Report Changes to Property Ownership as Soon as Possible

With a community the size of Sun City Summerlin, we have lots of projects that are in the works. One of the projects I am directly overseeing is updating homeowners' files. This consists of 7,089 homeowners. Not only do we have a physical file for each owner with their immediate information, but the information is kept in the Association's computer system.

One area that is critical for our record keeping is ownership of property. When there is a change of ownership, i.e. a sale of a property or change of a property ownership into a trust, we need to update SCSCAI's records to reflect that change. If you refer to the Association's bylaws Article VII: Officers 7.11 Executive Director: (h), "Maintain in the Association office accurate identifying information." You also can refer to additional sections of the bylaws, Article II: Members and Residency, 2.1 Membership Qualifications: (a) and (b), for even more clarification. As the executive director, I have an obligation on behalf of the Association to ensure that records of the Association are accurate.

For example:

Mary Smith (the owner of the property when it was purchased by Mary Smith)

Mary Smith Trust (after checking the Assessors information, Mary Smith recently put her property into a trust)

Once information is updated, SCSCAI files can accurately reflect property ownership on the administrative side.

This type of property title change requires that the homeowner come into the Administration office to receive a new activities card in order to continue to use the facilities. This is a 5-minute process. If you go to one of the facilities or to a pro shop and are informed that your card has been deactivated, you will need to come to the Administration office so we can verify the reason. If your card was deactivated due to a property title update, we can replace your card quickly.

Please do not delay coming into Administration to complete the process. It is imperative that your information is accurate not only on our end, but with your activities card. We appreciate everyone's assistance in helping us get this project completed and apologize for any inconvenience. If you have any questions, please call me directly at 966-1409.

A Reminder from Community Standards

Any changes or modifications made to the exterior of a residential property are subject to the governing documents of the Association, and prior approval by the Architectural Review Committee is required.

Lately, we have had many problems with changes to the exterior of homes without ARC approval. Ultimately, the homeowner shall bear the cost of correcting any violation. To avoid the possibility of such costly errors, please have a copy of an approved application in your hands before any exterior work on your property begins. If you have any questions, please call the Community Standards office at 966-1411.

No . . . Increase in Dues

Jim Akers, *Treasurer,
SCSCAI Board of Directors*

There will be NO increase in membership annual dues for fiscal year 2015. The annual assessment will be $1,284; the same as last year. A breakdown of annual dues is: $1,062 for daily operations; $192 to capital reserves and $30 to new capital acquisitions.

The Association's reserve study has been updated. The current estimated reserve balance for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2015, is $13,903,422. The SCSCAI Board had previously approved 80 percent funding as its goal; reserve funding should be at an 80 percent level at the end of fiscal 2015.

Major capital reserve expenditures for 2015:

- Resurface Sun Shadows bocce ball courts.
- New pool furniture for Mountain Shadows.
- Remodel restrooms and slurry coat cart paths at Highland Falls.
- Remodel restrooms and hallway at Palm Valley.
- Turf reduction also will be done throughout the community to help save on water and maintenance expenses.

All of these are projected expense and revenue estimates for the year ending June 30, 2015.

We need to thank Linda Mertz, director of finance, and her staff for their excellent work in preparing and finalizing the 2015 budget.

The Association is in the planning stages for celebrating its 25th anniversary in October. A number of events are being planned at this time. All are welcome to participate in the planning, and all residents are encouraged to celebrate with the community by attending these special events.

When a wily, witty, lazy and shrewd slave discovers that his master's son is in love with the girl next door – a beautiful courtesan – he promises to help win her heart in exchange for his freedom. But the road to romance is blocked with surprises, disguises and the funniest chase scene ever. Inspired by the farces of the ancient Roman playwright Plautus, the plot displays farce, puns, cases of mistaken identity and satirical social class comments. The musical's original run won several Tony Awards and was made into a successful film. A concession stand is available for food and drink, or bring your own. You may bring blankets or folding chairs, or rent a folding chair at the park for $1.

Reminiscing Tours of Duty: Writers Workshop's James Rankin Shares Tales of 30-year Career

By Jerry Silvers

Col. James C. Rankin, USAF, Ret., joined the Army Air Corps in 1943 in the middle of World War II and was stationed at Biggs Field, El Paso, Texas. After arriving in England he was pulled from his position as bombardier and sent to radar navigation school.

"At that time the group had more bombardiers than navigators," Rankin recalled.

Rankin's experience as a 1st lieutenant in post-war Germany, working with a German-speaking master sergeant, resulted in some important lessons learned early:

1. Sometimes things are not what they seem to be. Make sure you have the facts right before making a decision.
2. Never sit when someone is working. Two people working together will catch an error.

In 1955, Rankin, by that time a captain, transferred to Misawa Air Base in post-war Japan, where he flew F-86s (saber jets). Approximately 18 years later, Rankin was again stationed in Japan, this time on Okinawa, the southernmost island in the Ryukyu chain. As a full colonel, and director of flying at Kadena Air Base, Rankin had the opportunity to observe the differences between the Germans and Japanese with regard to being occupied by the United States military.

"The Germans were very afraid of us immediately after the war," Rankin said. "They would get off the sidewalk and into the street if possible when they saw us approach. They would stop what they were doing as we approached and watch as if they expected to be told to do something. Later, in a few months they (Germans) became more at ease and would speak first and often smile before we smiled at them.

"Japan was a different story, from my viewpoint," Rankin said. "They were even more afraid, early on, and almost obsequious. Perhaps it was their nature to be super cautious."

Between 1963 and 1968, Rankin and his family were stationed at Nellis Air Force Base in North Las Vegas, where he was assigned as a special assistant to the group commander. During this time, Rankin also was stationed in Oslo, Norway, as part of North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) operations.

"A great assignment," he said. "We loved both stations."

During Vietnam Rankin flew 126 missions in a specially equipped Phantom jet, where he was assigned to photograph North Viet Nam targets.

Col. James C. Rankin, USAF, Ret., and his wife, Sylvia, are members of Sun City Summerlin's Writers Workshop.

A brand new Colonel in 1970, Rankin was now working in the Pentagon for the Joint Chiefs of Staff. He was assigned to Lieutenant General (three-star) Louis Seith. Rankin recalled that the biggest, most involved project he worked on involved reorganizing the two Air Forces in NATO.

"In six weeks, we developed seven options that included hardware and logistics, and cost for each option. Since I knew the details of the options, I accompanied General Seith to meetings that were held to get approval of each military service and the secretary of state, Henry Kissinger," Rankin said.

Sit Less, Live More

Did you know that something as simple as getting out of your chair can improve your health and help you live longer? Surprisingly, it can!

It's based on the concept of nonexercise activity thermogenesis or NEAT for short. NEAT is all of the calories you burn simply by living, rather than through structured exercise.

NEAT activities can lead to reduced body fat, improved cholesterol levels, a healthier heart and reduced risk of common weight-related conditions.

Being more active in your daily life and leisure time can lead to great heart health benefits. "Every time you move around rather than sit, you challenge your heart to beat a little faster, training it to be stronger and fitter," said Miriam E. Nelson, Ph.D., and author of the "Strong Woman" series of books.

Here are some ways to add NEAT activities to your day:

- Walk around the house during TV commercials.
- Park in the farthest spot in a parking lot, or park by the shopping cart collection area and grab your cart there.
- Dance around the house while cooking and cleaning, or work on balance by standing on one foot.
- Do your own yard work (watering plants, pulling weeds, etc.)
- Organize your closets.
- Take up a new craft.
- Volunteer at an event, serve a meal.
- Clean your house.
- Don't use the remote, use your feet to move you to the TV.

In general, leading an active daily life will add beneficial improvements to your heart health and your longevity. Live life to the fullest by getting up and moving!

Malicious Scam Targets Bereaved Spouse

The loss of a loved one is difficult enough; still, the family of the deceased must be aware of the realities of scammers who may target them when they are emotionally vulnerable and less likely to be at their apprehensive best. There are cruel, but very clever thieves who read newspaper obituaries daily, looking for target victims to defraud. The ruse is particularly effective when a scammer relates factual information to the spouse of the deceased. Be especially cautious to avoid providing facts in a newspaper obituary that provide extensive biographical information about the deceased.

One particular swindle involves someone making contact with a surviving spouse by contriving a situation to claim an outstanding debt.

It goes something like this:

A phone call follows an obituary notice in the daily newspaper. The scammer identifies him or herself as a claims adjustor from a nationally recognizable life insurance company. Their job, they say, is to reconcile policies so that death benefits can be settled. They go on to advise the spouse, as the deceased's beneficiary, that there is a life insurance payout of X-amount, usually in the thousands of dollars, that they are about to forfeit because premiums are in arrears. However, if the spouse immediately remits the delinquent payments, the death benefit will be settled.

These alleged insurance adjustors can be persuasive. They relate personal information and are reasonably convincing. They know, and mention throughout the conversation, the names of employers, the deceased spouse's career and other such information. They take advantage of the fact that a spouse may be reviewing social security, pension and life insurance policies, and are hoping to cash in on timing.

One such scam was attempted on me, following the recent death of my husband.

In this case, the claims adjustor demanded I take care of the delinquent payments immediately.

"This must be taken care of right away," she told me. "It is important that you do not delay in correcting the policy so that a $44,942 death benefit can be paid to you."

She told me to write down the amounts of the missed premium payments. The total, $953, would have to be sent "right away," and she would instruct me about where to wire the payment. At that point, knowing for sure that it was a scam attempt, I challenged her and she hung up.

Never respond to intimidation that something bad will happen if you don't take "immediate action."

Successful scams favor three incentives: greed, fear and immediacy. Never respond to intimidation that something bad will happen if you don't take "immediate action." And always be suspicious of anyone who instructs you to wire funds.

- Ellen Greenspan/Link

SCSCAI 25th Anniversary Update

Mark Your Calendar for 5K Fitness Fun Day

Dust off your tennis shoes and get ready to walk in celebration of Sun City Summerlin's 25th anniversary. Las Vegas Mayor Carolyn Goodman, along with Mayor Pro-Tem Stavros Anthony, will kick off the morning festivities surrounding Sun City's 5K Fun Day on Saturday, October 11.

Registration for the event will open in August and be available at the social monitor stations at all four community centers. Be sure to check your August Link for complete details.

If you can't make the 3-mile walk, don't worry, there will be plenty to do – as each registration will include a goodie bag for those who walk the fitness track lap with the mayor. As the 5K walkers head out, stick around, visit with the mayor and mayor pro-tem, enjoy club demonstrations and indulge in a free continental breakfast buffet. In addition, there will be a special old-time candy event you won't want to miss.

If volunteering is more your style, the Fun Day committee, headed up by the Fitness Club, is in need of helpers who can assist with checking in walkers on the day of the event, as well as staffing water stations, monitoring the route for safety, cheering on participants and a variety of other duties. For more information, call Jeannette Carrillo at the Link, 363-1546.

Landscape

Plant Reduction Top of Projects List

I want to talk about a few ongoing projects the Landscape Department is working on. First, if you drive along Thomas Ryan Boulevard close to Anasazi, you will notice crews have been reducing plantings in the landscape. Not only will this save on water, but it will give the area a clean look. The plan is to use rock, boulders, decorative walls and some art. Second is the patio area at Desert Vista, where the arts and crafts room is located. We have been killing the ornamental grass in the area to help make the patio more user friendly. Existing trees and plants will be removed and then two new trees and four pots with existing Sago palms that will be transplanted from another location will be installed. The area that is currently a planter section will be refitted with brick pavers to allow more people to sit and enjoy the view. If you notice any plants at intersections that block your visibility or keep you from making safe turns, let the Landscape Department know ASAP and we will look at it as quickly as possible. This is also part of our plant-reduction program. Thank you and have a great summer.

~ Louis Darling, Director of Landscape

Common Area Properties

The Common Area Properties Committee met at its regularly scheduled time on Tuesday, May 13. Agenda items discussed included the installation of hand rails at Sun City's bocce ball courts and the moratorium placed on planting in Sun City Summerlin.

According to CAP Chairman Bruce Alitt, the maintenance department, along with SCSCAI Fitness Director Kristie McWhorter, inspected the bocce ball courts and agreed to develop a hand rail to assist players in stepping over the boundary walls. The rail is intended to guard against a reported tripping hazard and will be installed at a Sun Shadows court on a trial basis. If determined that the hand rail helps, handrails will be installed at all bocce ball courts at Sun Shadows and Desert Vista. The cost of the hand rails is projected to be minimal, Bruce said.

Discussion following a second agenda item re-emphasized that there will be no new planting in Sun City Summerlin without specific authorization of the executive director on a case-by-case basis.

Bruce Alitt, Chairman, Common Area Properties Committee

■ CAP MEETING

The next CAP meeting is Tuesday, July 8, 9 a.m., Desert Vista.

The Board of Directors unanimously approved the addition to SCSCAI's Rules and Regulations, Section IV.J of not permitting golf carts or dogs on greenbelts.

Community Preparedness Committee

When the Heat Is On

In recent years, excessive heat has caused more deaths than all other weather events, including floods. A heat wave is a prolonged period of excessive heat, often combined with excessive humidity. Generally, temperatures remain 10 degrees or more above the average high temperature for the region during summer months and last for a long period of time.

Chairwoman, Community
Preparedness Committee

- ♦ Listen to local weather reports and stay aware of upcoming temperature changes.
- ♦ Discuss heat safety precautions with members of your household.
- ♦ Have a plan for whenever you spend time at home, work or recreation.
- ♦ Have an emergency operations plan.
- ♦ Prepare for the unknown, such as a power outage. Be cautious about the need for fire prevention around the garage and outside areas of your home.
- ♦ Know where to go if your home's air conditioning fails – cooling station or relief center.
- ♦ Assist elderly or sick neighbors. They are more likely to become victims of excessive heat and may need assistance.
- ♦ Ensure that pet needs for water and shade are met.
- ♦ You may wish to get trained in first aid to learn how to treat heat-related emergencies.

What to Do During a Heat Wave

- ♦ Never leave children or pets alone in an enclosed vehicle.
- ♦ Stay hydrated by drinking plenty of fluids, even if you do not feel thirsty.
- ♦ Avoid drinks with caffeine or alcohol
- ♦ Eat small meals and eat more often.
- ♦ Take frequent breaks if you must work outdoors. Postpone outdoor games or activities.
- ♦ Check on pets to ensure that they are not suffering from the heat.

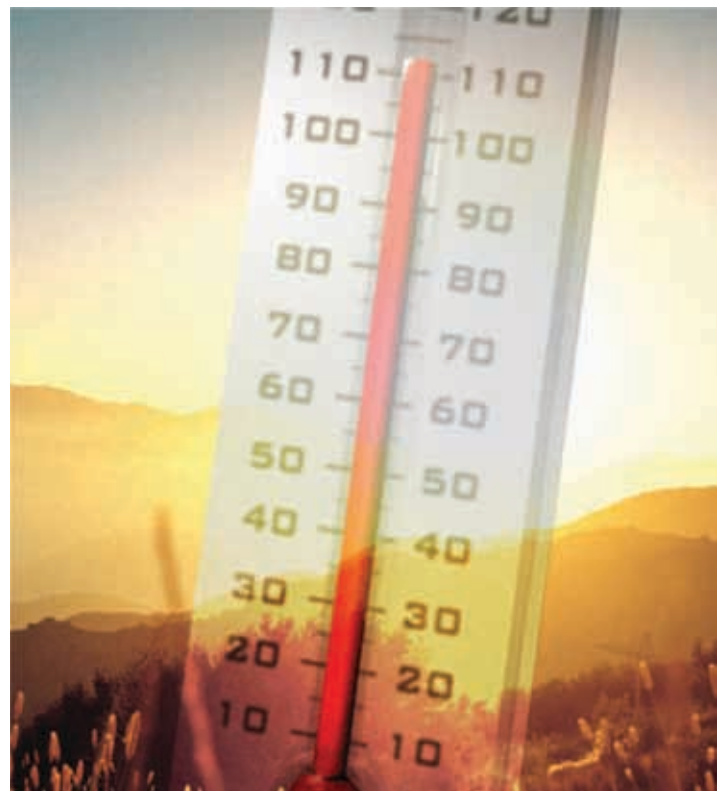

How to Recognize and Care for Heat-related Emergencies

- ♦ Heat Cramps are muscular pains and spasms that usually occur in the legs or abdomen. They are caused by exposure to high heat. This is often an early sign that the body is having trouble with the heat.
- ♦ Heat exhaustion typically involves the loss of body fluids through heavy sweating. Signs of heat exhaustion include cool, moist, pale or flushed skin, heavy sweating, headache, nausea, dizziness, weakness and exhaustion.

Treatment for Heat-related Emergencies

- ♦ Move the person to a cooler place. Remove or loosen tight clothing and apply a cool, wet cloth or towel to the skin.
- ♦ Fan the person. If conscious, give small amounts of cool water to drink. Make sure the person drinks the water slowly. If the person refuses water, vomits or begins to lose consciousness, call 911 immediately.

■ COLORFUL HISTORY, MEMBERS POPULATE PAN CLUB

Not only does the club have a funny-sounding name, but it comes with a pretty interesting history, said Pan Club President Linda Harrington. Panguingue (pronounced pan-ginn-gay), or Pan, is played every Tuesday from 11:15 a.m. to 3 p.m. inside the Mint, Sahara and Thunderbird rooms at Mountain Shadows.

"It was started by ladies looking for love, shall we say, in Alaska as a way to pass the time in between tricks," said Club member Luanne Toberman, shedding some light on the game's heritage. In fact, there's even a list of curious lingo one must become familiar with when learning to play Pan.

"You don't shuffle the cards, you muck them," said Elayne Tessler as she readied her table for the afternoon session. And, yes, there's even a mucker, or dealer.

As the games get going, words and phrases like "bong," "go on top" and "peckered" become part of the colorful conversations.

"Pan is a lot like gin rummy because you meld," or build sequences as you go along, said Elayne.

Popularized in the western United States during the gold rush of the mid-1800s, Pan is categorized along with rummy games. In Sun City, tables are made up of roughly eight players. Eight card decks are used with the 8s, 9s and 10s removed. Each player is dealt 10 cards. The remainder of the deck is placed face down and the top card is turned face up to begin the discard pile. The object of the game is to build sequences using 11 cards and then come out.

The Pan Club's current roster lists 128 members, a decline over the 169 members it had last year. And so Linda is doing a bit of promotion to get players interested.

"I never played cards until I came here," said Linda. "It's a fun, easy game. If you have card sense, you'll pick it up. I took lessons and in two days Al (the club's designated teacher) threw me out. He told me, 'You can do it.'"

To help those unfamiliar with the game, Al Weiner offers lessons every Thursday from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. It's a great way to see if Pan is for you. Lessons are free and do not count toward the two invitation sessions every Sun City club offers residents curious about membership.

While every table in the room plays Pan during the assigned club time, Linda said each table's rules are a little different. Each table has a designated monitor, who determines table policy.

While women outnumber the men in Pan, there are a few males who dot the tables, and Linda said the club is always looking for new players – men, women, couples, friends.

"It's a great game to play. It keeps people out of the casinos and it's on our premises," said Ardith Asher, whose male-heavy table takes up residence at the back of the room.

"A mixed table is the best," said Sharon Carlson, sitting to Ardith's right.

Sharon and Ardith's table is made up of four men and two women.

"We have more fun than the others," Sharon said.

For more information about becoming a member of the Pan Club, or to take lessons, call Linda, 778-1436. To see a video of Pan in session, visit www.suncitylink.com and click the Clubs tab.

Photography Club

The Sun City Photography Club will next meet on Thursday, July, 10, 7 p.m., Desert Vista. A number of our members will present short digital slide shows of interesting subjects they have recently photographed. This program was originally scheduled in April. Due to excessive administrative discussions the program was greatly curtailed at that time. Our club has a different photography topic each month. Come, learn and ask questions. Our meetings are the second Thursday of each month. For more information about our club please call John Pollet, 233-8207.

Pickleball

Pickleball is growing in Summerlin with two new courts located throughout the city. We're lucky to have our own courts in Sun City and they are getting a lot of use. We are now meeting for games on Monday and Thursday evenings at 6 p.m. at the courts next to the Security Patrol office at Desert Vista. Pickleball is getting a lot of press around the country, so maybe there's something to it after all. We haven't changed our Saturday/Sunday time (8 a.m.). You can catch up on the goings-on by reaching out to our board members: President Augie Costanzo, 301-2183; Vice President Sumiko Tatsue, 562-4856; or Secretary/Treasurer Bob Altomondo, 341-0153.

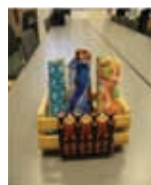

Pinochle (Single and Double Deck)

Meets Tuesday at 5:30 p.m., Mountain Shadows. If you're an experienced player, we would love to have you join us. New members are always welcome. Play begins at 5:30 p.m. Come 15 minutes early to register. Call Richard, 341-5314.

Poker

Our sessions for July are Saturday, July 5 and 19, Mountain Shadows, 6:30 p.m. Club dues are $12 and $1 is collected at each session for refreshments. You may attend twice as our guest and we hope you will then become a member. For more information, call Jean Modes, 363-1939.

Quilting

Summer means getting ready for the Craft Fair in October. Come by the quilt room at the Pinnacle to see lots of new quilted items for sale (great for gifts). Board meeting Wednesday, July 9; general meeting, Monday, July 14. For information, call Lin, 334-4283, or the quilt room, 240-1322. Stay cool!

Racquetball

We have doubles and singles available every day of the week. Check our schedule for club time, or just pick a partner and head down to the Mountain Shadows fitness center. If you are a squash player or a handball player, give it a go. We have four levels of play to ensure you get the competition you'd like. Get to our website for more details at www.scsracquetball.com. In the meantime, I'm Bob Altomondo, the president of the club, and I can be contacted by phone at 341-0153, or email raltomondo@cox.net.

Residents' Forum

Wednesday, July 9, Desert Vista, 7 p.m. ICE CREAM SOCIAL. Come sometime during the hour and enjoy free ice cream with friends and neighbors. We will scoop it and you can add your favorite topping. It will be a social time with good music and good people. Every resident is a member of The Residents' Forum and it's free! Please come to our planning session every first Wednesday at the Pinnacle at 1 p.m. We need volunteers and program ideas. For information, call President Glenda Rogers, 255-7755.

R.V.

We will be on summer break, which means that most of our members are going out of town to visit friends and families living in cooler climates, therefore we will not have our regular monthly meeting at Desert Vista. Our next club meeting will be Monday, September 8. If you have any questions about our club, try to catch us when we are in town or call our President Gene, 233-9870. Have a great and safe summer!

Sawdusters

Do you miss making items out of wood? So, what's keeping you away from the wood shop? Come on down and check us out. We have classes for new members and refresher courses for others. Do you have broken wood items that you need repaired? We do most repairs in our shop located at the Pinnacle. Call Bev Pasco, 838-2621, or the wood shop, 240-1325.

Security Patrol

This month's general membership meeting is Tuesday, July 22, 7 p.m., Desert Vista. If you appreciate the concept of neighbors helping neighbors, you'd probably be an excellent Security Patrol volunteer. Call 254-2303; a dispatcher is always there.

Sewing (Just Sew)

No monthly meeting in July and August, but crafts on the first and third Thursdays and charity workshops on the second and fourth Thursdays are ongoing. Help days are the first and third Fridays of the month. You don't want to miss our mini craft fair in the sewing room on Saturday, July 26, 9 a.m. to noon. Come and see what we have for you to buy for gifts or something special for yourself. For information call Julia, 255-9898.

Shuffleboard

Join us for a fun game of shuffleboard. The club meets on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, 9 a.m. We also have evening play available. You may play on any or all of the days that best meet your schedule. New members are always welcome. The courts are located behind Mountain Shadows, between the tennis courts and putt-putt golf. For questions, call Andy Lawson, 242-1540.

Silver Foxes

Join us for exercise classes to Richard Simmons' tapes at Sun Shadows. We welcome new members to get moving at our classes on Mondays at 10 a.m.; Tuesdays and Thursdays at 9 a.m. and 10 a.m.; and Saturdays at 10 a.m. The Club's yearly dues are $8. Call Sue, 739-9696.

Silver, Lapidary & Glass Fusion

Vacation time is upon us. Enjoy your travels. Come visit our craft rooms, bring your inspirations from your travels. Let's see what you can create. Our rooms are open all summer long on Monday and Wednesday through Saturday from 8 a.m. to noon. To join the club or sign up for classes, contact President Bob Miller, 612-3277.

Silvertones

The Silvertones are taking a break during the summer months and will resume rehearsals on August 28 when we receive our music and begin preparing for our winter/holiday concerts. If you like to sing, can carry a tune and can commit to weekly rehearsals on Thursday afternoons from 1-3 p.m., in the Music Room at the Pinnacle, check out our friendly group. We would be pleased to have you look us over and join us if you like to sing. For more information, call Roger, 228-1477.

Softball-Men's

Our season has ended as of May, but we continue to have pick-up games every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 9 a.m. and sometimes on Saturday after 9:30 a.m. We also want to welcome our new board members: Ed Schimmels, treasurer; Doug Riach, secretary; Mike Gazarek, vice president; and last but not least, Terry Fowler, president. We will be getting ready for our 2014-2015 season, starting in September so you'll have plenty of time to stretch those hamstrings and get your swing back to when you were 18 years old. You can check out the going's-on at our website, www.scssoftball.com, or call President Terry, (808) 366-1239.

Spanish

Have you ever wanted to learn Spanish? Now is your chance. We offer classes for those who only know how to order a margarita up to a class for fluent Spanish speakers. Classes are held at Mountain Shadows every Friday at 9 and 10 a.m. The beginning class is also held on Wednesday. Classes are taught by volunteers from the community. Contact Terry, 255-2880, or tclark@earthlink.net.

We have excellent instructors and the Club supplies everything you need. Make your home lovely with a beautiful stained glass piece. Let the sun shine through the sunny side of the house and enjoy the beauty of your creation. Studio is located at Mountain Shadows. Call Dale Kavula, 240-6257.

Sunshine Service

Vacation time. No meeting this month. Join us in August for fun and games. The warehouse will be closed on Friday, July 4. We lend medical and children's equipment for resident use. Hours: Monday to Saturday, 9-11 a.m., 10362 Sun City Blvd. Aluminum tabs, Campbell's Soup labels, toiletries, and greeting cards are accepted for charities. Help us fill Salvation Army barrels with non-perishable food at our warehouse or the kitchen area of the High Sierra Room at Mountain Shadows. Call 341-9741.

Swim

There will be a picnic on Tuesday, September 9, 11:30 a.m., in the picnic area south of the Desert Vista outdoor pool. Lunch will be provided for $7. Swimming in the Senior

Olympic Games is October 4-5. Anyone interested in joining the club may contact any of us or just come on over to the Desert Vista indoor pool during our regular swim time, Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 9-10 a.m. We have swimmers at all levels and instructors who can teach swimming or improve your form. Beginner swim lessons are offered free to club members. Annual dues are $10. Contact Carol Rudolph, 869-3303.

Table Tennis

The Table Tennis Club held a tournament with Sun City Anthem and we were once again defeated. We had a great time. The tournament went exactly four hours, and a special thanks to Anthem in providing the tournament director. This was our fourth tournament with Anthem — Sun City won the first and Anthem won the next three. We have decided that in the future we will carpool to Anthem with interested players and they will, in turn, come to Sun City to keep up the friendship with our cross town rival. If you were a player in your younger years, or would just like some exercise or want to meet new players, join us. We play at the Pinnacle fitness center every Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Call Jeff, 596-6405.

Tai Chi

Dues are $10 per year, and entitle members to attend the May BBQ picnic, September 17 pizza party and December 6 Christmas party. It's a good opportunity to have some positive social contact with those we play tennis with or their non-playing spouses, as well as a lot of good food, fellowship and fun for all. Call Jerry Barksdale, 254-4645, or Art Ott, 586-9585.
