would love to see more residents come to the Tuesday meeting that starts at 9 a.m. at Desert Vista to hear your comments.

June is a month full of live music! The Starbright Theatre has the Desert Tenors and tributes to the Rat Pack and Neil Diamond. Open Mic at the Summit is getting bigger every month so mark your calendar for Wednesday, June 17, at 6 p.m. Plus, there is a concert in the Desert Vista ballroom on Sunday, June 7, at 2 p.m., with a great new Vegas group called The Hot Club of Las Vegas. This gypsy jazz group will have you dancing to the rhythm.

We all moved here to be active, so the staff and I are dedicated to trying new and interesting things for you to do. Stay connected and get the information by email. Register at www.scsc.ai.com so you get information on the events and go to www.suncitylink.com for the latest news on Tuesdays.

President's Message

David Steinman,
President, SCSCAI
Board of Directors

Campaign Stops Are a Win-Win for Sun City

Recently, Sun City has hosted a wave of political rallies sponsored by candidates who enjoy prominent name recognition in national and local races.

I received a phone call from a resident recently who asked me why the Board of Directors permits political agendas to be debated in our community. There are two primary reasons. First, Sun City is known to be a community that exercises its right to vote. Voter turnout is exceptional in Sun City when compared with other voter blocks in Clark County; therefore, our residents deserve exposure to candidates without having to get into their vehicles and drive many miles to a rally. Second, our Association rents our facilities to candidates. Las Vegas Mayor Carolyn Goodman, Councilman Stavros Anthony, Jeb Bush and Rand Paul were in Sun City for events during a two-month period recently. Your Association received $5,070 in rent from these candidates.

Your Board of Directors believes that bringing these candidates to our community gives us positive exposure and benefits our residents. Chuck Todd, moderator of NBC'S “

Meet the Press,” interviewed Rand Paul during his recent visit to the Desert Vista community center. The interview was done on the patio of Desert Vista with our community featured as a background.

The residents of Sun City have a fine reputation of turning out the vote in all elections. They are being rewarded with visits from prominent candidates. Your Association will continue to encourage this trend.

AND THE NO. 1 GOLF COURSE GOES TO . . . HIGHLAND FALLS

Sun City Jewel Is a Real Sparkler

Story by Jeannette Carrillo
Photos by DJ Minella

No one makes it to the top alone.

Along the way there are many helping hands that support, advise, assist and applaud your efforts. Whether you're an actor accepting a shimmering gold statue or a golf course collecting kudos from the players who revel in your fairways and worship at your greens, staking a claim at the No. 1 spot represents the hard work and determination of many.

"It starts with the golf course maintenance staff, in my opinion," said Donny Long, director of golf at Sun City Summerlin. "Without great conditions we can't sell the course. If conditions aren't acceptable for the guests, we will lose them for good."

Donny assumed the helm of SCSCAI's golf department in 2013 after spending 13 years learning the nuances of the community's three public courses. These days, if you ask him about the wide smile on his face, he'll most likely tell you it's due to the great pride he takes in Sun City's golf program; more specifically, he'll tell you about the latest honor bestowed upon Highland Falls Golf Course by readers of the Las Vegas Review-Journal. On March 29, the course was voted Best Public Course in Las Vegas in the newspaper's annual "Best of Las Vegas" readers' poll.

"Our goal is to give the customer the best experience possible from pulling in the parking lot to having a drink in the restaurant following play," Donny said. "With the local competition around town, we must strive to have better course conditions and great customer service to stay on top."

From the friendly, professional faces at the front of the house who greet golfers at the door to the qualified teachers who lead exceptional, fun and comfortable clinics to the dedicated groundskeepers who start their day well before sunrise to ensure immaculate playing conditions, Donny says the experience offered at Highland Falls is full circle.

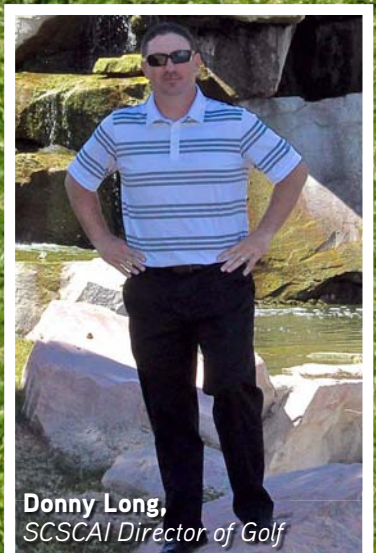

"You are only as good as your staff. This is something I will never forget. I have surrounded myself with an amazing group of people. Every one of them has multiple tasks that must be done daily that allow our operation to run smoothly. With three courses at three different locations, staff must stay on top of their duties to be successful. Take Golf Course Maintenance, for example. Director Brian Bagwell and his Superintendent Roger Knight have done wonders with the look and feel of the course. I think what they have accomplished with additional tasks and a limited budget and limited staff is remarkable," he said.

When he first heard about the award, Donny said, "I am very proud of my staff all the way around for winning this award. This is voted on by the public, who have played multiple facilities around town. We compete with all the public courses in Las Vegas, including Angel Park, Sienna, Silverstone, Badlands, Arroyo and Painted Desert, so I'm very excited."

And resident golfers should be ecstatic about the wonderful playing opportunity they have in their own back yard.

For more information on Highland Falls Golf Course or to reserve a tee time, call 254-7070.

OPEN MIC RETURNS JUNE 17 • Free Monthly Event Not Your Average Amateur Night

If you thought open mic night was a showcase of beginners, think again. The monthly event that takes place at the Summit every third Wednesday, from 6-8 p.m., is a veritable smorgasbord of talent that has amassed a loyal following since it began in January.

The event is hosted by professional musician and Sun City resident Melanie Spector, who coordinates the lineup for the night. The Melanie Spector Trio warms up the audience with a song or two and then cools down the crowd at the end of the night. In between, guest musicians rock out to covers inspired by all genres of music. In April, residents enjoyed the banjo-picking/bluegrass prowess of Vera Vann-Wilson, folk magic by Cindy Zegers and Nan Stevenson, and show tunes by Suzanne Myers. There was also a sing-along set by accordionist Joe Cervia and ballads by Kenny Korotkin.

There is no charge for admission. As for refreshments, an ever-changing appetizer buffet is priced at $3 and features tasty bites like chilled Mediterranean pasta salad, cheese cubes, sliced meats, spreads, and crackers. Joe O'Connell,
Chairman, Golf Oversight Committee

Sun City Courses Offer Award-Winning Play

If you are a Sun City golfer, you know all three courses are in great shape. This is due in large part to Brian Bagwell, director of golf course maintenance, and his superintendents. Highland Falls is so good it was named the “Best Course in Las Vegas” by readers of the Las Vegas Review-Journal. For more information on that accolade, see the story on Page 8. Now is the best time to play golf, so get out and enjoy the courses.

I recently rode the Palm Valley course with Brian and he pointed out some areas that will be worked on in the next year. This will include eliminating a couple of sand bunkers, which will improve play and save money. Bunkers that need sand should get it soon. During the budget hearings, I asked for and got an increase in the money for purchasing sand.

During a very bumpy ride on the cart path, Brian talked about the replacement of the path that will take place this summer. Money was approved for concrete paths to replace the worn-out one we drove on. Hopefully, the work will start near July 1. The plan is to work on one hole at a time, so we can keep the course open with minimal interruption. Summer is the best time to work as it is the slow season for golf. With a little luck, the project should be completed before prime time in September. Brian’s foresight includes a plan for spaces built under the concrete for future work on the irrigation system if need be.

The people who work for us in golf are doing a great job to give us quality at a good price. Support Brian and Donny Long, director of golf, with a positive comment now and then. If you have a suggestion to improve the golf experience, give them a call or join me at the Golf Oversight meetings.

Hit it long and straight.

Fire Station 107 Gets Replacement Rescue

Las Vegas Fire & Rescue Station 107 in Sun City welcomed a new rescue ambulance to the station recently that replaced the old unit because of age/mileage. The vehicle is a 2014 model, and according to Tim Szymanski, PIO1 public education and Information officer for Las Vegas Fire & Rescue, "The unit is the same as the previous model in capabilities. Fire Station 107 in Sun City was one of eight fire stations in Las Vegas to receive an updated rescue ambulance."

Bye-Bye $2 Ticket Fee

Buying tickets for shows at the Starbright Theatre is a better bargain than ever now that SCSCAI has dropped the $2 processing fee that used to accompany every online ticket purchase. For ultimate convenience, residents can buy their tickets online from the comfort of their home using their credit card. No more waiting in line or arriving early to get the best seat. Just check www.scsc.ai.com for show dates and times, view the available seating chart, pick your seat, pay the total and you'll be ready to go. For those without computer access, tickets will remain on sale at the Mountain Shadows, Desert Vista and Pinnacle community centers. Only cash and checks are accepted for in-person sales.

Winner, Winner!

Sun City Summerlin resident Paul Bilman bought the lucky raffle ticket to win the grand prize garage door opener from Silver State Overhead Door during Sun City's 10th annual Hope Expo in March. Silver State owner Gary Kozal presented the prize.

RESIDENTS' FORUM

June 10, 7 p.m.
Desert Vista

On Wednesday, June 10, 7 p.m., Desert Vista, your Residents' Forum and the Community Preparedness Committee invite you to a jointly sponsored meeting to hear firefighters from our local 107 fire department talk about how we can make our lives safer and even help save lives. They will demonstrate the newest CPR procedures, as well as answer any questions you have. Since we are all (thankfully) getting older, we want to preserve our lives as best we can. Our firefighters will give us some very useful information as to how we can do this. We thank David Steinman, president of SCSCAI's Board of Directors and chairman of the CPC, for arranging this program. Your Residents' Forum will be serving refreshments, and there are no costs to attend this meeting. Mark your calendar and be prepared to learn some good information while meeting your friends and neighbors. Call Glenda Rogers, president, 255-7755.

I moved to Sun City Summerlin when I retired in 1994. I have been playing softball with the Sun City Softball Club for 18 years. I also am active with the Sun City Niners nine-hole golf league. I am adamant about exercising for at least 30 minutes every day of the week except Sunday. I also do exercises in the pool twice a week. I watch what I eat so I don't put on the pounds. That's all folks!

My husband, Mel, and I moved to Sun City 16 years ago from the East Coast and have loved every minute of living here! We've been married 39 years and have two children and two grandchildren. I have been passionate about holistic health, nutrition and exercise for over 40 years. My current program for exercise is walking four times a week, weights twice a week and yoga when I can fit it in. When I retire I really want to volunteer for our Security Patrol and help out at the Computer Club, of which I have been a member for as long as I've lived here. I used to be an avid hiker with the Hiking Club, but due to injuries I have had to put that off for now. I am vice president of the Fitness Club in Sun City. My passion is traveling. My other interests are reading, cooking, looking for interesting activities available in Las Vegas to do with my husband and friends. I enjoy being on the Fitness Advisory Council. HEALTH NUT

What Sun City Did for Me

~ By Ann Kmit

I had a stroke 20 years ago, which left my right arm paralyzed and my right leg partly paralyzed. We were living in Minnesota at the time, and my helpful husband drove me to the Courage Center, a therapy pool 55 miles away from our house twice a week. There I did exercises in the water with other stroke patients. Besides being good for my body, it was good for my spirits because I made new friends and enjoyed myself. But Minnesota winters are harsh and we decided to move to Sun City, where the weather is kinder to our aging bodies.

We had chosen a house on the golf course with a lovely view of the mountains because I spent most of my time in bed reading or watching television. That way, I could enjoy the beautiful mountain scene from my window. Then we discovered the Arthritis Club in the Link and the exercise class that met at Desert Vista twice a week just like in Minnesota. This class was three miles away. Shyly, I came to the pool and found that some of the exercises were exactly the same ones I had learned back at the Courage Center! I like the class and the exercises, but mostly I love the people, who are so supportive. After months I not only felt better, I was stronger! I no longer spent time in bed during the day, either. I was hooked!

Two years ago, I happened to see Darlene Rogers, the coach of the swim team. I asked her, "Could you teach me to swim?"

She answered without hesitating, "Sure! Come on down to the pool at 9 a.m. on Monday and we'll get started." Well, I did. At first, I swallowed what I thought was half the water in the pool – but I persevered. It took six months before I reached my goal. After that, I swam more confidently with my one arm and my one leg until early last year, Darlene said, "I think you should compete in the Nevada Senior Olympics in the fall."

Shocked, I replied, "Who, me?" It was not on my radar screen, that's for sure. But, in October, I swam at the Nevada Senior Olympics. I was cheered on by a group of yelling teenagers so I had to complete the race (out of breath and panting). They awarded me with medals (I think it was for not drowning) for which I am extremely proud.

Sun City, the pool, the exercises, my coach and the residents have all been a catalyst for my happy success in the water. If I can help anyone else to take a chance and try something new, it would be an honor to me.

HealthNut: North Pole or Bust, Part II

What ever happened to that brave couple heading to the imaginary North Pole a year ago? Where are they now?

It's one year later. I will be 92; Dolores is 92. The goal is still pursued, only the destination has changed. Our last walk together holding hands was on Easter Sunday. Dolores is in the late stages of Alzheimer's and on her own journey into the long darkness of night. I, without my mate, must carry on alone.

It was a very wonderful last walk. Every single day, in every positive way, we enjoyed meeting people who expressed complimentary remarks and acknowledged that it was an incentive for us to set our own goals.

I must say goodbye for now, as I head off to buy a new pair of walking shoes.

Landscaping

Always Remember to Look First

When working in the desert, it is a good idea to be familiar with creatures that can be deadly, or cause you pain if they strike you. There are black widow spiders, brown recluse spiders and several types of scorpions. Snakes sometimes show up, but not too often.

Always be aware when working outdoors. Check the area closely before picking up things or reaching in. Valve boxes are an ideal home for scorpions and spiders. Be sure to check out the box thoroughly before reaching in. If you see a web, take a stick and break it up. Ninety percent of the time the spider will hide from you. When digging up a valve box keep an eye out as creatures may try to use you as a hiding spot. They can crawl onto you and bite or sting.

There are several types of scorpions here in Sun City. They are nocturnal, but if you disturb their home they can attack. Scorpions live in valve boxes, under and in rocks and boulders, under pavers and stepping stones. The native scorpions are less of a health threat than their cousin, the bark scorpion, which was imported via trees and palms brought in from Arizona and California. The bark scorpion is small and mostly brown. Its sting can cause death in some people. In general, it is wise to treat all scorpions as if they are deadly. Wear gloves when working in the yard, but most importantly, inspect the area you intend to work on before you begin. If you keep a watchful eye out you will be safer. Recently, a landscape staff member lifted a stepping stone and didn't check under it. Before he knew it, a scorpion had crawled onto his hand and stung him. He got a good look at it and thankfully it wasn't a bark scorpion, but it still caused pain and numbness, however it didn't require medical attention.

Someone Is Always There to Help

Security Patrol's membership roster lists 223 volunteers who serve the community every hour of every day. Exactly 111 men and 112 women are watch commanders, dispatchers, patrol drivers or information center staffers.

There are six daily patrol shifts, each four hours long. A total of 32 volunteers are needed to patrol the community for a single day, including two watch commanders, six information center staffers, six dispatchers and 18 patrol drivers. That translates to 224 working volunteers per week. Every volunteer is expected to serve a four-hour weekly shift. Fortunately, there are patrol members who serve two or more shifts a week.

Security Patrol always welcomes new volunteers. If you think helping your neighbors might be a good fit for you, don't hesitate to learn more by talking with the patrol's personnel officer.

Patrol member Silvia LaMay has recorded the highest number of hours as a Security Patrol volunteer. Her currently accumulated service time is 23,483 hours since she and her husband, Walter, joined the patrol 19 years ago. Walter, a watch commander, has more than 20,000 hours to his own credit. Silvia is a watch commander and the Patrol's head dispatcher. In recent years, Silvia has gained an awareness that Sun City's patrol members, as well as the community's residents, embrace a generation that has occasional difficulty with tasks that they more easily did in past years. Silvia remembers how her own parents were helped by friends and neighbors when they needed it. "Now it is our turn to help others," she said.

If a safety or security issue concerns you, call 254-2303, any time. A patrol dispatcher always will be there to do his or her best to help you.

CCOC Committee

Come Learn About Issues That Affect the Clubs

Your Board of Directors has appointed me chairman of the Chartered Clubs and Community Organizations (CCOC) committee. These few words are to invite you to attend our monthly meetings, which are held in the committee room at Desert Vista on the first Thursday of every month at 1 p.m.

I have been questioned about what CCOC means and what the volunteers do at the meetings. All residents are invited to come to our meetings to speak about any problems or questions they have concerning Sun City Summerlin clubs and organizations, or they may attend to see how CCOC conducts business.

If residents have questions or concerns about club rules, membership, charters, business do's and don'ts, etc., please feel free to contact me, Glenda Rogers, 255-7755, or SCSCAI Community Services Director Melissa Spina, 242-4153.

I look forward to seeing you at a future meeting.

Jolynn Reid and Catherine Greer

A few months back I brought you “Our Own Mrs. C.” from “Happy Days,” where we spotlighted Marion Cunningham, a teacher with the Dance Company. Well, do you remember the spin-off TV show “Laverne & Shirley?” Did any of you ever wonder what happened to those crazy gals? It could be that we have them right here in Sun City. Their names are not Laverne and Shirley, but Jolynn Reid and Catherine Greer. They do not work at a brewery; they are retired and living the good life. But they, like Laverne and Shirley, have had an enduring friendship for almost a half century.

Catherine and Jolynn were 16 years old when they met on a triple date to the prom at Hillcrest High School in Midvale, Utah. They became best friends when they were both in the school musical. Their 48-year friendship has withstood the test of time and long distance, different life goals, three ex-husbands, and much more. At times throughout those years, they were roommates in New York City, supported each other through the challenges of single motherhood in Salt Lake City, lived together in Idyllwild, Calif., and Los Angeles, and now they are roommates again, here in Sun City.

Jolynn was then and is now, a dancer. She began taking lessons at the age of 4. She performed in various high school shows and took serious ballet training. She even taught for Arthur Murray Dance Studio. Following high school graduation, she attended the University of Utah for two years. She was recruited by Pan American Airways to be a stewardess because she spoke Russian. Jolynn was based in NYC for 21 years. During that time, she was married, had two sons, divorced, and reveled in her life in Manhattan.

Catherine joined Jolynn in New York for a while and then headed back to Utah to obtain her bachelor’s and master’s degrees in education. She taught sixth grade in public schools in Salt Lake County for 30 years. While she is proud of her career, her greatest achievement is her fabulous daughter who has followed her into teaching.

Jolynn returned to Utah to finish college and raise her children. She earned two bachelor’s degrees, one in political science and the other in communication. After graduation, she went into the fields of fundraising and marketing for non-profits. She worked at various charities in Utah.

During this time in Utah, Jolynn and Catherine came back together again, best friends sharing laughter, tears and lots of great adventures worthy of a sitcom.

Jolynn’s career path eventually led to a position as vice president at Idyllwild Arts Foundation in California. Guess who joined her part-time? When it was time to retire, Catherine bought a duplex in Sun City and Jolynn became her roommate. These ladies have been here only a few months, yet they have taken advantage of all our community has to offer. Jolynn joined the Sun City Dance Company and performed in her first show this past May. She also has joined our Security Patrol and takes a yoga class. Catherine joined the Dance Connection, plays golf at least once a week, takes yoga and is on the board of her sub-association homeowners’ association.

Constantly on the move, trying out so many new experiences, Jolynn and Catherine lived the way that I believe Laverne and Shirley might have spent the last 50 years. I can almost hear them singing, “1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, Schlemiel! Schlimazel! Hasenpfeffer Incorporated!”

Club Spotlight: Ladies Executive Golf Club
DENIM LOOKED GOOD ON THESE DIAMONDS

~ By Jeannette Carrillo/Link

BeDazzlers have nothing on the Ladies Executive Golf Club volunteers, who bedecked the Summit dining room in sparkles galore April 21 for the festive luncheon that followed the club's annual invitational at Eagle Crest Golf Club. Titled Denim to Diamonds, the event marks the biggest tournament for the club that welcomes golfers from across the Las Vegas Valley. In addition to Sun City duffers, ladies from Silverstone, Los Prados and Durango Hills paired up for the challenge.

"The outside guests always look forward to our raffles that have such great prizes," said Club President Joann Zornow. "Our invitationals have always had a full field of golfers. This year our Tournament Chairperson, Garnet Wynants, chaired the huge event for the first time and did a great job."

So, 100 ladies teed off at 7:15 a.m.; but before heading to their carts, the golfers walked the gauntlet of mulligan and putt hawkers, raffle ticket sellers and photographers that led to a continental breakfast and traditional mimosas.

"Don't give anyone an unfair advantage," chanted Club member Meg O'Mahoney, who, along with Glenda Seles pitched diamond-studded do-overs and putts. Next to them, volunteers Nancy Perusse and Jane Grimes collected $1 entries for the popular hat raffle that featured two chapeaus decorated in crisp $10 bills totaling $100 each.

According to event chairwoman Garnet Wynants, the diamond theme was a success. Garnet said she and her group of 4-5 volunteers worked on the tournament for nine months, creating the stunning table settings that brought the jeweled denim theme to life in brilliant napkin rings, silverware holders and centerpieces.

"We met every Thursday to cut up jeans to make the pockets. Then we didn't have enough pockets so we started cutting up jeans. Then others had a glue gun and I had all the bling ... It was a lot of work," said Garnet.

But it's an experience she wouldn't trade for the world.

"I know pretty much everyone in the Club now," Garnet said. "I had only moved here from California three months prior to being named tournament chair. It made my transition so much easier and the friendships I have made are wonderful!"
