Well, I know in the past I have written in these articles that sometimes my first challenge is thinking of a topic that might interest you, the residents and deciding if it is relevant. This month was no different. In the last 3 days I have had conversations with neighbors, friends and people who live in the community about several different topics. These have included in the last three days items such as: insurance coverage, accounting issues and techniques, legal interpretations, other places that one could retire to and several conversations about cooler places to visit during the hot Vegas summer. I then thought about all of the interesting conversations I had with various residents in Sun City just in the last month and began to realize how much I have not only enjoyed these conversations but how much I have learned as well. I then thought about the residents I have met and spoken with in the last eleven and a half years that Beth and I have lived in Sun City. We together or separately have belonged at one time or another to at least fifteen different clubs or organizations, some of which we still belong to and still very much enjoy.

The list of occupations has included, but by no means, is limited to doctors, lawyers, judges, nurses, teachers, career armed forces members, investment counselors, insurance executives, college and university administrators, entrepreneurs, contractors of all sorts, homemakers, and musicians. I have met two graduates of West Point and two graduates of the Naval Academy as well. Our community is filled with a microcosm of the population of this country. Do not be afraid to start a conversation with your neighbors, fellow card players, golfers, or a club member that you might encounter at a club meeting or a club activity. I have enjoyed learning about and from the people who live in this great community. I think you would also if you just started a conversation. I have met people who grew up in the same town as me as well as people who went to the same school or university as I did. There are times when it seems like this is a small world. I think a community is stronger the more its residents communicate with each other and sharing stories about family or work experiences can be a step in that direction.

On a more serious note, COVID-19 is not over. We must still be careful and considerate of others. The spikes in reported cases, hospitalizations, and deaths just in Clark County can be very alarming. Your Board will continue to follow the directives of the elected officials and the medical experts that are advising them. The Board dislikes having to invoke and enforce these restrictions that are mandated just as much as you dislike them. BUT as a Board we have a responsibility to follow the directives and try to protect the entire community from this virus. The Board and the Administration are committed to following the "rules". We are also committed to sharing as much information as possible with the residents, even if some think we share too much. We are trying to be transparent which we believe the vast majority of residents want us to do.

Meet your neighbors. Help your neighbors. Be safe.
Be happy and be well.

SECURITY PATROL

Let's Talk Training

Most of us have done some graduating in our lives; high school, college, trade school, classes for our careers, even striving to learn a hobby. Sun City Security Patrol gives you one more opportunity to show off your learning ability. Every job in the Patrol requires a number of hours of instruction and on the job training. There are also the refresher courses throughout your entire time in the Patrol. Now, we are not expecting anyone to memorize the Policies and Procedures Manual. These are professionally written and updated as needed, now over 200+ pages. But, members try to find resolutions to the many varied situations they encounter when on the job.

While experiencing the training regimen, Patrol members meet and interact with numerous trainers and residents on many shifts as they sort through all the possibilities of the job opportunities. Now we say "job" with tongue in cheek as all Patrol members, from the chief to the newest member are totally volunteers. There are three main areas of work to be done; greeters in the Information Centers, drivers who Patrol the streets of Sun City all day and night, every day. Then there are the dispatchers who monitor the phones and radios at Patrol base, keeping communication open for everyone. Of course, we also have the many administrative, clerical and maintenance slots, the backbone of the Patrol holding everything together day by day.

Bill Schoening,
Chief of Security

In speaking with a number of the new "recruits", there is one underlying message that almost every one of them voiced. They want to be of assistance to the community and their neighbors. They are surprised at all of the responsibilities that Security Patrol covers, but are reassured when they learn that we are not police and do not do any law or regulation enforcement, we are, however, the important eyes and ears of Sun City, giving support to our fellow residents when needed. Throughout all the facets of training, Patrol recruits not only learn new skills, but also make new friends with other Patrol members.

Oh yes . . . did we mention that training never ends. All members have opportunities throughout the year to do "refresh" training of their chosen area and chances to cross train into a new position. Even the "trainers" have training sessions. There is also, our all-time-favorite; PAPERWORK, that stays with each member from the first day they are given orientation to infinity.

During the last Trainers training, Harry K. explained that after years "on the job", he still enjoys using his former life teaching skills to pass on important knowledge to new recruits. Security Patrol gives him a chance to give back to his community. It is very clear that all trainers had concern for residents at the top of their lists. There was an emphasis on the fact that no one is out there alone. Security Patrol has a great support staff available at all hours! And it works!

The Patrol just completed a well-attended refresher for drivers and dispatchers. A number of our rescue/fire department attended and led a discussion about residents having to call for assistance. This was mentioned in a former article but needs to be emphasized again: NEVER HESITATE to call for help! These great people are always on duty (48 hour shift) and would rather come before the event turns life threatening. If the person does not need to be transported, there is no charge. The rescue unit can evaluate the condition and help folks feel comfortable with the resolution of the incident.

The Patrol listens to our residents and neighbors and tries to meet their needs. There are, however, situations where the members cannot fill every requirement. Patrol will then try to find the proper support for the circumstances. As mentioned before, the main reason residents decide to volunteer for the Security Patrol is to help our neighbors. Continue to raise your hand and give a quick wave to the men and women who on duty 24/7 on the streets of Sun City.

SECURITY PATROL

Who Do You Call?

When to call 9-1-1, 3-1-1 or Security Patrol (702-254-2303).

ONLY CALL 9-1-1 IN EMERGENCY SITUATIONS.

An emergency is any situation that requires immediate assistance from the police, the fire department or an ambulance. If in doubt as to whether a situation is an emergency, call 9-1-1. It is better to be safe and let the 9-1-1 call taker determine if emergency assistance is needed.

CALL 3-1-1 FOR POLICE NON-EMERGENCY RESPONSE,

such as disturbance calls involving loud parties, loud music complaints, minor disturbances, a break-in or vandalism that occurred "sometime prior" or discovered upon returning home, and the suspects have left the scene. Call 3-1-1 to report any type of crime where there is no immediate threat to life or property.

CALL SUN CITY SUMMERLIN SECURITY PATROL (702-254-2303) if you observe or encounter any of the following within Sun City Summerlin:

- Suspicious vehicles, persons or activities that are not obvious crimes. Be prepared to explain why you think they are suspicious.
- Flashing porch or garage 9-1-1 lights on homes.
- Open garage doors at night-time.
- Lost or found residents, friends, relatives, or pets.
- Issues leading to concern for a neighbor or friend. These can include a person who has not been seen or heard of for a while, who is not answering phone calls, whose mailbox is piling up or who has several days of newspapers or packages in the driveway, or at the front door.
- Malfunctioning streetlights, water leaks, road hazards, and dead animals in the streets.
- Vehicles that are parked on a sidewalk sufficient to impede pedestrians.

If in doubt about anything, call Security Patrol and the dispatcher should be able to direct you to the appropriate person or agency. However, it is important to note that Security Patrol has no authority or responsibility to perform any legal or Association enforcement functions. In particular, Security Patrol cannot:

- Cite any vehicle for moving or parking violations;
- Investigate events such as vehicle accidents, burglaries or vandalism;
- Cite violations of SCSCAI Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions (Call Community Standards for these (702) 966-1411);
- Get involved in any disputes;
- Enter private property, such as homes or vehicles, without the owner or neighbor with a key;
- Open locked doors on any private vehicle or jump-start any private vehicle;
- Transport civilians or animals in Patrol cars, unless that person is in distress.

HAPPY LABOR DAY

WHEN 'LABOR' WAS 'LABOR'

On Labor Day this year, many of us are retired and have been. Folks of a certain generation (ours) remember things quite differently than the work force of younger people today. Minimum wage ('back in the day') was $1.00, and no, that's not a typo. Many of our fathers may have worn a uniform of some kind, went to work on a streetcar or company bus, came home dirty to shower, and spent their entire life working in the coal mines, steel mills, on construction sites, on the railroad, or in factories. They only wore a suit for weddings or funerals; they carried lunch pails and a thermos, had steel toed boots and not $200 sneakers. They were part of a much different generation.

"Careers" for women were often limited to secretaries, nurses, teachers, and if you were Catholic, Nuns. No electric typewriters, no Xerox machines but carbon paper, not even White-out. Shows like 'Father Knows Best' and 'Leave It to Beaver' depicted what housewives were supposed to be, almost making being a 'housewife' seem glamorous. Nurses were made to wear 'caps' as if that made them a better nurse. Teachers kept grades in a notebook, made copies on a horribly smelling mimeograph machine. As for the Nuns - the woolen habits looked like something from The Inquisition. So, at home, in an office, hospital, school, or in a convent, women in the work force were a different breed, but part of the work force, just the same.

"Back in the day" there were no techie jobs; and cell phones? Some of us had a party line! While we all now enjoy the advances of the 21st century, sometimes we need to remember the price paid by those who came before. The labor force, even 50-60 years ago, was drastically different; there was not the option to work from home for ANY reason. The women who held factory jobs during the war were replaced by the men when they came home, and life at home was still 'work'. Wringer washers, hanging clothes on a line, defrosting the fridge, no disposable diapers or micro-waves - yet they (we) survived. The money it took to buy a house then will not even buy a used car today. Three TV stations (four, if you count PBS) and you had to actually get up from the sofa to change the channel - again, we survived, and, hopefully, more appreciative for it.

Labor Day was created to celebrate the worker - recognize them for their efforts under very different circumstances. LABOR is defined as work, especially hard physical work, and that is what so many of our parents did. Technology and modern medicine has made our lives so much easier and better than it was for our parents, and the difference between our parents and their parents is even more staggering. All the generations before us labored in often unimaginable conditions, and perhaps on this Labor Day, we could take a moment to not only remember but give a little prayer of thanks to those who paved the way and laid the groundwork for the lives we live today.

Many of us had parents who did not even have a car, let alone one that can give you directions and park themselves. But it was a kinder, simpler time, when neighbors helped neighbors; today, you may not even know who your neighbor is. What we had, we shared - without question. I'm not saying my generation did not work hard, we did, and some still do. But there are still opportunities not available and a lingering pay disparity between the genders, the races, the married/single, but as that changes, slowly though it may be, from police to professional able to work anymore; a 'comfortable retirement was not always that 'comfortable'. We are the lucky ones, and not that we haven't earned it - we've paid our dues, and then some!

When growing up in Pittsburgh, my relatives recounted stories about living through the depression and then the war, stories I did not appreciate until I got much older. Not sure if, or when, the generations that followed ours will ever fully recognize just how much better their lives are. There is still the labor force today that clean hotel rooms, work outside in the Vegas heat, stocking shelves, and are part of the labor force that makes our lives easier and seldom get a referees, from politics to CEO's, the work force is evolving from where it was when Labor Day first came to be.

While we can't change when we were born, we can remember the way it used to be and be grateful for accomplishments made between then and now. While life was simpler then, it most certainly was harder. If nothing else, the advantages we have today have made retirement easier. Our parents were not talking about stock options, did not have a 401K, and Medicare did not start until the mid-60's. Many retired only when they were not physically second glance, let alone a thank you. So, on September 6th - they get their day!!

While we enjoy the last big outing of the summer, maybe we could all take a moment to recall 'back in the day' when the labor force was born of the blood, sweat and tears of previous generations. Let us also know the best of our future lies ahead in the science, technology, and creative thinking yet to be. And even though our lives are so much better than how our parents and their parents lived, "we've come a long way, Baby, but we still have a long way to go . . . !"

It's Our 28th Annual Health Fair & Flu Shot Clinic

The 28th Annual Health Fair and Flu Shot Clinic is scheduled for Saturday, September 11th, 8 -11 a.m., in the Desert Vista Ballroom. There is no cost to attend. The event will provide you with direct access to a variety of health & wellness businesses, complimentary health screenings, door prizes, and much more.

Pam Shields, SCSCAI
Health & Fitness Director

This year, we have contracted with Healthy Fairs, Inc, a company that specializes in Health & Wellness events nationwide, to organize and run our health fair.

Healthy Fairs has a strong reputation amongst other 55+, active adult communities. In addition to working with many of our local health & wellness partners, they have relationships with many nationwide companies to add more variety to our fair.

As in the past, the flu shot clinic will be provided by Albertson's Pharmacy. Most insurance is accepted. Please bring your picture ID and health insurance card. Flu shots (regular and high dose will be available) and pneumonia shots will be provided from 8 – 11 a.m. Flu shots are recommended for those 50 years of age and older who are healthy at the time of receiving the flu shot. Pneumonia shots are only needed every five years. Please consult with your doctor to determine which shot is best for your health needs.

In addition, we will have a mobile blood drive unit. National blood supplies are dangerously low, so please consider donating.

Plan to attend Sun City Summerlin's 28th Annual Health Fair and Flu Shot Clinic. This provides a great opportunity to speak with doctors, fitness practitioners, massage and physical therapists and many other health & wellness professionals about ways to help maintain and improve your overall well-being.

September is National Fall Prevention Awareness Month. See page 28 for details on our Tripping and Falling Prevention Seminar.

Life 102: Let's Get Positive! With E.J. Levine, facilitator

IN-PERSON, Tuesday, September 28, at 10 a. m. Desert Vista, Room 3.

"Did you know that every mistake you make is really a positive experience? Every time you make a mistake or mess up . . . and we all mess up . . . try saying "whoops, I just had a positive experience" . . . you will laugh out loud!

Will it correct the situation . . . probably not, however, you experienced your blood pressure coming down a notch because of laughter and not having one negative thought towards yourself for being human.

The mistake will be fixed faster than the ambulance can get you to the ER because you had a heart, anxiety or panic attack." Tickets are not required.

Equipment Orientation

We are here to help! Learn how to use the strength and cardio equipment properly and safely in each fitness center. Residents must wear a closed-toe, closed-heel shoe. A 24-hour advance signup in person or via the telephone is required to reserve your place. Desert Vista, 363-1278 Tuesdays, 1 pm; Mountain Shadows, 966-1414 Thursdays, 1 p.m. Pinnacle, 240-1326 · Fridays, 8 a.m. If you are not available during these times, please call Jessie Miles in the Health & Fitness Department, 702-240-1321, to schedule an appointment.

Happy GRANDPARENTS DAY

Did you know that there's a day that is considered a national holiday or observance known as Grandparents Day? It's officially celebrated on the first Sunday after Labor Day; this year falling on September 12th. I've been a grandparent for years and who knew? By the way, although it might seem that the correct punctuation should be an apostrophe in Grandparents Day, unlike Mother's Day and Father's Day, there is not.

The origin of this holiday can be traced back to 1956, and a West Virginia mother named Marian McQuade, who while in the process of organizing a community celebration in honor of those over 80, became aware of all the nursing home residents who appeared to be completely forgotten by their families. She decided to try and bring about a holiday that would highlight these individuals and honor all grandparents. In 1973, West Virginia became the first state to have such a day.

McQuade and other supporters raised awareness of the Day to a national level, and by 1978, they succeeded when President Jimmy Carter and the U.S. Senate recognized both the holiday and McQuade as the founder of National Grandparents Day.

McQuade rebuffed the idea making the holiday into an occasion for flowers and cards and not only refused any royalties but also refused all overtures from Hallmark. Thus, this Grandparents Day isn't even listed on the most popular occasions for greeting card sales.

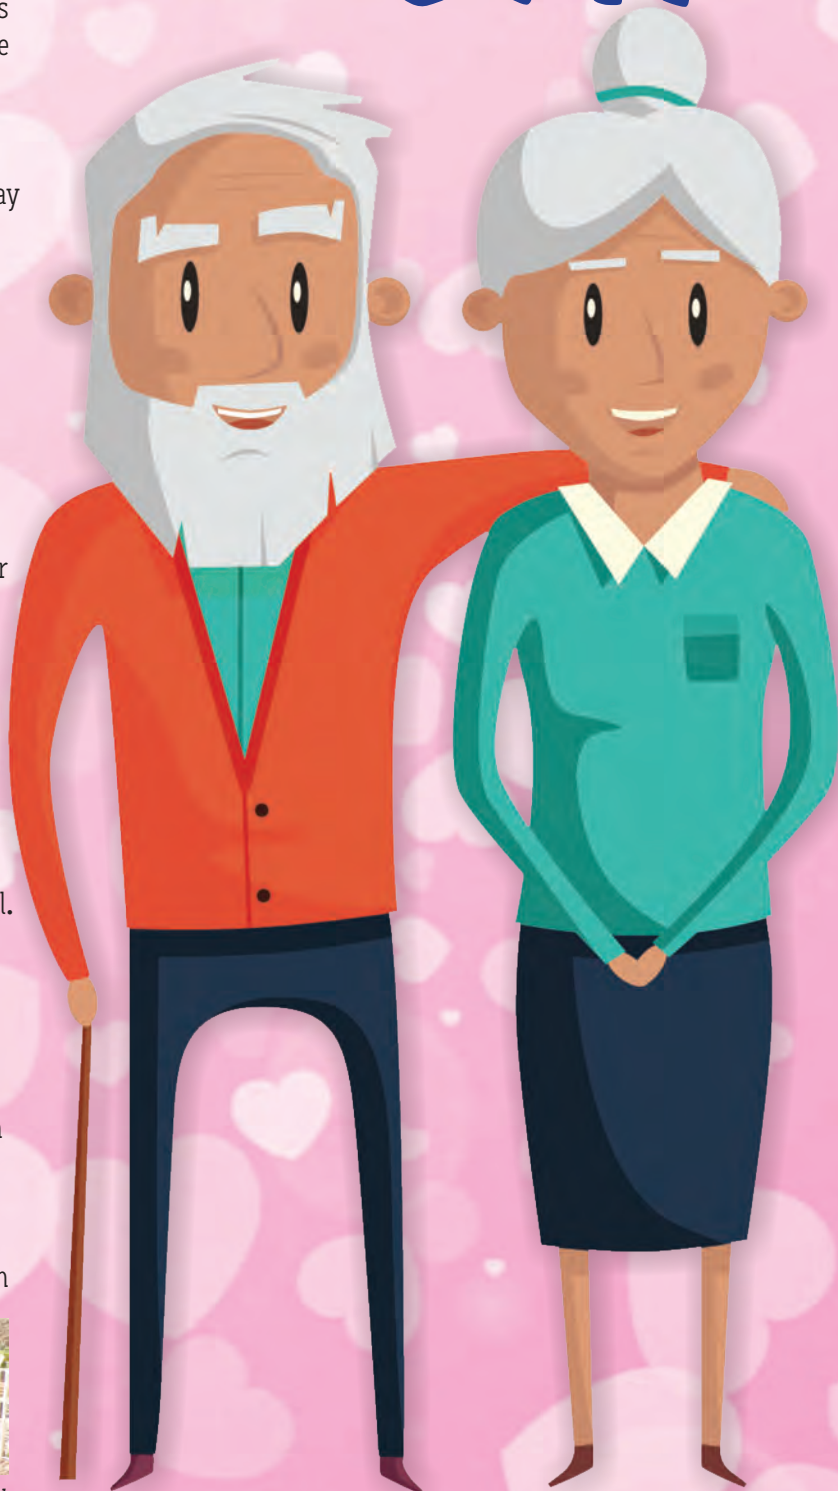

While we Baby Boomers feel we are hipper and a lot cooler than our grandparents were, Gen X, ages 41 and 56, and Gen Y or Millennial, ages between 25 and 40, don't quite see it that way. In fact, many wish that today's grandparents would keep their outdated advice to themselves. What? Why the conflicts? First of all, medical information has changed; where Baby Boomers relied on a couple of books for advice raising their children, Gen X, and Gen Y rely on the internet for the latest information. Technology and the use of it also raises issues and changing demographics come into play as well.

Although Baby Boomers may feel they are younger grandparents, they are not. Due to women electing to start families later in life, the average age of becoming a first-time grandparent has been climbing; by age 65, 96% of the people in the U.S. will be grandparents, according to AARP. With longevity increasing, an estimated 70% of 8-year-old children will have a living great grandparent by 2030.

According to the Good Housekeeping Institute, grandparenting is good for your physical, cognitive, and emotional health, with AARP calling grandkids "the elixir of life." Although the role of grandparent has changed through generations, nonetheless the bond between grandparent and grandchild remains very special. As one AARP researcher said, "in the end, love triumphs all."

The Link has collected a few pictures of Sun City Summerlin's dogs and a little story to go with each. Now, before you cat lovers get upset, send us pictures of your cat and a little story and we will feature them in November issue of the Link.

Bijou is a good girl. She helps to watch the neighborhood near Childress and Faiss. Always on her lead and she seldom barks at other doggies.
— JD —

Lady Lucille of Shoalhaven is 11 weeks old and weighs almost 6 pounds. She is a Long Hair Mini Dachshund. In March, we lost our wonderful little boy of 16-1/2 years. We still miss him, but Lucy has once again filled our house and our hearts with a new best friend!
— E & C Glovksy

Hi! My name is Angel. I am a seven-year-old Chinese Sharpe/Boxer mix female. Daily, I take six-to-eight-mile walks. I am a rescue pet and a member of Sun City K9. I recently was in the June Link. In July I noticed a neighbor had a bad water leak and Davie called it into the SNWD. I have lots of stories, but can save them for another day.
— D & M Satkus —

Meet Ellie and Lucky! Ellie, 15, is a purebred Toy Poodle and is pretty much a needy old lady! Lucky, eight, is a Miniature Poodle mix. He is our rescue dog and is full of vim and vigor. They are extremely close and do everything together. We are devoted pup-parents and cannot imagine life without the love and joy they bring every day.
— A & M Spector —

Chance was adopted from a kill shelter about three to four years ago. He has a pink heart in his paws. It is his favorite toy for fetching. He is named Chance because we gave him a 2nd chance in life. — J. Newton

This is Google, our smiley 12-year-old Cocker Spaniel/Poodle mix. He's an old dog still learning new tricks. He loves car rides, steak, and napping on the couch. His roommates are Don and Betty B.

"The damn dog's" early days had been the source of many lunchtime stories.

Maverick is his real name. Training and teaching were an ordeal, but he became a great friend and protector! In 2017, I shared the following story on Facebook: Maverick was not feeling well, so a trip to the vet was in order. After an "all's well with Maverick" from the vet, and a hefty bill, we made a pit stop in a beautiful grassy area. He was having a good time intently smelling all the other animal scents. I must be the most NAÏVE dog owner in the world as I asked myself "should I be standing amongst all of these animal smells?" and his response to this was TO HIKE HIS LEG AND BEGIN TO PEE ON ME! The things you learn. He as since passed over the rainbow bridge, but I so enjoy the memories we made together. — D Valdez

The photos above were submitted by Pet Officer Janet Newton. They are dogs she's rescued/picked up in the Sun City neighborhood and had overnight stays. They were taken to the Sun City Vet to see if they were chipped to help locate their mom and dad. THANK YOU, JANET.

It's All How You Look At It

By Alan G. Spector /Link

Once I heard about a guy who was driving in the center lane of a fast-moving expressway. He was keeping pace with the driver in the right lane, but the driver to the left of him was driving at an excessive speed. That driver pulled ahead of him, abruptly jerked his car over in front of him, then over again ahead of the driver in the left lane, then sharply headed to the exit and sped onto the exit ramp leaving the expressway.

The driver to the left of me was cursing, raising his fist (especially one finger), and got all red in the face. Our center lane driver thought "Gee . . . that driver must have an emergency to drive like that. Wow, I sure hope he gets to his destination safely and everything works out well for him!!"

Same situation, two observers, very different reactions. As with most situations, our attitudes are not controlled by others, but by ourselves, within OUR control. So, when we say "Boy, that guy makes me so mad!", does that guy really have control of OUR emotions and OUR actions? Can he really dictate how WE feel? One might suggest that only the person can control their own emotions and determine their own behaviors. We have the choice.

Say, I know this is easier said than done, but I do try to keep this in mind in many situations. It really helps put things in perspective, stay grounded, and find more peace in more places. (By the way, it will also help you sleep better, lose weight, grow hair, and have a better complexion !?!) Seriously, the next time life presents you with someone who tests your patience, or baits you, or stresses you . . . try thinking "Hmm . . . I really want to enjoy my day and focus on my many blessings."

Here are some other great suggestions that will help us keep control of ourselves, keep us on a peaceful path, and really take care of ourselves. We cannot control others; we can only control ourselves. You know, just like they tell you on the airplane, "Put your own oxygen mask on first, then help other family members." Really, if we do not take care of ourselves, what good are we to others anyway?

Actually, I look at the items on this list of ways to be mentally strong, and I think of the positives, rather than the "Do nots". For example, #1 – "Cherish and enjoy every minute, including those precious "me" times." Or #5 – I think to myself, "So, I did all I could do to have that good relationship... but even

HOW TO BE MENTALLY STRONG?

1. DON'T FEAR ALONE TIME.
2. DON'T DWELL ON THE PAST.
3. DON'T FEEL THE WORLD OWES YOU.
4. DON'T EXPECT IMMEDIATE RESULTS.
5. DON'T WORRY ABOUT PLEASING EVERYONE.
6. DON'T WASTE TIME FEELING SORRY FOR YOURSELF.
7. DON'T WASTE ENERGY ON THINGS YOU CAN'T CONTROL.
8. DON'T LET OTHERS INFLUENCE YOUR EMOTIONS.
9. DON'T RESENT ON OTHER PEOPLE'S SUCCESS.
10. DON'T SHY AWAY FROM RESPONSIBILITIES.
11. DON'T GIVE UP AFTER THE FIRST FAILURE.
12. DON'T FEAR TAKING CALCULATED RISKS.

if my best efforts sometimes are not successful, I am still pleased with ME." Or consider #8 – "I am in charge of ME, and I choose to be happy and at peace right now." Maybe even #11 – "Well, that did not work, but I am sharp enough to think of another way, maybe that will work next time." I'll bet you will come up with your own ways of making the most of every minute if you want to, it is all about "how you look at it".

So, today is a new day. Now is the only moment we have. We can take in every blessing given to us, and we can live a full and more peaceful life.

CLUB SPOTLIGHT Library Club

Cheryl Kidd

Maxine McKeown

Shush . . . The libraries are now open. A different kind of bookkeeping.

Nestled at the East side of the Mountain Shadows Community Center Card room and at the Sun Shadows Community Center are the libraries. The libraries are now open and at the same time the hallway at Mountain Shadows Community Center is serving as the over- flow library and will soon be outfitted with shelves.

Because the library doors were closed, on March 25, 2020, Julie Zerbel, from Community Standards pulled a bookcase into front of the Mountain Shadows Community Center entrance so residents could have a book and puzzle exchange. Donations of books and puzzles started arriving. The entrance became one of the only GO TO PLACES available during the COVID19 shut-down. Then the community center was allowed to open, and the books moved inside the hallway. All the library inventory in the Mountain Shadows hallway has been donated.

Never missing a step, Maxine McKeown, Library Club President and Cheryl Kidd Library Club Vice President, and a host of additional volunteers from the Library Club continue every day to categorize and organize the books, magazines, and puzzles.

It takes a great love of books like Maxine and Cheryl have, to have this commitment to the libraries. Maxine loves mysteries and Cheryl enjoys all types of books. But better yet they see that the library offers the members a calm and quiet place to come to.

The Library Club meets quarterly on the third Thursday of the month. The next meeting will be at Sun Shadows, at 2 p.m. on September 16th. To join or volunteer, Contact Cheryl Kidd at 541-233-6545 or email klipsan2@gmail.com.

Remember, you may take out 10 books at a time. When you return them, please place them neatly in the cart provided so they can be filed alphabetically.

What Should I Do If I Need A Replacement COVID-19 Proof Of Vaccine Card?

I was recently asked how a person goes about getting a replacement COVID-19 proof of vaccine card.

All vaccination providers must report COVID-19 vaccinations to their state health department's immunization information system.

The CDC does not have individual information about COVID-19 vaccinations.

If you received your vaccine in Nevada, you can obtain a copy of your immunization records from the Nevada WebIZ Public Access Portal.

Visit <https://izrecord.nv.gov>.

You will be asked the following questions.

First Name

Last Name

Date of Birth

Gender

How you want to receive the code to access your immunization record – the choices are text or email

Your mobile phone number (for a text code) or your email address (for an email code)

You then put in the code, and it takes you directly to the portal where you can print your card and/or download it.

I went through the process to see how it works, and it was quick and easy, and provided me the information needed if I am asked anywhere to provide my card.

Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) COVID-19 Funeral Assistance

August 20, 2021

Dear Sun City Summerlin Owner and Residents,

At the Tuesday @4pm meeting, an Owner shared with us that the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) has added to its assistance plan COVID-19 Funeral Assistance. Since many of us were unaware of this, I did some research and thought I would share with you why and what is available.

FEMA acknowledges that the COVID-19 pandemic has brought overwhelming grief and expense to many families and are dedicated to helping ease some of the financial stress and burden caused by the virus.

Under the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Act of 2021 and the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021, FEMA is providing assistance for COVID-19 related funeral expenses incurred after January 20, 2020.

If you incurred funeral expenses for an individual whose death was in the United States, including the U.S. territories or the District of Columbia, which may have been caused by, or was likely the result of COVID-19 you may qualify for reimbursement of or assistance with funeral expenses.

At this time, there is no deadline to apply for COVID-19 Funeral Assistance. Your income does not affect your eligibility for this assistance. This is a one-time payment for funeral expenses, and you should apply after you have incurred all eligible expenses.

To Apply or for additional information on how to apply, call the dedicated COVID-19 Funeral Assistance Helpline:

844-684-6333 I TTY: 800-462-7585

Monday – Friday 9am to 9 pm – Eastern Time

For Additional Information you can visit the website at;

1. fema.gov

At the top of the page in the dark blue band;

2. Click on Disasters & Assistance.

In the Drop Down Menu;

3. Click Coronavirus (COVID-19)

You will find what you are looking for in the list of items on this page.

For those of you who have suffered the loss of a loved one to COVID-19, I send you my deepest condolences and hope this information is useful. For those of you who know someone who has lost a loved one to COVID-19, possibly you can share this information with them.

Note: We are looking into the possibility of offering the COVID-19 Booster shots here at Sun City Summerlin and we will keep you informed on if the State of Nevada, Southern Nevada Health District and/or City of Las Vegas will accommodate this.

Sincerely,
Mitzi Mills, CAM, AMS ,CMCA, LSM, PCAM
Executive Director
